

BUTLER CITIZEN.

JOHN H. & W. C. NEBLEY, PROP'RS. Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as second-class matter. WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 12, 1883.

Republican State Ticket.

For State Treasurer, WM. LIVSEY, of Allegheny county.

For Auditor General, JEROME B. NILES, of Tioga county.

Republican County Ticket.

For District Attorney, SAMUEL B. SNYDER, of Butler.

For County Surveyor, B. F. HILLIARD, of Washington twp.

There are eighteen trains arriving and departing from Butler daily.

The coal miners at Coaltown and Harrisville have accepted the terms of their employers and gone back to work.

It looks now as if our Harmony friends were having fair weather for their Fair, which opened yesterday, Tuesday.

The Legislature is still in session—and no appropriation bills passed. The people are thoroughly disgusted with this business.

The late frosts appear to have extended over much of the Western country, and from all reports the damage everywhere is about the same as here.

Mr. CHARLES HASLETT, son of the late Hon. William Haslett, who has been in business in "Old Virginia" for some time back, is now here visiting his relatives.

Mr. JOHN P. THOMPSON, who was returned by the constable of Brady township, for some supposed obstruction to a road, was discharged by the Court on Monday last.

Mrs. SARAH TIMBLIN, who for some time past has been living with a daughter in Bradford, is back on a visit to her friends here. She is stopping with Miss Sarah McQuinn.

Two men are reported to have been killed on the P. & W. railroad on last Saturday. The accidents were in Allegheny county and we have not learned names of particulars.

The Altoona Tribune believes that if the members of the Legislature would do their own thinking, instead of following the beck and call of party leaders, there would soon be an appropriation and an adjournment.

The Ohio election is approaching and much interest is manifested in the result. From all we see and hear we have no doubt of the election of the Republican State ticket for Governor, etc.

On Monday last the Post Offices began the issue of postal notes, by which any sum under $5 can be sent, payable to bearer, at any money order office in the country at a charge of only three cents.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch is now issued every day in the week, Sunday included. Its first Sunday edition appeared upon our streets last Sunday morning and was generally sought for, as the Dispatch generally is. It is interesting.

The people of San Francisco have united in paying a just tribute to the memory of Garfield. A monument to his honor is to be erected in Golden City Park. The corner stone was laid on Friday and over 60,000 persons—more than one-half of the entire population of the city—witnessed the ceremonies.

By an oversight we failed to notice the musical concert given in the Court House on Friday evening of last week, under the auspices of the German Cornet Band of this place. We regret this, as the exercises were very entertaining and, in some respects, of a new character. The young visiting ladies from abroad were well received and made a favorable impression upon their audience. The whole affair was a success.

Among the Dorsey-Slan letters is one from Gen. Garfield alluding to "a side arrangement," in which T. W. Phillips of New Castle, Pa., is referred to, and another letter introducing and commending Mr. Phillips to the National Committee. The italicized word, of course putting a corrupt construction, and directly and by innuendo, upon the affair. The "side arrangement" referred to was an offer by Mr. Phillips, an ardent member of the Disciples church—long since a warm personal friend of the General, to visit and secure the cooperation of the brethren in Indiana, where they were numerous. This is the story of the italics, in brief. Those acquainted with Mr. Phillips will never suspect him of engaging in any corrupt practice, and the sensation is spoiled.

THE GREENVILLE Shenango Valley News, in speaking of the extension of the S. & A. road to Butler, says as follows of our county and the new road:

"The road runs through a thrifty agricultural and mining country, and in point of construction, ballasting, and equipment, will rank with many roads of much greater pretensions. It is ballasted with stone and gravel, and laid with steel rails, and is equipped with excellent rolling stock. The main line from Greenville to Butler is fifty-eight miles in length, which, with the branches, gives the company a mileage of nearly five miles. The extension to Butler opens up a large amount of new coal territory, and also gives the line a direct connection, via the West Penn road, with Pittsburgh and the East, which will greatly increase its freight and passenger traffic."

Wonderfully Worried.

By an article in the Eagle last week some person, or perhaps persons, appear wonderfully ill at ease in regard to the letters addressed by the members of our Bar to Judge McKnight, expressing confidence in him and asking him, when the time came, to be a candidate for re-election. We are sorry for these gentlemen—sorry that their minds are so much worried and disturbed on the subject. The members of a Bar have the best opportunities of knowing the fitness of lawyers for judicial stations, and therefore there is great propriety in their giving an expression on the subject when proper to do so. We can't understand why it should have annoyed some half dozen gentlemen so much as it has. To the first article in the Eagle, some three weeks ago, we did not feel called upon to take any notice. And we would take no notice of the one of last week were it not that it disputes a fact we stated in the CITIZEN of the week before. We have refrained from any allusion to or controversy with that paper for some time past. This we did in the hope that peace and union in the Republican party of this county might be restored and success in the future assured. But, on the other hand, has continually shown a disposition to keep up strife; and all we have to say on that point now is, that there is to be no peace, the responsibility for its failure will be fixed upon the right parties, and they alone will be the sufferers in the end.

But our purpose now is correct the statement in the article the Eagle permits itself to publish last week, as to the number of the members of the Bar who have signed the letters addressed to Judge McKnight. We stated a majority had done so. This was and is correct. A majority has done so. It is the writer in the Eagle that is "mistaken" and not us. We have the papers before us and find 38 names attached thereto. The Eagle parades, without authority, and very much to the annoyance of some of the members of the Bar, 31 names who it says have not signed. But even in this it is again mistaken, for three of the very names it publishes are on the letter of the Republican members addressed to Judge McKnight. Then again, it gives the names of some who are absent and had no opportunity to sign, but who it is known will sign the letters for Judge McKnight. Then again, it gives the names of present candidates and others who were not asked to sign, through motives of delicacy or propriety. Take all these things together, and and others we know of, and its list will be materially cut down. The membership, all told of the Bar, is some sixty. To the letters, that will in time be presented to Judge McKnight, we are authorized to say there will be a number added, that will make the whole number about two-thirds of the Bar instead of a majority. And, to make this matter short and end it, it occurred to either of those uneasy gentlemen how many of the members would sign a similar letter for them or for any other? It would be interesting just now to know how many members of the Bar would sign a letter adverse to that which will be presented to Judge McKnight. But our only purpose at present being, as we have said, to reaffirm the statement we had made, to wit: that a majority of the members of the Bar had already signed the letters intended for Judge McKnight, and having established that, we have no desire to say more, and think more need not be said at present. We have a county ticket to elect this fall and it is important there should be Republican success. Next year, as all can clearly see now, there will be one of the most exciting and important elections ever held in this country. Victory or defeat may depend much upon the result of the elections this year. Nothing, therefore, should unnecessarily disturb harmony or promote discord, and we hope, as far as this county is concerned, that there may be perfect peace.

FROM all parts of the county we have encouraging reports for the election of the Republican county ticket this fall. Mr. Snyder, our candidate for District Attorney is a popular and worthy young man and will poll the full vote of the party. Mr. Hilliard, candidate for County Surveyor, is also a well qualified and worthy man for the office. Let the Republicans of the county rouse up and see to the election of these nominees of the party in November next.

The pleasures of the imagination are only exceeded by its wonders. An amusing illustration of this fact seems to have happened in this place lately. On the occasion of certain gentlemen being consulted as to the next Judge-ship they immediately imagined something was said or intended for them in the way of Congress. It is a case of how our "wishes are father to the thought," or how, when having our minds engrossed with one idea we frequently make misapplication of other ideas to that one. The case is something akin to the one of mistaken identity.

Repairing. The members of the English Lutheran Church, of this place, meet upon their burial ground lot, south cemetery, on Saturday next, for the purpose of repairing the same. This is the second meeting they have had for that purpose and it is very desirable that there be a full attendance of all the members on Saturday next, as considerable work is yet to do in order to put the burial ground in proper shape.

WORK AT HARRISBURG.

Cutting Off the Ten Dollars a Day.—Wagner's Resolution Adopted.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 5.—There was an old time aspect on the face of affairs on the Hill to-day. Under the inspiration of a cool and breezy atmosphere, becoming the season of a month later rather than a September morning, the statesmen congregated about the legislative halls earlier than usual. The statement in the Press of this morning that a Democratic Senator would offer a resolution cutting off pay created considerable consternation. Whether side knew how to treat the dilemma which it presented.

As the matter was discussed its gravity seemed to increase, and a few minutes before calling the body to order the Republicans went into caucus formally. They continued to deliberate in secrecy until half an hour past the time of meeting, and then, having marked out a course, the business began.

THE REPUBLICAN POLICY. It soon became evident, however, that the party was not of one mind. The policy determined on was to support the resolution if it was offered. As soon as the journal was read, however, Dr. McKnight manifested his dissent by moving to adjourn. There were only three others to back him, however, and the proposition failed, with twenty-five votes in the affirmative. Then Wagner got in his resolution. It is in this language:

Resolved, That, if the House concur, the Appropriation Committees of the respective bodies be and they are hereby instructed to report the Appropriation bill for the pay of Senators and members up to and including September 10, 1883, and that said committee be further instructed to report no other appropriation bill until appointment bills shall have been passed.

Senator Gordon moved to amend so that the resolution would provide for pay from the beginning only in the event of agreeing on bills. He said he was opposed to pay and would not himself accept compensation unless bills were enacted and intimated that the payment now would only afford means to protract the session.

MOVING TO STRIKE OUT. George Handy Smith, in his usual suave manner, moved to strike out the words "until appointment bills have been passed." Still moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Appropriations, and Kennedy gave his colleague, Mr. Gordon, a side slap by challenging the propriety of the suggestion that members receiving money should not receive pay.

THE DEMOCRATS REFUSE TO VOTE. HARRISBURG, Sept. 6.—The Republican Senators made a strong effort to-day to have the Wagner resolution reconsidered in order that they might strike out the final clause which provides for further appropriation bills to be made after September 10 until the appointment bills were passed. The Democrats blocked the game by refusing to answer to their names when the roll was called, and thus broke the quorum. The session was rather lively. The motion to reconsider was made by Stuchman. Wallace said this session of yesterday had received almost the unanimous support of the Senate, and he could see no reason for a change of front now.

Davies said the resolution was not clear enough and it was in such shape as to be readily misunderstood and misinterpreted. From remarks which had been made yesterday the purpose of the resolution was not fully stated or understood. A little thought showed it to be clearly another attempt to coerce the Legislature into passing appropriation bills. It had been authoritatively stated yesterday on the floor of the Senate that should no appropriation bills be passed there would be no pay for this extra session. He was unwilling to introduce such methods of coercion. The purpose of amending the resolution, he continued, was to make the Republican position clear, decisive and strong to make no appropriation at all after September 10, whether bills were passed or not. The resolution, as passed yesterday, was simply an instrument placed in the hands of the Executive to beat out the hands of the Executive. He was sure that McKnight said that the resolution was a violation of the Constitution in spirit if not in letter and therefore he had voted against it. When the vote was finally reached the Democrats, pursuing the plan laid out in the caucus which they held before the session opened, sat silent in their seats. There were but twenty-one Republicans and there was nothing left but to end the session. The Senate adjourned until Monday.

The House was in session for only a short time. Senator Wagner's resolution was not taken up. Merrey, of Lock Haven, attempted to have his resolution for final adjournment on the 10th last taken up, but failed to secure the requisite majority to suspend the rules. The House adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Formally Opened. The Connecting Link, or extension to Butler of the Shenango & Allegheny Railroad, was formally opened on the 4th inst., by the officials of the same and many invited citizens of this and other places. With these also came some of the principal officials of the Pennsylvania Central Road. Mr. B. K. Jamison, of Philadelphia, who has invested largely in the new road, was also present; Mr. Thomas H. Wells, and Messrs. Bonnell and Wick, of Youngstown, Ohio; Judge Mellon, of Pittsburgh; Judge McDermitt, of Mercer county were among the number. The intention of our citizens, was to give them a fitting public reception, but occasion required them to leave earlier in the evening than was anticipated. With others of our citizens we regretted that their short stay prevented many from meeting them at the "festive board," as was desired to do. They left in the early evening well pleased with the new road, and with our county and with all they had seen and heard.

ACCOMPANYING the excursionists to this place on the 4th inst., on the occasion of the formal opening of the S.

& A. Railroad to Butler, the press was represented by Mr. Hempstead, editor of the Crawford Journal; Col. H. C. Bloss, of the Titusville Herald; W. A. Rupert, of the Conneautville Courier; Mr. O. P. Shaffer, of the Youngstown Register; H. B. Mason, of the Oil City Derrick; T. R. Winans, of the Pittsburgh Leader; Julius Chambers, of the Philadelphia Times; Messrs. Brown and Davenney, of the Greenville Advance Argus; Mr. Dumars, of the Greenville Valley News; Mr. Steward, of the Mercer Republican; Mr. Hall, of the Mercer Dispatch; Mr. Palm, of the Mercer Press, and Dr. Borland, of the Grove City Telephone. Most of these gentlemen honored our office with a visit and we were very much pleased to see and become acquainted with them.

Everybody said go on, and Bullitt spoke at length in favor of his proposition, saying there was no hope of appointment. "I am getting the worst end of this thing," he added with a smile. "I am paying my own expenses and not getting a cent"—a reference to his early pledge to take no pay that was enjoyed by the House. Collins, of Sullivan, opposed the resolution as he would the evasion of his constitutional duty." The roll call followed with 103 yeas. So the matter was disposed of in form by sending it to the Ways and Means Committee.

Mr. Merry introduced an anti-pay apportionment resolution similar to Gordon's, in the Senate. Mackin objected, and Merry moved that the rules be suspended for the purpose of considering the resolution. In this he failed; 95 Democratic yeas to 58 Republican nays. The House adjourned. There was great confusion over the count, the Speaker at one time declaring that two-thirds had voted for the motion, and then repeating his previous decision that the resolution had failed.

SUMMONING THE ABSENTEES. HARRISBURG, Sept. 5.—The extra session of the Legislature is evidently reaching a climax. To-day Speaker Fance announced in the House that hereafter, after each roll call the names of absentees and dodgers would be read out from the clerk's desk. Senator Cooper returned from Bedford this afternoon and has given a general order for stiffening the lines on the Republican side. He assembled a few leading Senators and members in the Senate Committee room, No. 3, to-night, where they remained until a late hour in consultation.

The Chairman doubts the wisdom of the resolution passed in the Senate this morning and will make an effort, through the medium of party discipline, to defeat in the House to-morrow. The policy will be to refer it to a committee where it may be kept. Failing in that, the next move will be to get it amended, so that the process of stragulation may be made possible in conference committee.

The Republicans have to-night sent despatches to all absentees, urging them to return in time for to-morrow. The Democrats have taken similar measures to secure a full attendance of their friends, and the outlook is for the liveliest session to-morrow. When the conference dissolved to-night it was with the understanding that another one, embracing a more general party representation, will be held in the morning.
