—An Eastern editor has a libel suit on his hands, simply because he alluded to the church choir as the "lyres of the town."

—An error prevails in the minds of a good many people that the new United States postal note takes the place of the money order for all sums less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are obtainable as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts in volving old money, through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

—An Englishman named Watkins has recently completed an invention which can be applied to any sewing machine so as to keep the wheel in motion without pressure of foot or hand. It is a box of tape—the one thing above all others of which a woman rather than a man ought to have thought. It is used in tape to be sure, and is wound up so as to serve as a coil spring for use, and is prevented by ratchet and click from releasing itself. There is a good deal of clock-work connected with it and an ingenious method of compensating the action of the ribbon, but it begins and ends in tape.

—Next Tuesday is the day fixed for the reunion of the soldiers of this county in this town. As per order of Chief Marshal Hays, published in another place, the soldiers will form into divisions at the crossing of Jefferson and McKean streets at 10:30 A. M., and at 10:45 A. M., will move by way of Jefferson street to the Fair Grounds, where, after partaking of the refreshments to be provided, they will listen to a number of short speeches, some camp songs, good music by the Sanbury, Centerville and Butler bands, and otherwise enjoy themselves as per programme published last week. If the weather is propitious it will no doubt be a great day both for Butler and the soldiers.

—Mrs. Eliza Jane Morris, wife of Martin Morris, of Chevon, Lawrence county, tried to bury her kitchen fire last Thursday evening by pouring oil on the fire. The oil exploded and her clothing was saturated with burning oil. All her wearing apparel, with the exception of her shoes and a strip of her dress which still encircled her waist, was consumed. Her hair was burned off and her eyes were burned out. The unfortunate woman died from the effects of her injuries about 11 o'clock the same night. The case which caused the accident had a capacity of about a gallon, and was nearly full of oil at the time. Her remains were taken to Wilkesbarre for interment. The deceased was about 40 years of age, and formerly lived with her husband at Zelienople. Her husband is now employed as section foreman on the Pittsburgh & Western Railroad.

—Mr. William Whistler, who lived in Butler some years ago, but who now runs the best hotel in Mercer, is becoming famous. When in Pittsburgh, a few days ago, a paper there announced that "Mr. C. W. Whistler, a relative of the famous artist of Basinstoke, England, is at the Monongahela House." At his home Mr. Whistler is irreverently called "Bill." In the surrounding towns he is promoted to Capt. Whistler. At Pittsburgh he is distinguished as a relative of the famous artist of Basinstoke, England. And when he was in Basinstoke he was the "Honorable William Whistler, of county Merion, Pennsylvania, U. S. A., to whom our artist townsman is closely related." But he is a good fellow all the same and keeps a first class hotel, a fact that Butler people should remember when they go to Mercer.

—Street Commissioner Graham has put some good work on our streets this summer.

—The Wallace farm well No. 4, Bald Ridge district, is pumping one hundred barrels per day.

—Uniontown, Fayette county, celebrated the centennial anniversary of her organization last Wednesday.

—Wm. Nelson, of Middlesex township, has filed a petition for divorce from his wife Margaret Nelson, nee Campbell.

—On account of the bad weather, the rowing regatta at Hulton last week was not a success, but there were a few good races.

—The failure of the leading cloth firm and one of the leading wholesale clothing firms in New York, created a sensation in this city last week.

—Last Saturday the wife of Dr. Newton, of Pittsburgh, who committed suicide some two weeks ago, also committed suicide by taking poison.

—The school board of the town has established another school to be known as No. 3, B. This makes twelve schools for the town. The teacher for the new school has not yet been appointed.

—A son of Henry Gold, of Springdale, aged ten years, fell from a walnut tree near one of the railroad bridges last Saturday and broke his left arm near the wrist. It is a bad break and the arm may have to be amputated.

—The Nineteenth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association will be held in Scranton, Lackawanna county, on the 10th, 11th and 12th insts. County As. associations are requested to send delegates.

—A young man named John Smith was killed in the Hueselbert coal bank, east of town, last Wednesday, by some slate falling upon him. He was about 22 years of age and was a son of Mr. Spang.

—There will be preaching in the Baptist Church on next Saturday, 9:30 o'clock, and on Sabbath morning and evening. Communion at the morning service. All the members are earnestly requested to be present on Saturday and Sabbath services.

—But few of the dentists of this county have yet had their diplomas recorded, although in the case of those already practicing it should have been done by the 20th ult. There is a fine of not less than $50 or more than $200 for not complying with the law.

—It is no longer necessary, in telegraphing to Brazil, in South America, to first send the message by cable to Europe. An American company's lines were opened last week, and a communication may be made by wire and cable with almost all South American ports.

—The firm of J. B. Habley & Co., of Pittsburgh, is financially embarrassed. Mr. Habley claims that the high rent paid by him during his ten years' lease of the Library Hall store-room contributed to his embarrassment, and says that the firm will be able to pay claims in full if time is accorded them.

—The most extensive family reunion that we have heard of lately, was that held at the residence of the Hon. John J. Kilgore, in Irwin township, Venango county, last Thursday. Fully five hundred persons were present, most of whom were the descendants and family connections of Mr. Kilgore.

—Gordon, Geary and Cusum, the "Bradlock burglars," were sentenced by the Allegheny County Court last Saturday. Gordon to twenty-five, and Geary and Cusum to twenty years in the Western Penitentiary. Dr. Back each in the Western Penitentiary. Dr. Back each in the Western Penitentiary. Dr. Back each in the Western Penitentiary.

—A pretended circus agent is going through the country. He goes into a town and makes extensive arrangements for the exhibition of his show, contracts for feed for the horses, meat for the animals, board for the people, engages bill boards; then he is a little short for ready cash, but has a draft which he gets cashed. That is the last of the show.

—Mr. Chas. R. Grieb has received his fall and winter stock of men's and boys' furnishing goods—hats and caps, woolen underwear, waists and driving gloves, Ed. gloves, fine suspenders, silk and linen handkerchiefs, white and colored shirts, cuffs and collars, rubber goods, silk, alpaca and gingham umbrellas, etc. Charley carries a large stock, and his goods are of the latest styles both as regards shape and color. Our readers will find him a clever gentleman to deal with.
