nothing. We made a note in last issue of the proceed-ings in the case of the Commonwealth rs. John Smith, Esq., up to the departure of the Sheriff and Smith's bondsmen from Butler, for the purpose of bringing the Esq., to Butler. They arrived at his home that night about ten o'clock, got him up and dressed him and took him over to Keister's, where they stayed over night, and to k the train next morning for Butler. The parting scene between Smith and his family is said to have been very affecting, and next morning the family were at the sta-tion and came to Butler with him. At Butler the trains of the S. & A. and West Penn roads stand for a few minutes along side each other, and the Sheriff quietly got the E-q., from one train to the other and had the car doors locked, which prevented another family scene. This was the first he knew of the intention to take him directly to Allegheny. He talked take him directly to Allegheny. He talked rationally all the way down, and with assistance walked up to the old penitentiary in the Park, where he was assigned to the hearital demontment. On Constant walked up to the old penitentiary in the Bark, where he was assigned to the hospital department. On Tuesday Smith's bondsmen asked the Court to cancel or annul their bond. This the attorneys of the prosecution objected to kind presented a petition to Court asking that the hall be held and made liable for the damages or loss to the prosecutors for time spent and expenses incur-red in prosecuting Smith, under the act of July 1'42, which makes bondsmen liable to be sued in some cases for the benefit of parties injured, costs of suit, compensation of coursel, etc. Smith's bondsmen emphatically deny that his non-appearance on Monday was his fault. They say that he had been informed by one of his counsel that he could appear any day dur-ing the session of two weeks. They also speak very highly of Sheriff Donaghy's management, and of his kindness to Smith.
