

BUTLER CITIZEN

MISCELLANEOUS

"You are no Gentleman, Sir."

While General Grant was undergoing a demonstration on the part of the mob at Bradford last Friday, he met an unpleasant incident which will no doubt cause him to remember Bradford with any kind of a feeling of pleasure.

"I am truly thankful that I ever used Dr. Benson's Celery and Cinnamon Pills, for they cured my rheumatism." Mrs. J. R. Padden, Point Caswell, N. C. 50 cents at druggists.

"Yes," said Amy: "I went to the telephone and put the thingum-bob to my ear." "Thingum-bob!" screamed the high school girl; "you mean the audiotube, don't you?"

"Mr. W. H. Midlam, 616 Boss St., Harrisburg, Pa., says: 'Brown's Iron Bitters speedily cured me of nervousness and stomach troubles.'"

"How beautiful that woman sings," said one lady to another, who was in gorgeous attire and blazing with diamonds. "Is she a mezzo-soprano?" "No, I guess not; I think she is a Swede," replied the other.

"Landlady, please pass your cow down this way," asked one of the "dandy" boarders while at the supper table. "Certainly," she replied. "Here, water, take the cow down to where the calf is bleating."

It is well enough to be rich, but to parade your riches is contemptible. A man may be proud of his house, but it is not necessary to ride on a ridge-pole, says the proverb.

It is pretty difficult to recover from a fault committed. Old Fuller once said, "Where the horse falls down there some hair will be found."

It would be better for you if you could be contented with what you have instead of making yourself miserable by wishing for what you have not. If you look up all day a chip will sometimes fall into your eyes.

What people on the planet know better than we that honor and profit do not stay long in the same sack.

Though it takes two to make a bargain, "won" is sufficient for a victory.

Opponents of the new time stand are singing "There's no time like the old time."

Man's greatest need is association, says a recent work on political economy. If we had been called upon for an opinion, we should have thought of a winter overcoat, a new hat, even bread and butter, before association. But, then we don't profess to know all about political economy.

A good education is more to be desired than great riches, but the latter captures the girls the quickest.

"Is beer a tonic?" inquired an anxious correspondent; and in our humble opinion it is, most emphatically—a tonic.

"If I punish you," said a mother to her little girl, "you don't suppose I had no capacity, do you?" "Then whose pleasure is it for, mamma?"

"Come away from that straw stack," called a negro woman to her son. "Just thing yer know yer'll hab dat hay fever. Doan yer put none ob dat straw in yer mouth."

Many London ladies crop the hair short and wear an almost entire wig, and consequently catch cold more frequently than their American cousins, but of course they all use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

An old lady down in Maine says her daughter has just bought an elegant "cabin organ," and she thinks the "nau-ronica" stop is just lovely.

QUEEN VICTORIA. Court circles in England are anxious about the queen's health. Her disease is thought to be of the kidneys. While this is difficult to reach by ordinary treatment, which accounts for her lingering illness, there is a sure and certain remedy for all such kindred affections, which she ought to know of and use. It is DR. FENNER'S KIDNEY AND BACK-ACHE CURE. The following illustrates how readily it cures an indefinitely worse case than hers.

Frederica N. Y., Mar. 8, 1882. Dr. M. M. Fenner—Dear Sir: For years I had been suffering from a combination of kidney disease, heart disease and female weakness. I had a nervous aching pain over my kidneys with cramping of my limbs. I had backache and a scanty and turbid flow of urine; the beating of my heart and general prostration; nervousness, sleeplessness, palpitation and drooping of the heart. My condition was a distressing one, and all treatment and medical remedies gave little or no relief.

I have been taking your "Kidney and Back-ache Cure" with the most happy result. It has relieved all the unpleasant symptoms that have followed me so successfully that I am now doing better than I have done in many years. I never had a medicine help me so quickly and cure so completely. I am doing my own work. Yours truly, MRS. JAMES FULLER.
