-Sewing Machine attachments and repairs of all kinds, at E. Grieb's Jewelry store. -And now it is rumored that the P. & W. R. R. has passed into the hands of the Balti-more & Ohio.

There will be communion services at the Mt. Chestnut U. P. Church next Sabbath. Services every evening this week and on Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

—Some twenty of our citizens went over to Prospect last Wednesday for the purpose of in-augurating a new G. A. R. post, which started off with thirty-three members.

-Light running Domestic Sewing Machines Jos Niggle & Bro. Agents, Butler, Pa. tf —Many of our storekeepers had an excellent Holiday trade. Even on Christmas day some who went to their stores had to remain several hours to wait on customers.

—Directors and others having business with the County Superintendent will find him in S. F. Bowser's office, in Brady's Law Building. —The Executors of the estate of Patton Kearns dec'd have sold the store building at corner of Main and Jefferson streets to Dr. G. M. Zimmerman.

-Communion service will be held in the Reformed Church, Butler, on next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. All are invited to attend. Preparatory service will take place on Saturday at 2 P. M.

—Miss Mary Ann McKee of this town fell upon the ice last Thursday afternoon and broke one of her urms. Mrs. Ward fell on Christmas day and also broke an arm.

—Marriage by ryhme is becoming fashiona-ble. The fashion was invented years ago by a colored minister whose form upon a certain occasion was: "Under this tree in rainy weath-er, I marry this man and woman together. —Christmas was thoroughly enjoyed by Butler people. Especial efforts were made on the preceeding evening by some of the churches to make the children happy, and they succeed-ed well.

—While the Rev. Hall Young was in the States last Fall lecturing on "Life in Alaska," a man named McFarland who took his place while he was absent, brought the Mission into temporary dispute by taking part in a disgraceful quarrel in the school room, but the published account alleging immorality in the school is denied.

THE PITTSBURGH WEEKLY COMMERCIAL —THE PITTBURGH WEEKLY COMMERCIAL
GAZETTE each week contains two or more portraits of men and women of the hour, together on all great topics of the times.

—Attention is directed to the card of Mr. G. D. Harvey, which appears in another place. That Mr. Harvey is a master workman is proved by such jobs as the Adam Troutman house, the Glass works, the Reiber mill stack, the new Klingler mill boiler and engine house, and other jobs in and about Butler, and that he is a responsible contractor, we all know. He can be found at his home, at north end of Washington street, Butler.

—The last meeting of the Board of Pardons at Harrisburg was an unusually interesting one for the people of Allegheny county as one of their Judges—Kirkpatrick—was accused before it of being unjustly severe in his sentences, and another—White—of being biased in the discharge of his duties, of falsifying the records and of changing the stenographer's reports of cases. At the same meeting of the Board a pardon was refused John Lefevre, and nothing further was done in the Apple case.

—Vick's Fioral Guide -Here it is again; brighter and better than eyer; the cover alone with its delicate tinted back ground and its dish of gracefully arranged flowers, would entitle it to a permanent place in every home. The book contains three beautifully colored plates, is full of illustrations, printed on the best of paper, and is filled with just such information as is required by the gardner, the farmer, those growing plants, and every one needing seeds or plants. The price, only ten cents, can be deducted from the first order sent for goods. All parties any way interested in this subject should send at once to James Vick, Rochester, N. Y., for the Floral Guide.

—The entertainment given by the public schools on Friday evening, the 21st inst., was a great success in the way of performances, but could not be called so in point of attendance. The performers all acquited themselves creditably and were heartily applauded. The best his of the evening were a song by Master Curt Jones, song by poys of No. 6 and a dialogue called "Ignorance vs. Jurice." It is a great shame that the neople of Butler do not take enough interest in their childrens' education to attend an Intertainment given by them when the price of admission is only 15 cents. The teachers should receive the encouragement of the parents, whose children they are endeavoring to fit for their future life, in order that they may then better carry on their work, and the best way to do this is to attend the entertainments. The present series of enterta ments is given for the purpose of buying a new organ, the old one being "played out."

The changes that have been made in all the time tables of the roads in this county are noted in another place. There are now four trains daily on the P. & W. R. R. between Butter and Allegheny City, two of which run as far north as Butler only. What is called the market train leaves Butler at 5:40 a. m. and what is called the market train leaves Butler at 5:40 a. m. and what is called the the market train leaves Butler at 5:40 a. m. and returns at 8:20 p. m; and what is called the Butler accommodation arrives at 1:20 p. m. and leaves at 4:20 p. m. Some slight changes have been made on the West Penn road—the market train now leaves half an hour later and the morning express fifteen minutes earlier. On the S. & A. road, also some slight changes have been made—the morning train leaves 20 minutes later, or at 7:40 and arrives here at 7:30, in time to connect with the 7:35 train on the West Penn. The "condensed time-card" of this road that we have received by mail professes to give the "connections" of this road with E. & P. R. R., N. Y. P. & O., B. N. Y. & P. and P. R. R., but does not mention a single P. and P. R. R, but does not mention a single point on any of these roads that is also on the S, & A. R. R:

The following list of persons in this county receiving pensions from the Government has been sent us from Washington and may be relied upon as correct, so far as sent us. The letters, "g. s. w.," means gun shot wound; "l." is for left; "r." for right; "1812," means the war of that year; the figures at the end of each name give the monthly rate, or the amount per month received by each pensioner. The medical terms used for diseases will be understood. The year and month of the year on which the pension commenced have had to be omitted.
