

BUTLER CITIZEN.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The publisher of the Beaver Falls Pa. Courier, Mr. John F. Porter, some time ago contracted a severe cold. He says: "I tried half a dozen remedies ineffectually and upon recommendation of a physician I gave Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup a fair square trial. It relieved me immediately and cured my cold and catarrh entirely. It is a remedy that should be used in every household."

The use of nursing bottles for children is strictly prohibited at the Paris Maternity Hospital.

Their Name is Legion.

Legions of people have had their lives made miserable by Piles. This painful difficulty is often induced and always aggravated by Constipation. Kidney Wort is the great remedy for affections of this kind. It acts as a gentle cathartic, promotes a healthy action of the bowels, and soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces. It has cured hundreds of cases where all other remedies and applications have failed. Sold by all druggists.

A French writer, who estimates that the world contains 193,000 doctors, complains that two of our most exasperating affections, asthma and catarrh, defy their utmost skill.

U. S. Surgeon Recommends.

Dr. J. M. G. Peaton, is a U. S. Ex-Surgeon, residing now at Bloomington, Ind. Dr. writes, to say: "I recommend Samaritan Nerve because it cures epilepsy." Physicians, generally, are its friends.

According to the Allg. Wein. Med. Zeit., Bismark treats his country badly, and is constantly changing them, his wife traffics in a nostrum for the cure of epilepsy. It is made from magpies' wings.

The secret of the universal success of Brown's Iron Bitters is owing to the fact that it is the very best iron preparation made. By a thorough and rapid assimilation with the blood it reaches every part of the body, giving health, strength and endurance to every portion. Thus beginning at the foundation it builds up and restores lost health. It does not contain whiskey or alcohol. It will not blacken the teeth. It will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, dizziness, nervous debility, weakness, etc.

Here is a pebble which everybody is flinging at everybody else.—Some people give according to their means, others according to their meanness.

Grape Wine for Communion.

The superb quality and entire purity of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey, and the success that physicians have had by its use, has induced them to write about it, and caused hundreds of others to prescribe it in their practice as the best and most reliable wine to be had. It is held in great favor for communion purposes, and is of great benefit to consumptives.

The millionaire is not far off. A gentleman has written to the editor to thank him for not printing his article. When people begin to see themselves as others see them there is hope even for politicians.

Nervousness.

The moment there is danger of impairing of the mind from excessive nervous exhaustion, or where there exists forebodings of evil, a desire for solitude, shunning and avoiding company, vertigo and nervous debility, or where insanity has already taken place, PERUNA should be implicitly relied on. But it is never so well to wait so long before treatment is commenced. The early symptoms are loss of strength, softness of the muscles, dim or weak sight, peculiar expression of the face and eyes, coated tongue, with impaired digestion; or in other certain powers only are lost while they are otherwise enjoying comparatively good health. In all these PERUNA should at once be taken.

The Salvation Army, with its files and drums, is having a hard time in Switzerland. The authorities declare that religious liberty does not give a person the right to convert himself into a religious nuisance.

Hope.

Hope humbly then; with trembling pinions soar; Wait the great God, Death, and God above, But give that hope to be thy blessing now. Hope springs eternal in the human breast: Man never is, but always to be, blest. The soul, uneasy and confined from home, Rests and exults in a life to come.

A San Francisco man advertised for "320 red-headed girls—must be good looking," and not one response was received. A few days later he advertised for "320 golden-haired beauties," and before the paper was out two hours the street in front of his office was crowded with just the style of beauty he desired.

A young lady in Ulster county, N. Y., called at a lawyer's office in Kingston the other day, and asked to have suit begun against a former lover for breach of promise. "He promised to marry me four times," she said, "but he hasn't kept his word, and my affections are all blighted." "How much damage do you wish to claim?" said the polite lawyer. "Well, I was blighted four times, and I think $100 a blight is none to much." So suit was entered at $400 damage for four blights.

Mr. Jos Kreider, 977 N. 6th street, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion with gratifying results."

Mr. Calverly has been called the apostle of perjury, and the following verses on the possibility of being contented with an onion if you can't get anything better proves his right to the title.

Friends, there be those on whom mishap Or never, or so rarely comes, That when they think thereof they snap Desirive thumbs.

And fain would I be on as these: Life is with such all beer and skittles; They are not difficult to please About their needs.

The trout, the grouse, the early pea, By such, if there, are freely taken; If not they munch with equal glee Their bit of bacon.

Taming a Cowboy.

A typical cowboy, fresh from his herd, went in Elitch's chop-house last night. The tables were all filled with the exception of one, at which the terror of the plains seated himself. As he pulled off his hat and untied the red bandanna handkerchief from around his throat, he looked disheartenedly around.

The nimble waiter brushed an imaginary bread crumb from the cloth, whisked a bill of fare from the castor, and placed it before the festive and untamed youth.

"Take it away," he snarled. "I want rattlesnake on toast," yelled the waiter.

"Rattlesnake on toast," responded the cook.

There was slight flutter among the guests at this strange order, and the cowboy was scanned by many curious eyes.

He looked a little disconcerted at having his order so promptly taken, and glanced furtively toward the front of the house. He saw the cooks and waiters engaged in filling orders, and looking as solemn as graveyards after midnight.

He assumed a nonchalant air and picked his teeth with his fork.

A cook deftly removed the skin from a pickerel, and cutting a strip of the proper shape, placed it in a spider.

The waiter who had taken the order came tripping back to the bold buccannier of the pampas.

"Will you have your snake well done or rare?"

"Rare, with oodles of milk gravy on it."

"Gimme that snake rare—milk gravy on the side," was hallooed to the cook.

"Snake rare, milk gravy—side," the cook shouted back.

"Say!" said the bovine steerer, as the waiter passed him. "I'll take it well done."

"Make it well done," was answered back.

The larriest wrestler began to grow nervous. The devil may-care expression had left his eyes, and a soft, subdued, melancholy shade had taken its place. He fidgeted in his chair, and seemed to be nerving himself for an ordeal.

"Here you are sir," said the culinary Ganyemed, placing a dish in which was something nicely coiled which looked like a tried specimen of the genus coturnus. "Have a little Worcester sauce? Gives a very fine flavor. Some folks like mushrooms with their snakes, others prefer Chili con carne." A little salad dressing don't go bad. There's vinegar and olive oil in the castor. Will you have tea or coffee? Very fine snake; caught yesterday. Fat and tender."

When the waiter was delivering himself of this eulogy on the meat, the steerer punched his chair back. His eyes bulged out and he became pale around the gills.

"I don't think I'll eat anything. I ain't hungry," he said as he rose to his feet and reached for his hat.

"Maybe you'd prefer brilled moccasin," insinuatingly suggested the waiter.

"No," he replied, as the ashen pallor deepened on his face. "I ain't a bit hungry." He cast another glance at the dish he had ordered, and made a break for the door. He forgot to pay at the counter.—Cheyenne Sun

LOOK AHEAD.

We can never be too careful. What the seed our hands shall sow: Love from love is sure to ripen, Hate from hate is sure to grow. Seed of good or ill we scatter Heedlessly along our way, But a glad or grievous fruitage Waits us at the harvest day.

Lawyers will gladly learn that Brougham, the great English barrister, was always careful of his throat, and further that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy for bronchitis and other throat troubles.

Rev. J. C. Zehring, Codorus, Pa., says: "I was paralyzed in my right side. The use of Brown's Iron Bitters enabled me to walk without cane or crutch."

It is better to get your own living and make a name for yourself than live in a house built by your father and own a vineyard planted by your grandfather.

An old Dutchman gave up his little property to his creditors, saying, "I want to be all right with my heart, and den noddings troubles me." But some people seem to have a "dead beat" in the place where the heart ought to be, and so pay ten cents on the dollar and are at peace with themselves and with the world.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by a East India missionary the speedy and permanent cure for Consumption, Lung Affection, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested their wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make known to his fellow-sufferers the only true and reliable remedy, by the use and direction of which they may cure themselves, and being sent by mail, with directions for preparing and using, by J. C. NEWMAN, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. Sent 25c per copy.

Vital Questions!!

Ask the most eminent physician. Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically 'Buchu.'"

Ask the same physicians "What is the most reliable and sure cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c., and they will tell you—"

"Mandrake! or Dandelion!"

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable and compounded into Hup Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist in power, and yet it is harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalids or the smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II. "Almost dead or nearly dying." For years, and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases or complaint, severe coughs caused consumption, have been cured.

Women gone nearly crazy! From signs of melancholy, nervousness, wakefulness and various diseases peculiar to women, such as, Piles, or in hemorrhages, general debility, and all forms of Rheumatism, Catarrh of the bladder, and suffering from neuralgia.

Erysipelas! Scurvy! Blood poisoning, dyspepsia, indigestion and in fact almost all diseases frail.

How Watch Cases are Made.

The many great improvements introduced in the manufacture of the Jas. Bos' Gold Watch Case, have led to similar improvements in the making of silver cases.

Under the old methods, each part of a silver case was made of several pieces of metal soldered together, requiring a great amount of cutting and soldering, which softened the metal and gave it the pliability of lead rather than the elasticity of silver.

Under the improved methods, each part of one solid piece of metal hammered into shape. The advantages are readily apparent, for every one knows that hammering hardens the metal while soldering softens it.

To test the superiority of the Keystone Silver Watch Case, take one of 3 oz. weight, press it squarely in the center when closed, and it will not give, while a case of same weight of any other make will give enough to break the crystal. The Keystone Silver Watch Case is made only with silver cap and gold joints.

Send 3 cent stamp to Keystone Watch Case Factory, Philadelphia, Pa., for a complete illustrated pamphlet showing how the Bos' and Keystone Watch Cases are made. (To be continued.)

The Bos' watch cases with any kind of movement desired, can be had of E. GRIEB, WATCHMAKER & JEWELER, Main St., Butler, Pa., Opposite Troutman's Dry Goods Store.
