-Fond parents in this town can now prom their children the mumps, for being real good.

-The Kloman Bros, iron manufacturers of Pittsburgh have suspended.

-Our enterprising shoe dealers, Messrs. B. C. Huselton and John Bickel, are now in New and county. That the schools where his chil-England buying goods.

-Henry DeWolf has purchased the Ander son property in Springdale from the Butler B. & L. Association. Consideration $475.

-Mr Philip Smith, carpenter, has purchas ed a lot on West North street, and intends building this summer.

-Sewing Machine attachments and repairs of all kinds, at E. Grieb's Jewelry store.

-Representative Morrison's new tariff bill proposes a reduction of 20 per cent. on the present duties on wool and woolens, cotton and cotton goods, metals, sugar, glassware, etc.

-We learn from our esteemed contemporary of the Herald that a slight deafness has some what changed the personal appearance of Mr Archibald Hoge, of Worth township.

-On account of the list of Sheriff's sales be ing larger than usual, the favors of some of our correspondents are crowded out of this issue. Thirteen properties belonging to one man are among those advertised.

-Yesterday was probably the worst day of the flood at Cincinnati. At nine o'clock Mon-day night the official water guage marked 67 that he had been seen buying cattle in Butler feet 1 inch, and the water was rising at the rate of one inch per hour.

-The Grand Jury of Westmoreland county, last Monday found true bills against Bowser, was alive, but for some reasons known to him-Weston, Blakeley and twenty others, charged with the murder of O. M. Haymaker at the

-During the flood in Pittsburgh the accom nodation trains between the Union Depot and Allegheny carried over 13,000 passengers in the 36 hours they were running.

-Mr. Adam Troutman has taken his son Henry into partnership with him, and hereafter the name of the firm will be A. Troutman & Son as per card published in another

-The people of Pitsburgh and Allegheny are fearful of an unhealthy Spring and Sum-mer on account of the flood, which washed great quantities of filth into the cellars of the submerged part of the building.

-McCalmont farm well No. 4. E. I. Agnew. gent, reached the sand last Thursday evening and with one bit in the sand flowed at the rate of 100 barrels per day. The well was completprobably be a good 100 barrel pumper.

-At the Borough election next Tuesday two members of the Town Council are to be elected however, that the townships and boroughs are to fill the places of John Frazier, and very slow about paying. the election. -The Franklin Evening News. of the 31st alt, says: "Among the victims of the Colorado | Price for his Instruments. Mine disaster was one Nick Probst whose place of residence was credited to Pittsburgh. Chere is no doubt that this is the same Nick

Probst who formerly lived in Sandy Creek ownship, and was well known in this city. His first wife died suddenly in 1876, leaving three children. He subsequently married a woman from Buffalo, by whom he had two children, and who in now living near the Valley depot. Probst left his family in 1880, and or two years followed droving and dealing in cattle, making his market in Pittsburgh. It will be remembered he was missing something that he had been seen buying cattle in Butler county, and the papers claimed strong circumstantial evidence that he was the victim of foul play. This conjecture was subsequently found to be erroneous. It was ascertained that he self had gone to parts unknown. His wife is satisfied that he lost his life in the disaster -Light running Domestic Sewing Machines Jos Niggle & Bro. Agents, Butler, Pa. tf Bonnel & Co. at Venuments of Brown,

-As there may be some things in the County Auditors' Report that are not intelligible to everybody we make the following explanations:

In the large table the amounts given as received from the collectors include exonerations and collectors' percentage. The Treasurer's cash receipts are given in another table, as is also the percentage allowed the collectors, and the table headed "Treasurer's receipts by
