-It was mean for it to "stiffen up and get cold" when it might have stayed warm. -Mr. W. C. Glenn, of Sunbury, sold a two-year-old bullock to Esq. Byerly last week, that weighed over 1600 pounds.

The entire democratic ticket of this town as elected last Tuesday, which proves the illy of the republicans of the town nominating "straight" ticket, no matter how much distisfaction is apparent among the democrats.

—We hear of a great temperance meeting in the "Brick" church, in Clinton Twp. lately, at which over 200 persons were present and at which measures were taken to prevent the illegal sale of liquor in that vicinity.

—There were two leap year parties in town last week, one of the young and the other of the middle aged and married felks. The young ladies called around for their best young man or men, and the married women took some other woman's man

—Rev. Ogden, Esq. Trimble, John B. McMahan and Peter ker her are attending U. S. Court in Pittsburgh this week, as witnesses in the case of the U.S. versus, E. McElwain, who is accused of violating the postal laws by sending indecent letters through the mails with another man's name signed to them. He is an elderly man, is a bachelor, and was born and raised in the lower part of this county. He moyed to Allegheny city some years ago and has lately had a meat stall in the Allegheny market house.

-Mr. J. Madison Wick, of Butler township —Mr. J. Madison Wick, of Butler township, met with a very serious accident while felling trees in company with Mr. Martin Farnsworth, on his farm near Butler last Wednesday noon. They were chopping on different sides of the same tree, when Farnsworth's are flew from the handle and imbedded itself in the fleshy part of Wick's right leg just below the knee, cutting through the flesh and leaders and into the bone. Farnsworth hastily bound up the wound and ran for help, and securing the belp of some other men carried Wick to his home on a blanket. A physician was called in and the wound was d. essed and sewed up, but Wick had lost so much blood in the meantime that for a time his life was despaired of. On Monday of this week he was reported as doing well.

—Parts of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina were swept by cyclones last week. Dozens of villages were destroyed, and hundreds of people were killed and injured. Most Southern towns are very small, yet the loss of life in last week's storms was as great as has resulted from similar disturbances in other days in large villages in the West, and the reported effects of the wind upon the forests indicate that had there been any large towns in the districts so terribly visited the loss of life would have reached the proportions of an appalling national calamity.

middle and Eastern States have more reasons for congratulation than complaint.

—James P. Baily, analytectof Pitt-burg, representing this county, and Mr W. E. Shrives of New York, representing five of the nine insurance companies whose polloies on the old House are held by the county met in Butter last Wednesday, examined the building, or ruins, according to the policies and stated under oath, as adjusters, that this county had sustained a loss of $23,500. This sum the County Commissioners and the balance of the insurance companies agreed to, and the greater part of the money has already been paid into the county treasury. The Commissioners have an offer to rebuild the Court Liouse for $23,000, and one man here in Butler says he will give ample security for rebuilding it of entirely new material from the foundation up, take down the stone pillars, replace all broken stones, and put them up again, rebuild the vaults if necessary and complete everything for $25,000. It is not likely, howeyer, that the Court House will be rebuilt exactly as it was, as by the almost general consent of the Bar of the county, and county officers, we need a little larger building. The Register and Recorder's, County Clerk's and Prothondary's offices of the old Court House were too small. Each of the two first were small rooms with but one window each, and with counters across them, so that a person examining a docket or any papers in which he was interested had to stand from ten to fifteen feet from a light, and if the search wasp continued one, and the day at all gloomy, he was liable to strain his eyes. We have heard attorneys ned one, and the day at all gloomy, he was liable to strain his eyes. We have heard attorneys complaining of coming out of the Register's office both blind and sick, blind en account of the bad light, and sick from having to stand with their backs against a hot stove. The Prothonotary's office, was no better. It had two windows both of which were needed by the Prothonotary and his clerk for their own writing. These defects could be remedied by lengthening the building, say about 20 feet, an improvement that ought not to cost more than from five to ten thousand dollars. The vaults also are too smail, or rather they are rapidly filling up with papers, but this could be remedied by cementing the floor of the excellent cellar under the building and completing the vaults in the cellar for the accommodation of the very old papers, election returns, etc., papers that will hardly ever be called for. We have taked to some persons who are in favor of reblilding the Court House exactly as it was, with others who favor something grand, elegant, immense, magnificent, a red or white elephant, with marble floors and stairs that will cost $200,000 more or less; and with others who favor rebuilding with the additional lenath we have spoken of, a better arrangements that will make a handsome, commodious, comfortable and fire proof building at a cost of, say not exceeding $40,000, and be of ample size for the business of the county for the next century. The question is one for the Commissioners to decide, although by the law as: it now appears they can do nothing without the approbation of the court and two grand juries, but if the rebuilding and enlarging the building is decided upon, it will not likely be completed for two years at least. The act of April 1834, provides that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of any county, haying first obtained the approbation of two grand juries, and of the county, to cause to be erected at the seat of Justice thereof, when occasion shall require such building or buildings as may be ne

Proposed High School at Petersville.

The citizens of Petersville and vicinity have always been noted for their enterprise, and they never do anything by halves, that they undertake. Their latest scheme is to start a High School, and thus supply a long felt want in the neighborhood. For that purpose the Petersyille M. E. Church has been secured, and the school will open under competent instructors, April 1st, 1884. A meeting will be held in the M. E. Church, Saturday March 1st, at 1:30 p. m., to elect a Board of Trustees for the school, and effect a permanent organization. All friends of education are cordially invited to attend. Steps will be taken towards erecting a school building shortly, and there is no reason why they should not have one of the best schools in the State. The vilage is pleasantly located, approached by good roads from every point, and is noted for its healthy situation. Ribold station on the Pittsburg & Western road is 14 miles from the town, rooms furnished or unfurnished, with or without board, can be had at at extremely low rates. The citizens are resolved that the school shall be a success. Persons wishing any further information in regard to the school can address of Dr. J. L. Christy, or Miss Dott Purviance, Connoquenessing, Butler county, Pa., or Rev. T. W. Young. Mt. Chestnut, Pa.

Seed Corn Famine.

Seed Corn Famine.

Probably nineteen in twenty must buy seed corn for next spring's planting, on account of the 83 crop not ripening. We must look sharp to the grain we buy, that they are better than our own, as unreliable parties will offer inferior stocks, to take advantage of the demand. We suggest that every corn grower should send to Hiram Sibley & Co., the reliable seedsmen of Rochester, N. Y., and Chicago, Ill., for their Catalogue and seed-corn circular. This house makes a specialty of seed corn and we believe they will do what they say they will.
