

BUTLER CITIZEN

Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as second-class matter.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, '84.

Obey the Law.

When the matter of granting licenses to keep public houses was before the Court last week, a strict observance of the law was required by the Court. No law is more frequently violated than the license law.

The action of the Republican County Committee last week relative to the two Republican papers of this place, will be generally approved by the Republicans of the county.

By the proceedings of our County Committee last week, it will be seen that the Republicans of this county will vote direct for a delegate to the National Convention at the primary ordered for April 5.

The Republicans of Armstrong county at their County Committee meeting last week, conceded to Butler county the Senatorial delegate to the coming State Convention.

Hon. Samuel Griffith, of Mercer, has withdrawn from the contest for nomination for the Judgeship in that county, and states as a reason that he does not desire to pass through a canvass of misrepresentations and abuse, such as has been instituted here in that county, and such, he might have added, as has been instituted in other counties.

The proceedings of the Allegheny County Republican Committee, that met in Pittsburgh last Saturday, appear to seek to combine both branches of the National rule for election of delegates to the National Convention.

Why not have allowed the people, through their direct delegates in each district convention, to have named the National delegates, as well as the State ones? However, if the people understand the matter and make sure of whom their delegates choose as their State delegates, these State delegates cannot well ignore the popular will in the selection of the National delegates to the Chicago Convention to nominate the Presidential candidate.

It is becoming very fashionable to "boom" candidates. For this purpose the telegraph is the instrument most generally used. Accounts of what never happened in Committees or elsewhere at home are telegraphed to the city dailies, giving glowing accounts of this or that man's strength and how the people are crying for him to be a candidate, and how he is a candidate, and how his campaign is "booming," and at the same time there is truly nothing of it, and no such things ever happened.

We are led to say this from the accounts sent from this place to the Pittsburgh Com-Gazette and other papers, concerning our County Committee meeting last week. Nothing of the kind stated in some of the dispatches sent took place and this effort is only damaging to the candidate thus sought to be benefited.

Hon. James K. Moorhead, of Pittsburgh, died at his residence in that city on the 6th inst., in the 78th year of his age. Gen. Moorhead was one of the prominent men of country.

Mr. Jos. M. McNair, of New Castle, has been elected for the tenth time Grand Recorder of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in Pennsylvania. Mr. McNair formerly lived in this place and by energy and industry has been successful in the world.

Up to this writing, Tuesday noon, we have not received a copy of the proceedings of the County Committee that met Tuesday a week ago, nor can we, after frequent inquiry, get any trace of them. What has become of them? There are two Secretaries to the Committee whose duty it was to see after this matter.

State Senate Question. FAIRVIEW, TWP., March 7, 1884. EDG. CITIZEN.—We have not yet seen the proceedings of the County Committee meeting of the 4th inst., but understand that a resolution was passed in it conceding to Armstrong county the next nomination for the State Senator to which this district, Armstrong and Butler counties, is entitled this year.

HAUSCHENBERGER—PROFZMAN—Mar. 6, 1884, at the parsonage, in Butler, by Rev. F. Cronenwett, Mr. John Hauschenberger, of Indiana, Ky., and Miss Mary C. Profzmann, of this county.

GOELING—OTTO—Mar. 6, 1884, by Rev. V. B. Christy, at his residence in Zelienople, was Adam Goeling, of Freedom, Lewis county, Pa., and Miss Jennie Otto, late of Steubenville, Boone county, Mo.

WOLF—SHAW—At Freeport, Pa., by Rev. H. K. Shaw, Mr. Conrad Wolf, Jr., of Butler, and Miss Ella Etie Isaman, of Freeport.

KENNEY—JONES—On March 5th, 1884, by Rev. James A. Clark, Mr. Daniel Kenney and Miss Jennie L. Jones, both of Portersville.

He appointed his conferees who met those of Armstrong in conference at Armstrong on the 1st inst., instead of yielding to the right of Armstrong county at the first meeting he prolonged the conference to meeting after meeting and from time to time and finally managed to get the consent of the Armstrong candidates to submit the nomination to the State Central Committee which Senator Don Cameron then controlled.

The State Committee did it in Armstrong county, thus taking from Armstrong county her right in 1880. And now, under this brief statement of facts, which county is entitled to the candidate now in 1884? We did not take the right of Armstrong away from her four years ago. This county had nothing to do with that wrong to her.

It is becoming very fashionable to "boom" candidates. For this purpose the telegraph is the instrument most generally used. Accounts of what never happened in Committees or elsewhere at home are telegraphed to the city dailies, giving glowing accounts of this or that man's strength and how the people are crying for him to be a candidate, and how he is a candidate, and how his campaign is "booming," and at the same time there is truly nothing of it, and no such things ever happened.

CLAY TOWNSHIP NOTES. EDITORS CITIZEN.—Your readers may be ready to ask if our section, with Sunbury the metropolis in our bounds, expect to furnish the quota of men for the vacancies to be filled at the coming election. Oh no, we do not aspire ourselves to such a monopoly of county notables, but being near Cherry township (of legal notoriety) it will not be thought strange that some of our great men present themselves as candidates for suffrages of the people.

But we are not all candidates. There are enough to form a respectable array in the coming political funeral that may follow the primaries. We hope some of these estimable citizens will be allowed to remain, however much their good example would benefit the county seat, Tempus omnia recolat.

A feat of extraordinary horsemanship has received more attention in our section of late than the coming election. A squirrel, taken at the idea of February, had occasion to drive our way and finding the railroad a good grade, chose it in preference to the uneven country road. Though, driving "Julia" whom her master claims can keep step with an express for a mile or two, yet he was with some difficulty persuaded to switch off as the train almost due, though nothing but a freight, was bound in the opposite direction.

More anon. W. SUPKA.
