

BUTLER CITIZEN.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1884.

New Advertisements.

Attorney at Law - E. L. Ralston. Eccentric notice - Estate of Ferris Armer. Agricultural Implements, etc. - Jackson & Mitchell.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Our District Attorney started off well, not a single bill of his getting up having been quashed. -McLain, of Allegheny, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 for sending libellous and indecent letters through the mails.

Mr. Ira McJunkin has been appointed teacher of school No. 5, vice Prof. Hasler resigned.

Our announcement last week includes the names of ninety-two candidates. Four new names appear this week.

Mr. Will Feigel, who for some years has made his home at Silverton, San Juan Co., is home on a visit.

Mr. Isaac McCandless has purchased a part of the Dougal property, west side of Main street and is erecting a marble shop.

There will be several hangings in Western Pennsylvania during the coming summer, unless the Board of Pardons interferences.

Mr. M. A. Lowman will leave town for Erie, in a few days, where he will be foreman in the Observer office.

Mr. J. O. Fullerton has on hands at his store on Jefferson street, a large stock of yaras all colors and weights, also blankets, flannels and designs for Turkish mats.

The Sharon board of council advertise the names of the tax payers brought in by the collector for extension, nearly all the delinquents being down only for a few days.

Prof. N. M. Crowe, the principal of the Prospect Normal Academy is said to be one of the best instructors in the State, and is making a heroic effort to make a success of his Academy. Read his notice in another place.

We have as yet received no announcements for Coroner. The office is not a very valuable one, but at the same time, should any notices happen to the Sheriff, the Coroner steps into the office.

The new part of the Shenango & Allegheny R. R. - the road from Branchton to Butler - is not, it is said, included in Powell's receivership.

W. C. Thompson, Esq., has purchased the Protzman part of the Dougal property - 322 feet front, on Main street, across the alley from the Vogelgy House - for $5,500, and is intending building a store-room and office building on the corner this summer.

Mr. James Sellers purchased the Eitenmiller House last week, for $8,500. The old hardware store has been retained and Mr. Sellers took possession last Monday. See card in another place.

The Bissell Chilled plow, Champion mowers, reapers and binders, and other agricultural implements, also Buffalo phosphate, horse finishing goods, etc., are advertised in another place by Jackson & Mitchell. All farmers should read the advertisement.

Mr. H. Fullerton, the proprietor of the Union Woolen Mills of this town, is putting new cloth-making machinery into his mill, and will shortly begin the manufacture of fine cloths.

The bottom seems to have fallen out of our roads and candidates are confining themselves to railroad towns. The roads are so very bad that our liverymen are refusing to hire either rigs or saddle horses.

In the case of Doner vs. Cunningham, on the Trial List for last week, the Court, after hearing the plaintiff's side of the case granted a compulsory non-suit, and Mr. Seller's White, did not correspond with the plaintiff's declaration.

Our local military company, at its late meeting elected Will Meuchling Captain by a unanimous vote, and elected Eli Robinson adjutant, and J. M. Brown Lieutenants, Ensigning, the retiring Captain, was presented with a beautiful gold badge.

Nearly all well regulated towns boast organized gangs of boys armed and equipped after the most approved fashion of the modern sensational literature of the day. Butler is behind in this so far as we can learn, but too many young lads are lugging cheap pistols around on their persons even in this vicinity.

In making up our list of new announcements for last week's paper, we accidentally omitted the names of Professor F. A. Hoover, of Millertown, for County Superintendent, and S. S. Mays, of Fairview township, for County Auditor. Their names will be found in their proper places in this paper.

There is no truth in the reported "Myrtion's disappearance" of Mrs. Mary Platt, of Dougal township. In fact there is no such person. Mrs. McMillen, near Platt, who was living at Kellermer's case, at Butler, on a visit a few days since, but has returned and is now living at Gillespie's.

In one of the schools of Buffalo township the teacher requires his pupils to have literary performances on Friday afternoon. Last Friday a boy astonished the teacher and his fellows by the following highly original and unique production:

O Lord of love, look from above, And pity us poor schoolars, They're lined a fool to teach our school And pay his forty dollars.

The famous fast train on the P. R. E., between Chicago and New York, met with its first serious disaster, near Salem, O., before daylight last Friday morning. The locomotive, instantly killing James Richard, the engineer, Charles Rhodes, the fireman, derailing the train and throwing it over an embankment, and injuring several of the passengers and employees. Richards, the engineer, formerly lived in New Richland, a well known to many citizens of the south west corner of the county, and Rhodes was a native of Wampum, Allegheny county. His parents, it is stated, formerly lived in this county.

Mr. L. Newton Miller, one of the firm of Miller Bros., died at his residence in this town last Thursday morning. Some time over two years ago he took a cold, to which he paid but little attention, but which seriously injured his left lung, and finally brought about his death by what is called quick consumption. Mr. Miller was 45 years of age. During the war he spent three years in the cavalry service with the Army of the Potomac. He was a highly respected member of the community, as well as attended by the large number of fellow citizens who followed him remains to the grave.

The managers of the P. & W. R. R., say that that part of the road between Butler and Callery will be changed to the standard gauge line of June 1st, and in consequence of this the road will be widened to the standard gauge the whole distance to Kane, as it passes through a very rich timber tract, and the lumber business of the road, already heavy, is steadily increasing. The widening of this road between Callery and Butler will undoubtedly benefit the town, and also the road. It will make the road a more popular passenger route to the cities, and it will make Butler an desirable location for manufactures as there is in the country. We have plenty of water, coal and natural gas here, besides connecting railroad facilities, and why manufacturers should prefer the Allegheny Valley to Butler is more than we can comprehend.

This State has lost a curiosity of long standing by the death of a German mentioned in Dickens' "American Notes," who has for about half a century persisted in getting into prison for petty larceny. It was an old-fashioned thief - a fellow who was so oblivious to modern progress that he never comprehended the world could make a man of his kind without to be less risk and discomfort by taking his peculiar abilities into politics. The local administration of Philadelphia has established a host of petty thieves, as well as great ones, to a vast handsome fortunes without ever getting behind bars, so, in spite of the notoriety conferred by a highly imaginative pen, Dickens' Dutchman will return.

To the victim of whom we sprang a captive, who has not a chance.

Facts About Fire Arms.

Although wonderful improvements have been made the cost has been reduced from 40 to 60 per cent. Our illustrated catalogue shows many kinds and gives lowest prices. Send for one; it is free. Great Western Gun Works, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Eq. John Huxelton has purchased the Sikes' corner from L. Z. Mitchell, Esq., 25 feet front for $3,500, or at the rate of $140 per foot - but cannot build until next year, as Mr. Fringle has the building rented for a year from April 1st, next.

On Friday last the County Auditors met in the Treasurer's office and corrected their late report. The error referred to last week consisted in a duplication of the item "Constables' returns" - $568.50, which with the Treasurer's percentage on the amount is now deducted from the aggregate, leaving the recapitulation stated as follows:

Table with columns: TREASURER, DE, To Cash rec'd from Collectors - $55,396 23, Cash rec'd from various items - $124 34, Bal. in Treasury as per audit 1882 - 3,596 19, Total - $59,117 96.

By sundry warrants returned - $56,338 52, By Treasurer's check - 2,495 07, By bal. in Treasury Jan. 7, 1884 - 16,223 63, Total - $75,057 22.

The mistake was made by one of the Auditors accidentally calling out the item of Constables' returns as $568.50.

Blown From the Rails.

SALEM, O., March 20. - A most terrific, and, at the same time, miraculous railroad accident occurred two miles east of here at 4 o'clock this morning on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago R. R. Engine 308 of the east-bound Chicago and New York limited express, while rounding a sharp curve and running at a high rate of speed, exploded its boiler with terrific violence, blowing the engineer and fireman 400 from the engine and killing them instantly.

After the explosion the engine jumped the rails and tore up the track for about 300 feet, and then plunged down a steep embankment with such fearful velocity as to throw its tender fifty feet further on, on the opposite side of the track. The combination car followed, and was thrown on the engine with such violence as to force the drivers of the engine through the floor of the car, which was entirely demolished.

The dining car was thrown on its side and went down the embankment, totally wrecked. One of the sleepers also went over the embankment, and landed on its side at the bottom. The other two sleepers, which constituted the rest of the train, did not leave the track.

For a few moments after the explosion there was a scene of incredible confusion in the interior of the sleepers. The cries of the passengers were heart-rending, and the shrieks of strong men could be heard crying for help. So great was the excitement for the first few moments after the accident that no attempt was made to ascertain the extent of the damage. At last a porter broke one of the windows and the frightened passengers succeeded in making their escape from their imprisonment. It was soon found that none of them were seriously wounded, the ill-fated engineer and fireman being the only persons killed.

That the loss of life in such a wreck was not frightful seems incredible, as there were a number of ladies on the train, several with young children, all escaping uninjured. One of the colored porters was found unconscious in the smoking car, and was thought to be dead, but when brought into the fresh air he revived.

The Spring term of the Wither-spoon Institute began March 17, in the Germania Cornet Band Hall, with a large attendance. The first of April will be an excellent time to enroll your name, for the school will be fully organized and conducted in the Institute building, which is spacious, elegant and commodious. Tuition will be charged only for the balance of the term. Very satisfactory arrangements have been made with the railroad authorities for students who desire to board a car. Monthly "46 trip" tickets can be procured at about one-fourth of the regular fare. A Normal class has been organized for the benefit of teachers or such as have the teaching profession in view.

New Safe for Recorder's Office. H. W. Christie, Esq., Register and Recorder, has, we understand, at his own expense, purchased a Barnes' Safe, to keep all the deeds and papers in for safety in case of fire in the new office in the Lutheran church building. This was certainly a good thing for Mr. Christie to do, as many people have been afraid to leave their deeds for record since the late fire. Mr. Christie assures us that his safe is better than even the vault of the Court House, where the papers have been protected for years.
