The Lessons of the Year. are larger than a year ago, grow nd come to your minds with a fresh, new look

But have you, my dears, learned everything The brave old year in its arms could bring? Oh, all the lessons the school-books brought,

That never a blossom looks up but tells Some story of how its sweet heart swells With a grateful love to Him who made Its beauty of sunshine and rain and shade

But out of the picture a lesson goes Of Him who made clover and bee and rose

That never a ripened apple falls Nor a grape vine purples on dull old walls, Not a nut comes rustling through the leaves, Nor a wain goes laden with harvest sheaves.
