

BUTLER CITIZEN.

JOHN H. & W. C. NEGLY, PROP'RS, Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as second-class matter.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, '84. COUNTY CONVENTION.

Result of the Primary Election For Delegates to National and State Conventions.

Blaine Men Chosen, and Blaine has 1846 Votes out of 2066 Cast on Presidential Choice.

The Republican Convention met in this place on Monday last at 2 o'clock, and, being organized, proceeded to count up the votes cast at the Primary last Saturday.

For Delegate to National Convention W. H. Riddle, had 764. Charles M. Brown, " 748. William H. Ritter, " 604.

Mr. Riddle was declared chosen and authorized to appoint conferees to meet with those of Crawford and Mercer Counties.

For Senatorial Delegate to State Convention, Stephen W. Harley had no opposition and received 1833 votes.

For Representative Delegates to State Convention, James Barr, had 1284. W. D. Brandon " 1005. James Stephenson " 956. Thomas R. McCall " 883.

Messrs. Barr and Brandon were declared chosen.

The vote at the Primary on Presidential choice was as follows: James G. Logan " 136. Geo. F. Edmunds " 49. Robt. T. Lincoln " 45.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Robt. T. Lincoln had 1,675 votes. James A. Beaver " 29. John A. Logan " 7. Benjamin Harrison " 5.

Some other scattering votes were cast for President and Vice President. A correct count gives Riddle but 16 votes over Brown for National delegate.

The following among the minutes of the proceedings of the Convention has been handed us: MINUTES OF REPUBLICAN CONVENTION HELD IN BUTLER APRIL 7, 1884.

Convention was called to order by Jas. Barr, Chairman, at 3 P. M. Moved and carried that all proxy votes be received upon the member from the precinct vouching that they came from Republicans who had the right to vote, if they had been received and counted by the board.

N. L. Brown offered the vote from Bald Ridge. Moved and carried that this vote be laid on the table for the present.

Messrs. W. C. Negley and E. D. Robinson were appointed tellers and the convention adjourned until the vote should be counted.

Convention was again called to order when the Bald Ridge vote was taken up and counted and delegate admitted to the convention. Moved and carried that no person be allowed to vote by proxy on the 24th of May, and that all persons and who will be of age by the fall election be allowed to vote at that election.

On motion the delegate from each precinct was instructed to organize the board on the 24th of May.

The following persons having received the highest number of votes were declared elected: Delegate to National Convention, W. H. Riddle; Senatorial Delegate to State Convention, S. W. Harley; Representative Delegates to State Convention, James Barr and W. D. Brandon.

A. MEHLING, Sec'y. JAMES BARR, Chairman. W. P. JAMISON, Sec'y.

The Judgeship is no political office. It has no political demands upon it and no political patronage whatever. For that position the people look at the man and not at the office. Of that man is exacted the highest character, the sternest integrity and deepest learning. The office must even seek the man, tradition says. It is not a thing to be hawked about to the highest bidder, or given away as a reward to anyone.

The man who holds it holds a high and sacred trust and that trust should be stored in a pure heart and guarded by clean hands, hands that do not itch for gold. The Judge is an exemplar to the young, and as such, should teach the youth that "a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." He is protection to the poor, strength to the weak, justice to all. His personal requirements are of a higher type than those demanded of a President, and no man who cannot fill this measure of worth should be elected to a judgeship.

Every voter owes to himself, his fellow men and his Creator the duty of wisely exercising his right of suffrage. In day his generation he should honestly, fearlessly, conscientiously strive to better the condition of mankind.—Mercer Republican.

Parker Township Items. Quite a severe storm of wind and hail passing over this section last Tuesday prostrating several derricks.

The rigs are up and nearly ready for drilling on the Turner farm, J. W. McKee, owner, J. W. Wasson.

A couple of boys from North Bear Creek on last Tuesday night, stole a bee hive from Squire Jas. Riddle, of Bruin. Mr. Riddle followed the chaps and secured their identification on their arrest, and they were brought up before Squire Kelly and confessed their crime, and not securing bail, were committed, and taken to Butler by Constable Kepler.

The correspondent from Bruin, for the Petrolia Record, is some, on "booming" candidates.

A festival was held in the A. O. U. W. hall on Friday night for the benefit of poor children.

The Prohibitionists had a big meeting in the school house Friday night, Rev. Wick of Farmington and Rev. Taylor, of Petrolia, done the speaking.

A number of ladies and gents went to hear the addresses, which are said to have been very good. Three delegates to their County Convention at Butler on the 18th were elected, viz: Robinson, Daubenspeck and Orr.

Quite a number of people have moved into our metropolis this Spring, among the number is Blair Hooks, of the Stevenson farm, D. S. McKelvy and Thos. Wallace from Karns City, Arlie Stewart from Fairview.

Mrs. J. C. McCandless has been lying very ill for some time. Drs. Denison of Bruin and Burchard, of Baldwin are in attendance. Mrs. Wm. H. Parker is convalescent.

The primary on Saturday was very poorly attended. Why is it that the Republicans can't turn out better? This may be owing to a few, and then blaming or finding fault with others afterwards, is not as it should be. Turn out to our primaries.

The political caudron of all parties boils slowly, except in a certain direction, which will develop after a while, then look out for sticks. JONES.

EDS. CITIZEN.—It was a very pleasant trip Tuesday evening, April 1st, to the pleasant little town of Prospect, nine miles west of Butler. Every visit that place brings back remembrance, of eighteen years past. We were then favorably impressed with the place, for its location, beauty, and cleanliness of streets and walks.

But above all the high moral tone of the citizens, with the spirit of enterprise that seems to be exhibited, with their good social manifestations. They were particularly kind to us on this occasion, in that we were kindly escorted to a prominent seat, especially reserved for Butler visitors, who went, as supposed, especially to visit with the entertainment given by the Prospect Academy School. We will say the entertainment was fine. We could not eulogize the performance without taking up each performance and then we could not do justice. But suffice to say, all through, it was very good, surprising, good. Showing the ability, efficiency and high tone of Prof. N. M. Crowe and J. C. Ricketts. It does seem to us that Prospect has done well in their instituting this school. The location, the society and character of the citizens, bespeak the Prospect Academy a grand success. We believe the public can safely entrust their sons and daughters to certain they will be educated under Prof. Crowe and Ricketts and also Miss White, an accomplished teacher in vocal and instrumental music, whose very presence and ability would inspire a taste in all her students, that she would meet and supply by imparting to her pupils.

This is a noble institution, ably managed by an earnest corps of Directors or Trustees, who seem determined at any sacrifice to make this school equal to any for comfort, morality.

D. CUPPS. P. S.—Mrs Martincourt, who knows low, did justice to our party as she does to all stopping at the Martincourt House.

The Treasurer's Salary. EDS. CITIZEN.—Please give space to a short note in your paper, on Salary of County Treasurer. I hastily introduced the communication of Franklin Twp. Between 1866 and 1867 the new jail and Sheriff's House were built and paid for. I took my seat in the commissioner's office in Nov. 1866, Treasurer Moore had died. The first thing was to appoint a Treasurer. The casting vote fell to me, as the other two each had their man. John C. Moore, Esq., brother of deceased, was appointed. As a proposition had been made to allow $300 in the treasury, out of the amount fixed by the two previous boards, $1300 being the amount fixed for that year, therefore J. C. Moore got $1000 for the year 1867. Hugh Morison was treasurer for 1868 and '69 and got about $1300. Now as to fixing $1500 as the salary. I would not split hairs, but I can find plenty of good men glad to serve for $1300.

PERSONAL.

—James B. Mates, Esq., who was recently admitted to the Bar, will hereafter be found in the law office of R. P. Scott, Esq., two doors West of the CITIZEN office.

—Jas. Campbell, Esq., of Greenville, Pa., formerly of Parker tp., this county, was in town last week on business. His old friends here are always pleased to see him.

—G. H. Chandler, Esq., credited to Karns City, this county, but of whom we know but little, has been disbarred from practicing before the Pension Department at Washington City, owing to improper methods in his practice.

—W. D. Brandon, Esq., received at the primary in this borough last Saturday the largest vote cast for any Representative delegate to the State Convention. In view of the attack made upon him by a certain paper, for being a friend of Judge McJunkin, this vote is significant, as showing public sentiment here.

—The names of the Hon. Daniel Agnew, of Beaver, Hon. A. M. Brown, Thos. M. Payne and Thos. M. Brown, of Allegheny county, and Hon. J. W. Lee, of Venango county, are among the prominent ones spoken of as Delegates-at-Large for the Western part of the State, to the National Chicago Convention.

—Mr. Robert Cooper, of Winfield tp., this county, aged 68 years, was in town last Friday and called at the CITIZEN office to see us. Among other things he mentioned that he had just completed a reading of the Old Testament of the Bible within the last month. He had again read it through in a month's time. He remarked, in answer to a question, that the book of Daniel was the most interesting to him, and others were almost equally so. This he has read the Bible through, he says, and having time on weeks days, after reading the papers, he spends the balance of his time in reading the Bible. He is an intelligent and good citizen and a man much respected by all who know him.

—Mr. Samuel Sykes, Sr., and family of this place, removed last week to Allegheny City, and can now be found occupying No. 135 Locock street. Mr. Sykes for many years past did business in the store keeping line, on one of the Douglas corner lots of this place, and was always recognized as a clever dealer and an honest man. He and family leave many friends here who wish them prosperity in business at their new home.

Esquire J. R. Pringle has removed his grocery store to the rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Saml. Sykes, immediately opposite his old stand. Mr. Elias H. Kirk has rented and will keep a store in the old Pringle room.

—Our neighbor, Mr. W. G. Power, clerk of Phillips Bros., in Brady Building, is one of the most benevolent and good citizens that has come to our place for a long time. He is to be seen almost every day cleaning the mud from the stone crossings of the streets that lead each way from his office, for the benefit of all pedestrians passing over the same. When it is considered that the cleaned walks are but little personal convenience to himself we must ascribe his labors to a desire to promote the comfort of his fellow beings, or a still higher sense of cleanliness, which is ranked next unto Godliness.

—Capt. John G. Bippus, of Oakland tp., who met with the accident mentioned last week, received greater than then stated. When he was kicked by the cow and his leg broken he fell under the animal and was tramped and bruised by her until pulled by his children from under her feet in an unconscious state. We are pleased to hear he is recovering from his injuries.

Republican Regular Primary. The republican voters of Butler County are requested to meet at their respective places of voting in the several districts on Saturday, May 24, A. D. 1884, between the hours of one and 7 o'clock P. M. of said day to vote by ballot for the following officers, viz: One person for Congress, one person for Judge, one person for State Senate, two persons for Assembly, one person for Sheriff, one person for Prothonotary, one person for Register and Recorder, one person for County Treasurer, one person for Clerk of Courts, two persons for County Commissioners, two persons for County Auditors, one for Coroner and one person as Return Judge. Said primary election to be held under the law governing the primary elections, and the rules in force on the same subject within the Republican party of said county. The returns of said election shall be presented to the County Convention which shall convene in Butler on the 26th day of May, A. D. 1884, at 1 o'clock P. M. where the aggregate vote for each person shall be declared, and those having the greatest number of legal votes shall be declared nominated for the office for which he was a candidate. A strict enforcement of the rules of the party is enjoined.

CINCINNATI, March 32.—Mr. Murat Halstead telegraphs the New York Tribune to-night as follows: "The number of persons killed and wounded in the riot is about 200. The last fatal shot fired in anger up to this morning, though a poor soldier boy was instantly killed this evening by the accidental discharge of his gun. The court house is not the utter ruin it was supposed to be. A large portion of the valuable records have been saved. The money that was in the treasury is all safe. The vaults, which were very heavy, are mainly good. We have confidence that there will not be a repetition of the terrors of three nights that will be so memorable here. But only the overwhelming force of state troops prevents further disastrous demonstrations. The determination to lynch the gang of murderers in prison and to release the crowd of rioters who have been made prisoners is something terrible, and secret meetings were held to-day that would mean mischief if there were not a thousand rifles and several batteries at hand. It is the display of power, making assaults by the mob hopeless, that will prevent further outbreaks.

"The presence of regular soldiers from Newport Barracks is something terrible, and secret meetings were held to-day that would mean mischief if there were not a thousand rifles and several batteries at hand. It is the display of power, making assaults by the mob hopeless, that will prevent further outbreaks.

"A REVIEW OF THE THREE NIGHTS. "The rioting on the first night was largely by working men of good character, who resented the fact that murderers who have money to set in motion the machinery of criminal lawyers had had freedom here. The second night the spirit of the commune appeared and petroleum was put to use, as by the Parisians when they are pleased to burn their public buildings. The third night the number of determined men had been largely reduced, and there were swarms of boys.

"Of the crowd that was smashing pawn-brokers' shops three were grown men, and they were thieves. They had with them a rabble of boys generally from 17 to 19 years of age, and one testified in the police court to-day that he was '13, and going on 14 years of age.' Out of 60 rioters gathered in for attempting to seize a battery of cannon at Music Hall, only 10 were men. The rest were boys, some very bad ones, while others seemed to want excitement, above all things. And so the crowds had depreciated from honest men, misguided, but animated by righteous wrath, kindled against a systematized infamy of the most outrageous character, to a vicious rabble of boys, in the hands of the lowest desperadoes.

POPULAR GRIEVANCE. "The excited people had a real grievance to begin with. The administration of the criminal law here has been damnable, and the influence of sheer criminals in public affairs alarming. That which has happened will, we may hope, make irresistible the influences that lead to better ways.
