LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The smell of soap-suds in the air,
The floors and walls entirely bare,
The piles of debris everywhere,
The housewife with a vacant stare
And handkerchief tied o'er her hair,
Are signs which all men fear.

They know that when they stumble o'er The pots and kettles on the floor, They'll clutch a freshly painted door, And vainly, wildly thirst for gore, Because, as in the days of yore, House-cleaning time is here.

Owing to an over supply of Bermuda ions the market is demoralized.

—The commissions of the new Justices of the Peace have arrived at the Register's office. superintendant Higbee will be pres-School Directors' Convention next —It calls for about as much mental strain to run a pug dog as to run a family of five chil-dren and two hired girls.

-Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vanderlin lost one of their twin baby boys, by whooping cough, last Friday.

Messrs. Stoves, Shoes, Buckles and Needles, four "travelling men," arrived in town via the S. & A. R. R., last Friday evening. —The soap-making season has arrived and the delicious perfume, from the boiling kettle, is gently wasted from the backyard.

-Mr. Albert Mechling, of Sunbury' has rented the Martincourt hotel in Prospect, and will take possession of it to-morrow.

—Beaver county has one of the tallest can-didates heard of: For the office of Commission-er, John Kirkpatrick is 6 feet 7 inches high. —Architect Bailey, of Pittsburgh, submitted his plans for a Court House to the County Commissioners last week.

—S. G. W. Brown, Superintendant of the cittanning Insurance Company, was in town ast week. Samuel Geo. Washington is a lever fellow.

—An exchange says that by a recent deci-on of the Pension Department soldiers who at the entire eyeball are entitled to a pension $18 per month, which is a large increase ter former rates.

-Some of our citizens are considering as a eccesity the stringing of barbed wire around the top of their fences to keep the boys from —Mrs. Sarah Ann Cook, of Harrisville, has en granted a pension on account of the death her son, at the rate of $8 per month, from cember 1861. Arrearages exceed $2100.

—It's about time to commence reforms in the back yard, clearing off all stuff that may become offensive, and throwing loose junk over the fence into your neighbor's yard. 'Twill make his grapevine grow.

—"American Wonder" seed peas can be had at Koch's grocery at 50 cents a quart or 30 a pint. They are considered the best early pea grown, and the vines require no brush or poles to keep them erect, as they grow in the form of a bush.

-Dr. Higbee's lecture will be delivered on evening of May 6th, 1884, in Butler. Subt"The Common Schools." Our people will doubt all turn out to hear such a distinished gentleman on ta subject in which ery citizen has so great an interest.

—The contest for County Superintendent goes on apace, and the innocent school director is having his hands full of candidates and pro-bably his head is bewildered by the multiplici-ty of promises he is asked to make in regard to his position on second, third and fourth bal-lot. &c.

A man was arrested in Pittsburgh one day last week for selling a villainous compound for butter. At the hearing he testified that he bought the alleged butter from a man in Allegheny, who in turn got his supply from a soap factory.

—A Philadelphian sent a postal card to his sister in Canada on which he had written 644 words. She answered with 714 words. Not to be outdone he crowded in 1,003, which brought an answer with 1,536 words, spelled out in full and written plain enough to be easily read by persons of ordinary good sight. He thinks he will send her a new spring bonnet and call it square.

—A married dude who returned home unex-pectedly and found another dude hugging his wife, took a terrible revenge. He seized the visitor's slender silk umbrella from its resting place in the rack, broke it across his knee and roared out: "There now! I hope it will rain real hard."

—The licensed liquor dealers of DuBois, Clearfield county, have inaugurated a war apainst the illicit dealers. There are twenty-two licensed houses in the place, and it is estimated that there are more than this number selling liquor in direct violation of the law. There appears to be room for a temperance reform in DuBois.

—The Gas Fuel Company are building a new gasometer on their lot at north end of McKean street, back of Frank Eastman's residene, and intend drilling another well for gas, the location of which has not yet been decided upon. The gas is found in a stay sand about 100 feet above the regular third or oil-sand rock. A few good gas wells burning around Butler would be a great inducement for manufacturers, who are looking around for desirable locations, to locate here.

The P. & W. R. R. has put on a through train between Pittsburgh and Chicago, which leaves Allegheny at 1:30 p. m., and arrives at Chicago at 7:05 next morning. It is said to be the fastest train between the two points excepting the Limited Express of the P. F. W. & C. R. R., and includes a sleeper. The 11:52 a. m. train from Butler connects with it at Callery.

—A movement is on foot to have McCorkle College, an institution of learning now located at Bloomfield, Ohio, removed to Farmington, this county. This college is under the management of the Associated Presbyterian Church, which has a large membership in the vicinity of Farmington, hence the effort to have the college located at the latter place. It would be to the interest to the friends of education in the northern portion of this county to aid in this enterprise, so that they can have a first class institution of learning at their doors —Something of an accident happened in Ritter & Ralston's store room last Monday night. The firm got in a large stock of new goods that day, part of which were piled on top of the shelving. The clerks worked till after midnight arranging them, and when they opened up next morning found that some thirty feet of shelving, containing heavy linen, woolen and cotton goods, weighing perhaps two tons, had fallen to the floor. The shelving was broken to pieces, as were also the iron supports of the counters that the goods struck in their fall.

—Wednesday the 16th, inst., was the semicentennial of the opening of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Philadelphia to Columbia. The trip of eighty-two miles was passed over in four hours. When the road was first put into operation horses did most of the work. Individuals and firms owned their own cars and horses. Turnouts were made a mile and a half apart, and between them was a post called the centre-post. When the drivers met between turnouts, the one who had not reached the centre was obliged to go back to the turnout and allow the other to pass his train. However inconvenient the first arrangements for transportation may have been, they were the beginning of what is to-day the largest system of railroads in the world.

-There is considerable excitement among a number of property holders in Freeport, Armstrong county, by reason of their being notified that their deeds are defective and unless they pay over one-fourth the present value of the land to the heirs of Mrs. Armstrong, the daughter of a Mr. Todd, suit will be brought to recover. The amount claimed by the heirs will reach several hundred thousand dollars. It is claimed that the land was owned at one time by Mr. Todd. He died leaving five children, one of whom, Mrs. Armstrong, purchased the interests of the other four. On her death-bed she bequeathed the land to her three children. After his wife's death Mr. Armstrong remarried, when he sold this property in lots; the second wife signing the deeds with him. The heirs, therefore, hold that the land being theirs, Mr. Armstrong could not give a clear title.

Agnew's well on the Haley farm was com-pleted last Friday and is not considered worth tubing.

The Cooper Bros.' well, on the Pierce farm, went through the sand yesterday morning, and is estimated at from 5 to 10 barrels. is estimated at from 5 to 10 barrels.

—The failure of these two wells leaves no outlet for the belt theory, excepting up Thorn Crsek, which will be tested by the Johnston Bros.' well on the Henderson tract. Ten years ago Hart & Conkle drilled a well on Thorn Creek, east of the Plank Road, and found 12 feet of good sand and a showing of oil, but as the hole was full of salt water and the price of oil very low at that time, they did not tube the well.

The Presbytery of Butler.

Met in Butler, Tuesday, April 22. Rev. George W. Bean was elected Moderator and Rev John S. Atkinson clerk. Rev. R. B. Walker, D. D., and elder John T. Bingham were appointed principal Commissioners to the General Assembly, and Rev. James H. Marshall and elder Porter Phipps alternates.

The overture of the General Assembly on the Revised, Book of Discipline was answered in the negative, and that of reducing the size of the Assembly in the affirmative. The evening session was devoted to a discussion of the claims of the Gospel Ministry on young men, and the duty of parents to press the consideration of these claims upon the minds of their sons.

A narrative of the state of religion in the bounds of presbytery was read by Rev. W. E. Oller. Though no remarkable revival has been enjoyed in the Churches, their condition is one of much encouragement. The next meeting was appointed at Martinsburg, on the 4th Tuesday of June.

All the ministers of the Presbytery and a very full representation of the eldership were present, and the meeting was a very pleasant one.
