Look Out! For Last Card!

It is reported that the Eagle of this place will this week contain a card, with perhaps an affidavit, from a man named Elliott, who some years ago kept a hotel in Karns City. The object of this, it is said, will be to show some improper action in the Court in granting this man Elliott a license at the time. Now we do not know anything about the man or the matter. But this we do know, and this we have to say: first, that counter affidavits are prepared to meet this man's story as soon as it appears; and second, if any such affidavit had appeared from him in last week's Eagle, or in any other paper of the county, these counter affidavits are ready and would have appeared in answer this week, or before this time. The said affidavit, if such there is in existance, is reported to have been in the possession of the Eagle, or the persons controlling it, for some time past. Why has it not appeared? Simply because it is held back with the view of preventing any time for its refutation and exposure. So the Republican voters of the county, and all others, can judge from that what credit they should back what they know can be explained and refuted until they think it is too late to do so. They suppose the people can in this way be deceived. But what a great mistake!

Since writing the above the following warning to the voters has been handed us for publication:

To the Editors of the Citizen :-An affidavit purporting to be made by A. J. Elliott, insinuating that Judge McJunkin was concerned in the granting of his license after it had been remore of John M. Greer's adherents. The facts are as follows: W. H. H. Riddle presented Elliott's application for license and the Court, composed of Judges McJunkin, Marshall and Feidler, refused it. Elliott then saw one of the undersigned, Ferd Reiber, and asked him to take hold of it and have it reconsidered, and after having repeatedly refused to take charge of the matter, until Elliott cried and urged the necessities of his family, we agreed to do for him what we could. The reconsideration was effected through and by application to Judge Marshall, one of Associates. No appeal was made to Judge McJunkin nor did he have anything to do with it. If it is meant that Judge McJunkin received any part of the fees paid by Elliott the insinua-tion is absolutely false in every particular. We are both informed also, upor good authority, that when Elliott made his affidavit if not suffering from delirium tremens, he was on the verge FERD REIBER. J. B. McJunkin

JAMES M. BREDIN, Esq., died at his residence in Franklin, Pa., on last Friday night. Maj. Bredin was born and raised in this place and removed to Franklin some years ago, where he became actively engaged in business. When in this county he was engaged in railroad and other enterprises. Some three or four years ago he was stricken with paralysis in some of his limbs, since which he has been an invalid and from the effects of which we learn he was finally taken off. He was a man of great energy and decision of character, of genial and cheerful disposition, and a true and warm hearted friend. He had many acquaintances and friends in this county all of whom will regret to learn of his demise. He was born in 1828 and was therefore 56 years of age

This Judicial District.

A friend has requested a statement of the make-up of this judicial district. This is in connection with the Judges to elect in the same, and the number, and how and where they can be elected from, etc. We answer as follows: Ten years ago, I874, the district, 17th, was composed of the counties of Butler and Lawrence, each being a component vides that Lawrence shall have the the county of from Lawrence county, one, we suppose, clerk or other officer of the primary elec would have to remove to and reside in tion as aforesaid shall presume to act this county. BUTLER, PA., August 13, 1883. Hon. E. McJunkin, President Judge: -The undersigned Republican members of the Butler Bar respectfully re quest you to permit your name to be used as a candidate for President Judge of this district. That you should be your own successor in the office you have so acceptably filled for the nine years, we feel satisfied is the general sentiment of the people of the district. Impartiality and ability have conspicuously characterized your present Judicial term, and in accordance with general usage as adopted in other Judicial Districts, to re-elect where fit ness and integrity exist, we see no reason for a departure from the rule in your case. We earnestly solicit your consent to be a candidate.' This letter we believe was intended as a private one for Judge McJunkin. It is published now to refute some of the charges made against him. It will be observed that his "impartiality and ability" on the Bench are distinctly set forth in this letter. Some persons interested in another candidate, affect to deny them now. But what other candidate for Judge has had such a letter addressed to him? Has John him? If so, by whom?

Primary Rules.

We this week again publish the LAW governing our primary elections, which will guide in the organization of the boards. As to the RULES passed at difter. Colbert didn't own one dollar of ferent county Committee meetings, we are unable to reproduce all of them at present. But the following are the

First, the voter must vote in his own township, borough or ward. Second, no proxy voting is allowed or proxy votes to be received. Third, none but Republican votes should be received. In regard to this latter rule, a question sometime arises as to who are Republicans. But the general rule is, that if a man is now a Republican, and in stock was illegal. tends to vote the Republican ticket at the fall election, that he has a right to vote at the primary, although he may not have been voting with the party at all times previous. Some times Republicans leave the party on some issue or other at a certain election, but the next year they are back again to where they were as Republicans. In all such cases the practice has been to receive their votes at the primary, on their declaration to that effect, just as the vote of a young man, not of age at the time of the primary, but who will be by the fall election, is received on the declaration of his Republican faith and intentions. All these questions are in the hands of the boards bolding the elections and if in any case a hoard acts unfairly, or improperly, the proper course for the voters to pursue is to get up and sign and send a petition or remonstrance, as the case may be, to

By a motion passed at the last meetng of the Republican County Committee, the present Committee man in each twp., and borough was authorized to organize the board at the coming primary on May 24.

JOHN M. GREER has been eleven man. He held the office of District Attorney for three years, worth then at least $1,000 a year, making $3,000. Then eight years in the State Senate at $1,500 per year, making salaries alone of same $12,000. Add to this the extra amount received by him at and for the late extra session, about $2,000, the eight years, about $100 per year, and we have a total of $17,500.

WITH the exception of the falsehoods circulated on the Judgeship question the primary of this county has been lated as to some candidates for other offices. And this more particularly as to some of the Sheriff candidates. The voter should make sure to vote against the candidate who decries any one of his competitors for the same office. And all good citizens should be slow to give credence to eleventh hour reports, and vote for candidates upon their own merits, and not upon their demerits as represented by other interested parties. This is a safe rule.

A Card.

In answer to the lying scribblers in last week's Eagle I have to say that I decline to answer any one who is too much of a coward to sign his name. I made my statement over my signature. They are true. No one has had the manhood to deny them and sign his FRANK M. EASTMAN,

When I havn't any appetite, or am in any out sorts, it sets me up in no time. If drinking men would use the Tonic it would help 'em to break off. (No, that isn't a light house; it's a star low down near the water.) As I was saying, the bottle is a new life bottled up. You see that flag-staff? Well, with a bottle of Parker's Tonic in the locker I can keep malaria as far from me as that, all the time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant. When she's tired out from overwork.

time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant, when she's tired out from overwork. She says the tonic is a daisy. Good-bye! Don't break your neck going below."

This preparation, which has been known as PARKERS GINGER TONIC, will hereafter be advertised and sold simply under the name of PARKERS Tonic. As unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substituting inferior articles under the name of ginger, and as ginger is really an unimportant ingredient, we drop the misleading word.

There is no change, however, in the preparation itsself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of "Parkers Ginger Tonic" contain the genuine medicine if the facsimile signature of Hiscox & Co, is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.
