MISCELLANEOUS.

The Dream of Youth. The dreams we so fondly loved in early life may just as quickly pass away and leave nothing but a seared and desolate path behind. The proud hopes which spring unbidden to the human heart, may die and fall as fell the plague on sinful man. The moments of beauty and art which have been seared by man's creative genius may crumble and turn to dust, but yet PERUNA the great remedy, will still be acknowledged to be the greatest of all medicines, and will still receive the praise which so rightly belongs to it. Thousands have received benefits from it, and have shown their appreciation of it by their testimonials to that effect. Ask your druggist for this great remedy and the pamphlet called the "Ills of life," or address Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus' Ohio, and they will send you one free.

-In the Hop Plaster are united Fresh Hops, Gum and Balsams, and its power wonderful in curing back ache sprains, bruises, neuralgia, pain in the side or soreness anywhere. Thousands testify to this.

-It has been suggested that the most effective way to ruin the Mormons would be to send out a score of milliners to set up magnificent establishments filled with expensive finery for women.

No Grease for Him.

"When Greece her knees-Greece her knees-Greece her knees,', stammered an embarrassed schoolboy, forgetting the next line of his recitation. There is no occasion to grease anybody's knees," shouted his teacher "Go and study your piece." Neither is there occasion to grease your hair. Parker's Hair Balsam is all the dressing you need. Restores the original gloss to gray or faded hair. Does not soil the linen; not a dye; good for the scalp; prevents falling out.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrit, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested their wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt this duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. In The Pilot House.

"Yes, sir; this kind of work obliges a man to keep sober as a judge, Of all men in the world, steamboat pilots and railroad engineers should let liquor alone. For on their clearness of sight and coolness of head depends the safety of life and property."

Keeping his hand on the wheel as he said this, Mr. A. Brockman, of No. 29\frac{29}{2} Silver street, Chseago, added: "Of course some of 'em drink, but the sober ones have the best positions and the best pay. Yes, the work and exposure sometimes tells on us; but for my part I find PARKER'S TONIC to be all the invigorator I need. I've got a bottle aboard here now; never go on a trip without it. When I havn't any appetite, or am in any out sorts, it sets me up in no time. If drinking men would use the Tonic it would help 'em to break off. (No, that isn't a light house; it's a star low down near the water.) As I was saying, the bottle is a new life bottled up. You see that flag-staff? Well, with a bottle of Parker's Tonic in the locker I can keep malaria as far from me as that, all the time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant.

time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant, when she's tired out from overwork. She says the tonic is a daisy. Good-bye! Don't break your neck going below."

This preparatiou, which has been known as. PARKERS GINGER TONIC, will hereafter be advertised and sold simply under the name of PARKERS Tonic, As unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substifuting inferior articles under the name of ginger, and as ginger is really an unimportant inger, and as ginger is really an unimportant ingredient, we drop the misleading word.

There is no change, however, in the preparation itsself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of "Parkers Ginger Tonic" contain the genuine medicine if the facsimile signature of Hiscox & Co. is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.
