A GREAT MISTAKE

has heretofore been made in the treatment of rheumatism, neuralgia, and nervous or sick headache. This is evidenced by the failure on the part of thousands of sufferers to find relief, even though they have exhausted the skill of various physicians and tried numerous so-called remedies. To such Athlophoros is offered as a safe, sure, and quick cure. Its success has been phenomenal, and yet it is not surprising because it will do all that is claimed for it. The Athlophoros Co. will gladly refer any who desire to make an investigation to reliable parties who have been cured by it.

Warrensburgh, N. Y.

Enclosed find postal note for one-half dozen bottles of your Athlophoros. It is wonderful how it cures every case where I can persuade them to try. The sales are increasing. My sister-in-law was given up to die by the doctors; they sent for me; I took a bottle of Athlophoros and persuaded her to try it, the second dose gave relief. She had not lain in bed for two weeks; the next night she went to bed and slept all night; in one week she was up and at work around the house. Many thanks.

MRS. JNO. D. NUTTING.

It is owing to Athlophoros that I am alive. I have suffered with inflammatory rheumatism for years, most of the time being perfectly helpless. But one bottle of Athlophoros has cured me. There is nothing like it for the speedy relief and permanent cure of rheumatism, so I recommend it to all, knowing it will accomplish what it claims to do. MRS. E. VICKERS,

46 Pleasant St., Waterbury, Conn.

F. C. Hazzard, Upper Lisle, N. Y., says: "I had neuralgia in the head and neck, and Athlophoros cured them."

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled. 9

COME, WELCOME BIRDIE.

For the CITIZEN.]

Birdie, oh birdie, dear birdie so sweet,
Coming again with your little bare feet;
Singing so sweetly o'er treetop and shrub,
Twittering so nobly your lullaby of love.

Oh, stay little birdie, your freedom I crave,
Oh, you are so happy, so merry and brave;
In meadow or lane, in woodland or street,
Your song is the same, you'r so happy and neat.

Your troubles are cast to the winds that go by,
Scarce give them a thought, a frown or a sigh;
Teach me, dear birdie, your light heart to share,
And I will you welcome, will welcome you here.

Then come, little birdie, in your little bare feet,
Welcome, little birdie, with your little song so sweet;
Your neat little form and smart little ways,
Make you a welcome guest through our sad and happy days.

The Husbands' Commandments.

EDS. CITIZEN:—The sociables are so numerous that many times the husband and children are left alone to take care of themselves, while the wife is out enjoying herself, therefore it becomes an important duty for the husband to establish rules, whereby he and the children may be protected. In the following you will find

THE HUSBANDS' COMMANDMENTS.

Thou shalt love no other man but me.

Thou shalt not have any other likeness of any man but thy husband.

Thou shalt not keep it in secret and worship it, for I, thy husband, am a jealous husband.

Thou shalt not speak thy husbands' name with levity.

Remember thy husbands' commandments to keep them sacred.

Honor thy husband and obey him that thou mayst be long in the home he has given thee.

Thou shalt not find fault when thy husband chews and smokes and takes a glass of beer when he is out all night with the boys.

Thou shalt not scold under any circumstances,

Thou shalt not permit thy husband to wear a buttonless shirt, but shalt keep his clothing in good repair for going out at night.

Thou shalt not continually gad about, neglecting thy husband and children.

Thou shalt not strive to live in the style of thy neighbor unless thy husband has wealthy relatives and is able to support it.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's fine house, nor his fine furniture, nor his wife's silk dress or the paint on her face, nor anything that is thy neighbors.

Thou shalt not go to Woman's Rights meetings, neither to speak thyself or to hear others speak,

Thou shalt not scold it thy husband stays out all night.

Thou shalt not sum up large bills at the stores which thy husband is unable to foot, for verily, he knoweth his own business and is capable of attending to it.

There are so many secret orders and other night meetings that the wife is often left alone part, or all night, with three or four small children—the wife is broken hearted, not knowing when her husband will return. To protect herself and the children she adopts the following:

THE WIFES' COMMANDMENTS.

Thou shalt have no other woman but me.

Thou shalt not have a picture or likeness of any other woman but me, for I only am thy wife, and a jealous wife.

Remember thy wife's commandments to keep them sacred so long as ye shalt live.

Love and cherish thy wife, and no other woman, that she may live lovingly together in the home thou gavest unto her.

Thou shalt not find fault when thy wife goes out to spend money buying fashionable shawls and dresses, for I am thy wife.

Thou shalt not scold.

Thou shalt not suffer thy wife to wear a threadbare dress, but shall keep her decently clad and in good repair to go out to all the sociables.

Thou shalt furnish buttons and thread to keep thine and thy children's shirts in order. Fail not.

Thou shalt not gad about from saloon to saloon, after sunset, neglecting thy wife and children.

Thou shalt not dress thyself in fashion unless thou dress thy wife also.

Thou shalt not go to spiritual or other sleight-of-hand meetings, neither to speak thyself, nor hear others speak: thus saith thy wife.

Thou shalt not find fault if thy wife should fail in getting the meals in due time, for knowest thou, Oh man! better late than never.

Thou shalt not drink beer nor spirits, nor chew nor smoke, for knowest thou it consumeth money. Verily, verily, I say unto thee I am mistress of the house thou gavest unto me.

Free Trade.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps, the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain be same size.

A DRAMATIC SENSATION,

The Throbbing, Thrilling Drama, How to Save Money.

By D. A. HECK,

Author of the "The Bride Won; or, What a New Suit of Clothes Did," will be enacted every day and evening during the coming season at D. A. HECK'S

GREAT CLOTHING EMPORIUM,

No. 11, North Main St., Duffy's Block,

BUTLER, - PA.

Until further notice, This powerful work is a wonderful and variegated combination of tragical comedy, and comical tragedy and never fails to bring down the house. The actors are all Stars. The costuming will be a strong feature. The following briefly outlined is the

—PROGRAMME:—

SONG—The happy man no more reflects,
Who buys his clothing at D. A. Heck's

ACT I.—SCENE 1—Time 9 a.m: Enter young man with friend. Young man explains to his friend that the direct cause of his engagement to the wealthy farmer's daughter was his purchase of an elegant suit at D. A. HECK'S Great Clothing Emporium. Friend tumbles to the idea and is made happy with a new suit, Hat, Shirts, Collars, Ties, Underwear, Gloves, Hose, Trunks, Valise, Umbrella, etc. Scene closes with song, joined in by the audience.

SONG—The day will be intensely cold.
When D. A. Heck is undersold, &c.

ACT II.—SCENE 2—Time 11 a.m. Enter throng of people, old men, young men, ladies, children, managing matrons with marriarable daughters, who with one accord fairly shriek with delight at the wonderful bargains shown. The beautiful young lady, Cinderella finds some jewelery, a pair of Corsets, a pair of Kid Gloves, an elegant pair of Hose that set her off so exquisitely that a dude from Unionville and a young man from Greece City both propose, as the Greece City man has on one of D. A. Heck's irresistable suits. Cinderella decides to patronize home industries and accepts him. The Unionville dude thinks of duels, suicides, &c., but decides not to leave this world while he can get clothing so cheap at D. A. HECK'S Great Emporium.

Song by company, joined by audience:
As to our experience, one and all,
And every one who tries it knows,
That D. A. HECK has got the call,
And takes the town in selling clothes.

ACT III.—SCENE 3.—Time ten years later:
HECK'S LARGEST EMPORIUM.

Ten years are supposed to have elapsed. D. A. HECK'S store quadrupled in size. Butler a metropolis. Arrival of several excursions, electric trains and a number of balloons with crowds of people to buy Clothing, Underwear, Hats, Caps, Collars, Neck Ties, Hosiery, Suspenders, Handkerchiefs, Umbrellas, Trunks Valises, Satchels, Bill and Pocketbooks, Hair and Tooth Brushes and innumerable other articles which space forbids to mention. Scores of prosperous men and pump buttons gather around the proprietor, all agreeing that their rise in the world began from the moment they began to buy their goods from

D. A. HECK.

Cinderella and her husband about to depart for Mt. Chestnut (this is no chestnut) The Unionville dude, a dude no longer but a rich business man in the city of Butler. Population 10,000, noted chiefly for being the most enterprising city in the county, and for fair dealing and for the fact D. A. HECK'S Emporium, Duffy's Block, is the headquarters for good goods, fair dealing and low prices.

All will now join in singing:—
How D. A. Heck is selling clothes,
Way down at bed rock—
Just watch the crowd that daily goes
To D. A. Heck's in Duffy Block.
Curtain falls to slow but sure music.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS!

AND IF YOU WANT TO SEE BUSINESS VISIT

JOHN BICKEL'S

Grand Spring Opening

OF BOOTS, SHOES & SLIPPERS

At the prices I am marking my goods this spring I feel perfectly justified in saying you will see the Largest Boom in the shoe business that you have ever witnessed in this place. Your after year my business has been increasing and to-day I stand at the head without a successful competitor and, why? Simply because I don't want the world. I am satisfied with a small profit, trying always to give the trade good Boots and Shoes at very low prices.

I Expected a Boom this Spring

And bought accordingly and I didn't miss it either for already I can see signs of my expected Boom. The news is spreading like wild-fire and it goes from township to township, from farmer to farmer, from neighbor to neighbor, in fact the whole country has heard it.

Bickel's Spring Goods Have Come,

And he has marked them cheaper than ever; "is it true, can it be possible," you say. Come and see and if for one little moment you even doubted that Bickel's was the best and cheapest Shoe House in Butler county, your doubts will all vanish and you will leave my store and take up the cry with hundreds of others:

For Good Goods and Low Prices Bickel Leads,

It is most surely so, can't be otherwise. Come to Bickel's at any time and if there is any business doing any place, you will find my store thronged with eager buyers.
