It is not commonly known that a large proportion of the rheumatism and neuralgia extant is traceable directly to the diseased condition or imperfect action of the kidneys and liver; therefore a remedy which cures the resulting disease must have found and smitten the first cause. Many persons using Athlophoros for rheumatism and neuralgia have been surprised to find that-effronic disorders of the liver and kidneys have also been greatly relieved and they have written for an explanation. The fact is, that the remedy acts directly on these organs, cleansing them from all irritating substances and regulating their action. Taken in connection with Athlophoros Pills this is, without exception, the most valuable kidney and liver remedy in the world, and will cure a large proportion of those who have these diseases.

Copake Iron Works, Copake, N. Y.

For the last five years I have been subject to severe attacks of rheumatism which would cause me the most excruciating pain in my chest; was obliged to put myself under the doctor's care for two or three months at a time, and even then it was almost impossible to get any relief. The list time I was taken my son was at home, and I requested him to call the doctor, but he said he had heard of a new remedy for rheumatism called Athlophoros and advised me to try it. I did and you can imagine my surprise, was relieved of all pain after taking one bottle and have not been troubled since. It saved me quite a sum of money, and what is better, I was not obliged to endure weeks of suffering; would not be without it in the house. Have recommended it to others and it never fails to give relief.

A Hindoo Marriage. A case that has attracted no little attention in England as well as India, and will strike American readers as involving a curious marriage custom, has just been tried in the High Court of Bombay.

It appears that Rukmibhai, a native girl, was, according to Hindoo usage, married when only eleven years of age to a youth of nineteen. The two immediately parted, the girl remaining at the home of her parents. By them she was carefully educated and "grew up into a refined and cultivated lady." Recently the husband came to claim her as his wife, but she declined to live with him and her family refused to recognize his elaim. He is described as being little better than a coolie—illiterate, coarse, too poor to support a wife, and, more-over, consumptive.

A suit was thereupon brought to enforce the marriage agreement. The Judge remarked that their involuntary union would be unnatural and barbarous and held that the man's claim could not be maintained under Hindoo law. From this decision an appeal was taken to a me RE higher court, which, while expressing pri sympathy with the young woman, decided that she was the lawful wife of the man and bound to live with him. An order was accordingly is-sued requiring her to join him within

Court upholding it was based on England. Second, the wife may escape the obligation of the marriage the man as her husband, though she
