Pennsylvania Railroad's Summer Series of Seashore Excursions.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will again this summer offer to the public a number of select excursions from principal points in Western Pennsylvania to the resorts of the Jersey Coast.

For several years these excursions have proven a source of great convenience to the residents of this section of the State, as they have enabled the people to visit the most prominent seaside resorts on the most favorable conditions, both as to rate of fare and limit of baggage.

The first of the series is fixed for July 14th, and will embrace, as will the three others, Albany, Cape May, and Sea Isle City. Others of the series will occur on July 25th, August 11th and 25th. These excursions are the most and best of the most popular of any of the summering points on the Jersey Coast, and it will prove a difficult matter to make a choice between the three.

The tickets will be good for ten days, and will be sold at the rates quoted below from the points mentioned:

Pittsburg, Pa. Train leaves 8:50 A. M. Butler, Pa. Arrives 10:00 P. M. Philadelphia, Pa. Arrives 7:50 P. M.

—Clarendon, Warren county, the principal seaside resort of the State, was almost entirely destroyed by fire on the night of the 14th. The fire started in a hotel, and it is supposed to have been the work of the drunken proprietor, who had threatened to burn the town if his demands were not met.

The town was mostly built of frame, and the fire spread rapidly, and very little insurance was taken at the high rates. Chas. C. McCandless, a son of W. D. McCandless, formerly of Centre twp., had a drug store worth about $2500. He and his family got away with their lives, but the store was destroyed.

—Wm. Crail and wife, of W. Cunningham street, were poisoned by eating tainted sardines.

—A child fell into the Elm street spring and came very near being drowned.

—Mr. H. K. Wick of Washington twp. broke his leg by jumping from a S. & A. train.

—Prof. Crowe has declined the principalship of the Greenville schools.

—The stores will continue to close at 8 p.m. until September 1st.

—The family of Mr. Charles Lusk, of Texas, are visiting at Dr. Lusk's.

—Since the 1st inst., Eastern Standard or 75th Meridian, has been legal time.

—Between 50 and 60 separate buildings are now being erected in Butler.

—The new scalp law repeats everything excepting the bounty on wolves and wild cats.

—Old man Harbison escaped from Dixmont on the 21st inst. and walked to Kearsburg, where he was captured by John Wednesday, and took him back.

—The bill to remove the disabilities of Esq. John Smith, of Cherry township, is said to have been quietly vetoed by Gov. Beaver, on the 23d of June last.

—The P. & W. R. R. laid a track across Mill street, Youngstown, last Tuesday night, and on Wednesday a mob of citizens tore it up.

—Druggist Charles McCandless, one of the losers by the Clarendon fire, said "I have only half a dollar in the world. My wife went to the safe just before the fire and left the door open, and the valuables I had were destroyed."

Death of James B. White.

The news of the death of James B. White at the residence of his father, Rev. William White on Sunday afternoon, was a shock to his friends and a surprise to this community.

When he came to Butler, on Thursday last week, to participate in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of his father as a minister, he was not in the best of health, but he did not become seriously ill till late Saturday night.

On Sunday morning he was no better, but as his complaint was supposed to be ordinary cholera-morbus, his friends had no anxiety regarding him, and his father officiated at communion services. That afternoon, however, he grew rapidly worse and died at five o'clock.

He was born in Butler in January, 1850, was 37 years of age, and his was the first death in the family. He was in business in Pittsburgh for several years first with his Uncle George in the dry goods business, and afterwards with his brother Will in mining and dealing in manganese ore.

James was a big-hearted, clever, gentlemanly man, and his friends here and elsewhere heard of his death with sincere regret. Rev. White and family have the sincere sympathy of this community in their sudden bereavement.

Sudden Death. Mr. Pressley Miller of this place died suddenly at Butler, several years ago, in a fit of apoplexy. He had eaten his dinner, in usual
