THE MOST SCIENTIFIC AND SUCCESSFUL
BLOOD PURIFIER. Superior to quintine.
Mr. F. A. Miller 630 East 137th street. New York, was cured by Kaskine of extreme malarial prostration of seven years suffering. He had run down from 175 pounds to 97, began on Kaskine in June, 188, went to work in one month, regained his full weight in six months. Quintine
did him no good whatever.
Mr. Gideon Thompson. the oldest and one of the most respected citzens of Bridgeport, Conn.
says: "I am ninety years of age, and for the last three years have suffered from malarial and the effects of quintine poisoning. I recently began with Kaskine which broke up the malaria and increased my weight 22 pounds."
Mrs. T. A. Solomons, of 189 Halliday St., Jersey City, writes: "My son Harry, eleven years, was cured of malaria by Kaskine, after fifteen months' illness, when we had given up all hope.
Letters from the above persons, giving full details, will be sent on application.
Kaskine can be taken without any special medical advice, $1.00 per bottle. Sold by J. C.

THE CITIZEN.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A 12-year old Girl to Hang. At Barnwell Court, South Carolina, last week, Judge Hudson sentenced Axey Cherry, a colored girl, 12 years of age, to be hanged on the third Friday in September for the murder of the infant of Mr. Amos Williams, of Allendal, in Barnwell Miss Bennett, became engaged to Mr. Lennox, and he gave her this county.

The young murderess was hired by her mother, much against her will, as nurse to Mr. Williams' baby. She pouted around the house and attended to her duties in so neglectful a manner that she had to be constantly scolded. After a scolding one day she was overheard muttering to herself that she wasn't going to bother with that baby much more. A few days after this, concentrated lye was used in scouring the There are no whitefish in the St. trated lye was used in scouring the floor, and as Mrs. Williams left the room she told Axey that the lye was fish seized upon the ring, and that at room she told Axey that the lye was poison, and that she musn't touch it.
On her return Mrs. Williams was horrified to find her baby's mouth full of concentrated lye.

Axey ran cut of the house saying as she left: "I don't reckon I will have to nurse that baby much longer received from Mr. Lennox a check for $100 for his honesty.
