The K. of L. Picnic.

A crowd estimated at 6000 and that the railroad men say was the largest crowd there this year assembled for the K. of L. Picuie at Keister last Friday. The day passed off pleasantly and with no unpleasant incidents excepting the purloining of Johnny Richey's dinner basket. There were three speakers from abroad who spoke in the interest of the K. of L. organization—an effort to induce them to speak for the Union Labor party and its candidates failed.

Ho! For the Fair!

The beautiful grounds and excellent half-mile track are in prime condition.

There will be an engine and shafting in lace for the use of machinery on exhibition. Additions have been made to the borse tables and sheep sheds-including judges' toxes at end of sheds.

The seating capacity of the Grand Stand as been largely increased, and conveniences ided for ladies, also an excellent refreshment stand. Floral Hall is being decorated this week, the space in it has already been almost en-tirely taken, and as usual it will be the greatest attraction for the ladies. The poultry shed has been improved by the addition of permanent cages, all of the same design.

design. Four rows of hitching-posts have been erected across the space enclosed by the track, and will supply all the necessary wants in that direction.

The track never looked better, there is no. finer half-mile track in the State, and there e no better accommodations for fine Several herds of the best cattle in Western Penn'a and Ohio will be here.

The costs, for that is the law, and a strange one it spens. When the counsel for the defendant in this one claimed the right to be heard, under the new law, the acquisel for the prosecution promptly and emphatically objected, and disputed the meaning of the set, and to settle the matter, the Justice adjourned the hearing and consulted seven attorneys all of whom told him that he was required to hear the evidence for the defence, excepting in the cases mentioned, and we cannot see why evidence for the defence is not allowed at the will reduce the criminal business of the County Court by at least one-half, by nipping humbug prosecutions in the bud, and will also prevent many an innocent man, having no friends while to bail him, from going to jail.
