Republicans Successful in Penn. sylvania and Ohio.

The general result of the elections held last Tuesday may be summed up at about as follows: Pennsylvania remains Republican, giving Hart for State Treasurer and illiams for Supreme Judge each from 25,000 to 30,000 majority.

Ohio has re-elected Gov. Foraker,
Republican, by about 25,000.

Massachusetts, Iowa, Nebraska,
and probably New Jersey, have gone
Republican.

Republican:

New York has again gone Democratic, defeating Col. Fred. Grant, a son of Gen. Grant, for Sccretary of Proth'y, Brown over Harbison. 416

Ewing Republican for Judge in the Fayette Greene district, is elected over Boyle and Buchanan, Demo-crats.

In Philadelphia the Republicans have about 14,000 majority on State tickets but lose their Sheriff, Leeds, (Rep ) being defeated.

Taking the elections all together from all quarters, they are favorable to the Republicans.
