LOCAL AND GENERAL.

FEBRUARY. February,
Month contrary,
Sometimes free and
Sometimes free and
Sometimes chary,
Now quite warm, now
ley very,
Sad to-day, toMorrow merry.
February's here, you bet;
And O, much as
It doth grieve me,
I will swear, though
Speech do leave me,
I will swear, O
Pray believe me,
That unless things
Much deceive me
February's a coquette.

Pancakes In Variety.

On cold wicter mornings pan cakes of all kinds hold an important place at the breakfast table. The cherished buckwheat cake, most prominent of all, from Thanksgiving Day until early Spring is seldom absent from the morning meal in the genuine American household. When properly made this is the most delicious of all the griddle cakes, but it has been against it when made from yeast or risen over night that it was difficult to make light and sweet, and that dis agreeable effects frequently followed its eating. It is found that by the buckwheat cakes, are made a most delicious food, light, sweet, tender eaten by anyone without the slightest digestive inconvenience. In about two hours or near 3 o'clock, Some Butler Co., operators are tak- p. m., the wild, howling wind, with whirling, powdered, blinding snow, struck us with the boom and roar of a dozen surfs. From that time until early morning of the following day the terrible storm raged. The cold became intense. The snow came in at the smallest crevices of door or window. Men who started to their barns only a few rods distant, were lost and wandered bewildered in the snow. This would not seem possible to persons never having seen a blizzard. One could not see a building four rods away, and at two he ould not be sure of much but the form of some structure before him. Now this may seem strange, but note these facts. One man in the country started from his house to go to his barn; the storm caught him between the two and he became bewildered and traveled about all evening and at 10 p. m, found himself in town, two miles from home, almost frozen. The school house where I am teaching is situated in the suburbs of the town and when I received word of the approaching storm I dismissed school and through the aid of the parents, but with the greatest difficulty, the children were all properly housed about 3:30, p. m. But none too soon, for the storm now increased its fury, and you couldn't see see across the Now put persons out of reach of such aid as surrounds a town, out two, five or ten miles, and let them try
