THE W. C. T. U. COLUMN. A WEEK OF PRAYER FOR THE NATION-AL, STATE AND LOCAL W. C. T. U. MARCH 18TH TO 25TH, 1888

Beloved Sisters:-We call every union, and every woman in our heroic constituency to spend a week in uni-ted and special prayer, both private and public, for such a baptism of wisdom and courage upon ourselves, and such a putting forth of divine power as shall be felt in all this land. Reasons: The year upon us is one of struggle and destiny. Within these months the temperance cause shall be in the very heart of a mighty contest.

Profit in farming comes from the Third: For the great body of Christian womanhood who yet stand afar from this greatest of missionary agencies for the salvation of our own and other lands.

The meetings of the week need not be widely public, nor their aim to inwite universal attention. Begin quietly an afternoon meeting for prayer in your own usual place of meeting, or in a parlor, with the hearts touched already with a longing for more of God in our work, and more of His power on all our people. Make special effort first for all members of the unions, hat together we may offer our pray-

Invitation and Regret Cards,

Then let us pray,
First: That upon our great organ ization may come a fresh impulse from Heaven; and on every active worker a new anointing of the Spirit. Second: For our unused member ship held to us by pledge and name, but not consecrated to the spirit and activities of the work. Let us ask God to call our own women from idleness to service.

the former involving the following pledge: 1. To treat all women with respect, and endeavor to protect them from wrong and degradation; 2. To endeavor to put down all indecent anguage and course jests; 3. To saintain the law of putity as equally inding upon men and women; 4. To udeavor to sp. ead these principles endeavor to sp. ead these principles among my companions, and try to help my younger brothers; 5 To use all possible means to fulfill the command, "keep thyself pure" And the latter, this pledge: 1 To uphold the law of purity as equally binding upon men and women; 2, To be modest in language, behavior, and dress; 3; To avoid all conversation, reading, art, and amusements which may put impure thoughts into my mind; 4; To guard the purity of others, especially guard the purity of others, especially of my companions and friends; 5. To strive after the special blessing promised to the pure in heart. These are intended for use by parents, teachers, nestors, and others, who have the pastors, and others who have the care of young people, and who will use, in connection with the pledges, the carefully prepared literature of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, including the leaflets of Miss Ellice Hopkins, of England, and many equally good, written in our own country.

The White Cross work is for men and boys; the White Shield work is for women and girls; and the whole is carried on under the three heads of preventive, reformatory, and legal. Miss Willard is assisted in this work by Mrs. Dr. Kellogg of Battle Creek, Mich., who has special care of moth-ers' meetings and furnishes literature for use therein; Dr. Kate Bushnell of Evanton, Ill., who is constantly speaking and organizing; Mrs. Ada Bittenbender of Lincoln, Neb., a lawyer of the reputation has charge of thar on the legislative work for the protection of get up?" women. Early in the year, to meet an urgent demand, three series of lea-flets were prepared, the White Cross, Social Purity and Leaflets or Mothers'

Meetings, all of which have met with great favor, together with Miss. I've got a leetle more politement willard's valuable White Cross Manual and the beautiful of the political and whiskers, remarked.
