THE STATE CONVENTION.

State Committee Chairmanship Settled.

The Republican State Convention that assembled at Harrisburg on Wednesday last was one of the most .to exciting and important for years. A fight had been made for some time past against the continuance of Thomas V. Cooper as Chairman of the State Convention. Mr. William H. Andrews, of Crawford County, was made a candidate against Coope and the contest became an active and bitter one. It had to be settled, as a preliminary, disturbing element, before the meeting of the Convention. This was done at a general caucus held on Tuesday evening, at which the fine hand and clever policy of Senator Quay was seen in the following, which passed almost unan-

"Resolved, That hereafter the terms of members of the State Committee shall commence on the 1st day of January succeeding their selection, and continue for one year: that William H. Andrews shall be and is hereby elected Chairman of the State Committee to be appointed by this convention, and that Thomas · V. Cooper, the present Chairman, his Secretaries and the members of the State Committee be continued in office until the 1st day of January next."
