Hunting Woodchucks with Terrapin.

A man in Webster county, W. Va. has a novel way of catching wood-chucks. He first catches a land terrapin and bores a hole in its shell from it, "Take off thy shoes from off just over the tail. Through this hole thy feet, for the place whereon thon be runs a ball of candlewick, leaving standest is holy ground." So should the ball about two feet from the terbe approached the place of the law-maker—the place where God once digned to stand. But when men bis pocket to the hole in which the wating for the right man to come wallow in a filthy pool instead of being obedient to the heavenly vision, then come laws worthy of the pool. Laws licensing crime and degredation—laws which give the innocent a prey to the crafty—laws which oppress the widow and the fatherless—laws which are a delusion and a snare.

BYRON CLARK, A. M., M. D., SPECIALIST IN THE Treatment of Chronic Diseases !

Practice. Dr. Clark confines his practice to Chronic Diseases exclusively, and will treat only such cases as are susceptible of a certain and positive Diagnosis as a basis for specific treatment.

Serious Cases, In cases seriously complicated or of uncertain diagnosis, patients have the advantage of Dr. Clark's CHEMICAL and MICROSCOPIAL Examinations, which are most complete. Chronic Invalids should not fail to consult Dr. Clark, as he makes all Examinations without questioning patients or allowing them to make any statement concerning their disease or its symptoms. If their diseases are not sufficiently developed to make a positive and certain Diagnosis in this manner Dr. Clark will not treat the case.

Case.
Dr. Clark's Methods for the Clinical Examination of Patients constitute a real advance in Practical Medicine, and
From a Physiological and Pathological Standpoint Dr. Clark believes that every fully developed disease has its own definite diagnostic symtoms by which it is known. Patients.

Dr. Clark's Claims.

Dr. Clark's claims to the patronage of the af-lieted public consist in his belief that every ully developed constitutional disease presents is own specific diagnostic or characteristic symptoms, which if thoroughly understood by he Examining Physician, can be accurately cointed out and described to the entire satis-action of every patient. Hence Dr. Clark makes his examinations without questioning patients, or allowing them o make any statement concerning their disease or its symptoms.
