LOCAL AND GENERAL. Send Them In.

We desire a list of all persons residing in William Henry the county who voted for William Henry Harrison in 1840 and who intend to vote for bis grandson, Benjamin Harrison, in 1888. This list will be published and used in getting up the proposed re-union of these old veterans. Send us the names, township, and stoffice address of all such as soon as possible. There are not a great many of them and it is the desire of the Republican party to'do them honor. Send in the names.

Oh, the merry, merry flopper and his flop, Will he never, never, never stop? If he keeps on turning over, He will leave to Free-Trade Grover Scarce a solitary voter for a prop.

-Who is W M Nickle? -Butler should have a street sprinkler. -Apples are getting ripe, and pairs are hanging over the garden gate. -The material and good will of the Her-ald printing office are offered for sale.

—Our military company will go into camp with its brigade, at Conneaut Lake, during the latter part of next week.

—On Saturday last Mr. J. J. Reiber ship-ped a hundred head of very fine lambs to Pittsburg. The farmers and stockraisers should read his notice in this paper.

Stock raisers and others are already securing space for their exhibits at the coming Fair—the 11th annual of the Butler County Agricultural Society. Premium Lists showing the increased premiums offered, and the new classes added, can be had by addressing W. P. Roessing, Sec'y. Butler, Pa.

—A freight train on the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. was taken possession of by seven armed men at Letonia, O., last Saturday evening, who robbed the trainmen, and held possesion of the train until it arrived at Rochester, N. Y. where they were captured and locked up.

The developments in the Everhart mur-der case of Clariou county are becoming in-teresting. John Everhart, the husband of one of the murdered women, was again ar-rested last week, had a bearing Saturday and was committed to jail as an accessory of Deniel Everhart and James Horner, now in jail as the principals in the murder.

—The Butter Methodist Church, in a little over two years, has liquidated a mortgage indebtedness of $3324 37. A little over $50 of of this amount remains to be collected. With that exception the Church and its many good friends have paid the sum named. The Church and pastor tender thanks to all helpers in this good work.

Our list, this week contains the names of over one hundred, a few are yet living in distant places, but the majority have gone to their eternal rest, a hint to the voters of the present day of what will happen to them before another forty-eight years have passed.

-Mr. I. Rosenberg has concluded to discontinue the ready made clothing business, and give his attention entirely to Merchant Tailoring and Gents' Furnishing Goods. He is doing a good business in merchant tailoring, and even now, during the dull season, generally has twenty made-to-order suits on hands, and he has not the time to attend to the ready made business, but will sell out his present stock of ready made clothing, and put in a large stock of the best Gents' Purnishing Goods, and hats and caps, to be found in the market. See his announcement ound in the market. See his announcement of this effect in another place in this paper.

-Competition in the plumbing and gas fitting business has been needed in this town for some years, and this want has been supplied by the advent of Messrs. Schutte and O'Brien, who have opened in one of the rooms of the Geo. Reiber block, opposite the Lowry House, with the best stock of plumber's supplies, can fixture, lawns and nature. fun. —We are under obligations to said to manner she is said to sai

—I heard a good story on a Sheriff in one of the centre counties of the State. He isn't Sheriff now, but the story is worth telling as showing the considence that man sometimes reposes in man. In some of the counties in the State the sheriff is also the jail-keeper, which was the case in this particular instance. He never had only four or five prisoners at a time and he was very lenient with them. If they wanted to take a stroll around town at night he would let them out, but always with the strict injunction to be in by 10 of this vicinity.

It is a ways with the strict injunction to be in by 10 colock, at which sour he would open the jail and let them in, for they generally obeyed him. One night the four prisoners were out on their stroll and they couldn't resist the temptation to all get full, and they had a glorious time. They turned up at the jail about midnight and banged away at the door until the old sheriff, half asleep and very angry, opened up and let them in, at the mount the lot sheriff, half asleep and very angry, opened up and let them in, at the angettime scoolding them for staying out so late. "It tell you what it is, you fellows," and the sheriff, "the next time you stay out to trecover a horse and wagon a lot of household goods which to his own use Blair is a way out to have to have a lot of household goods which the alleges McCracken has a spalleges at the to his own use Blair as the temptation to all get full, and they had a glorious time. —It puts new spring into the knees of the dd-timers of 1840 when they talk of that ampaign. These old fellows were hustlers at their time and can give the present generation some pointers on how to conduct a very campaign. We hope to see them all were before the present campaign is over. What a procession it will be! None of them under 60 years of age, and many as old as 9 years. Their reception should be hearty.

—A great many people have an idea that a newspaper should be the medium through which to correct all abuses. Some of this class come to the newspaper offices in Butler and ask that a fusilade be opened on officials for permitting pavements to go unrepaired, tagmant pools to exist, and like nuisances to go unrabated. A newspaper is not the place wherein to make complaints. To cover cases such as are alludeded to above there should be a Complaint Book kept by the Bargess or Clerk of Council on which everybody could call attention to a nuisance withcut disclosing their names.

—On Friday evening the Cotta Society and invited friends, to the number of about sixty had a very pleasant time at the home of Mr. George Troutman on the old Freeport pike about a mile and a half from town. The weather was fine and Mr. Troutman's orchard afforded a beautiful place for an evening party. A supper was provided by the ladies of the organization, after which some coasts were responded to. The party was gotten up in honor of the members of the society who are enrolled at Capitol University, Columbus, O., and are spending their suamer vacation at home.
