Accident at Centreville.

While Mr. Isaac Coulter, a tinner of Centreville, was placing spouting on the New College building, last Thursday, the scaffolding he was standing upon gave away, and fell to the ground below a distance of about 25 teet. No bones were broken, but his limbs were paralyzed, and he was in such pain that it was several hours before he could be moved. He was then taken to his home, and at was then taken to his home, and at last accounts is doing well, though his limbs are still paralyzed.

Vermont Election.

A State election for Governor was held in Vermont on Tuesday last. The result is an increased majority for the Republicans, running up to about 27,000, being a gain of 5000. This is a very favorable beginning and a forecast of the result of the comfang Presidential election.

for publication: PHILADELPHIA, PA., Aug. 27, '88. Hon. Matthew S. Quay. Chairman of the National Republican Com-mittee, N. Y. City:

DEAR SIR-My connection with the labor movement for the past four-teen years has made it necessary for me to be a close student of the causes of labor depression and of the needs

While, as a body, a labor organiza tion may refrain from active partici-pation in politics, so much of what organized labor demands must be obtained through legislation that the individual member of the labor organization must act politically as, in his judgment, will best aid the aims and objects expressed in the principles of the organization he represents, and whose success he desires.

In the gigantic political struggle now begun, side issues count as nothing, except to aid or hinder the principal combatants in the political arena. However sincere may be the advocates of the measures to secure which these separate political organi-zations are formed, and whatever strength in votes may be shown at will be seen the undersigned has dis-candidate of either the Republican or the Democratic party will be the next President of the United States.

WANTED-LADY Active and intelligent, to

EMPORIUM. FASHION

LELIA PITH.

THERE has been a wonderful change in the past few years in the matter of powder and face washes. Powders and other agents which were temporary and immediate in effect were almost entirely used, and could be detected at a glance. Now almost every lady uses LELIA PITH, and has a clear, healthy skin, which is white. as nature intended, not sallow.

"THE MATCHLESS." and yellow, with white powder blotched over it.

LELIA PITH is a natural botanical substance, perfectly harmless in fact, if taken into the stomach it is nutritious, and has been used for centuries by the Armenians and Circassians, whose world wide renown for beauty bears witness to its efficacy. It purifies the skin, neutralizes offensive perspiration, stimulates the capillaries to healthy action, smoothes and banishes wrinkles, rounds the face, removes tan and pimples, and makes pli-able and moist the skin. It is nature's own cosmetic. Once using it insures its use always.
