the fall election must be registered or assessed on or before Sept. 5. This matter is the most important preliminary step in the campaign. We lose annually several thousand votes on account of voters neglecting to have their names placed upon the registry of their precinct. The Demolicans counteract the results of their efforts by doing likewise.

On Thursday of last week, Mrs. May brick's sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life.

THE Southern authorities have shown commendable energy in reaching out after the principals and abettors in the big prize fight. They should make one more haul.

The arm of the law should be extended ineditorial tripod. If there is one arch-mis-chiefmaker in the land, it is this giver of The "dog collars." He has already escaped his deserts far too long.

Ar last the men engaged in revising the count for Governor in West Virginia have succeeded in throwing out enough votes to defeat Goff, the gallant Republican, who was fairly and honestly elected. Nothing else was expected, however, as the men who are engaged in this particularly dis-reputable business were selected with a fitness for that very thing.
