legislature of this state, received the approval of Gov. Beaver on the 12th day of of the Peace and to those attorneys and others who had subscribed for them till the latter part of August.

Some of the acts passed and signed at the beginning of the session repealed all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with em: so it will be seen that for six months that had been repealed or changed. This will happen every second year, unless some remedy be found for it. If people are to be expected to conform to laws they must know what these laws are, but as the system of law making now stands, this is not always possible. Either the provis-ions of all new and important laws ought to be published at once in one or more papers in each county in the state, or else no law passed by a legislature should go into effect until a certain date, fixed far enough ahead to allow of their printing and distri-

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Sept. 11.—The com-plete success of to-day was drowned in a heavy rain, which set in from the east The ceremonies were gone through, but the programs were curtailed very comsid-rably.

This morning saw at least 40,000 strangwhich they have lately made substantial improvements. An engine with belt and stated arrivals were noticed occupying doorsteps and chairs on the sidewalks. Provisions grew alarmingly scarce until the morning trains brought in a fresh supply. A high wind prevailed all forenoon, driving mouth, and generally tending to make life consider Fair day a holiday, and are out more for fun than business. The female walking match is said to have been a disgusting spectacle and a disgrace to the place.

All the catch-pennies seemed to be doing a good business also the results.

JUDGE PERSHING, of Schuylkill county, ousted a school board of that county, last week, whose operations somewhat resem-bled those of the Tweed ring. There were ize because they could not agree upor a division of the spoils. Then three of them quit, and the other three declaring places of the absent vacant, elected a fellow of their own way of thinking which made four, a majority of the board. Upon this being done they organized by divide), and teachers at $75 a month (who ing fifteen to twenty-five scholars, and were to make a further division of $50 upon pretence of buying a blackboard. After this was done, and the distribution of Was the greatest day that Butler has ever the boodle provided for, they fill-ed the board by adding two more to their number. But Judge Pershing spoiled the heels, and there is a possibility of their being supplied with accomodations during have to close the gates. The sun was hot the winter in the county jail. This was certainly a model school, and the publicity most unbearable. with which they proposed the corrupt deals does not speak well for the moral sensibilities of the people of that part of Schuvlkill county.

The Presbytery of Butler.

Ordained Mr. Jesse L. Cotton, Sept 3d, and installed him as pastor of Centreville church. He was installed over North Liberty church the next day.

Calls for Rev. Henry G. Blayney from the churches of Harrisville, New Hope and Pleasant Valley were presented and read. Calls for Lewis E. Keith, from the ited and read. All the calls are ed by Presbytery till its next meeting, when it is expected that Messrs. Blay

y and Keith will be present. Calls for Francis A. Kerns, Licentiate from the churches of Martinsburg, Petrolia, and Fairview, were accepted by him, and he is to be ordained and installed, if the Wittee of Carbon Black, Martin Heyl of way be clear, at Martinsburg, Tuesday, evening, and at Fairview next forenoon. held on the afternoon of Oct. 8th, at Mar

BARGAIN No.7, - - - - -When it comes to selling stoga boots we won't take a back seat for any one, our & kip boots, 3 soles, at $1,75 is a stunner. To look at it means to buy it. Have only been open a short time and we are already placing duplicate orders on this boot, which we are selling at $1.75.

We have so many good honest bargains at $2 I hardly know which to speak of. Our line of ladies fine shoes, hand process, at $2, are beauties and our mens fine calf-bals, congress and imi lace are fast becoming favorites with our trade.

Mens' high cut shoes in box toe-one of my leaders - and se'ling lively at $2,25. Just the thing for oil men. made good and strong.
