A Good Beginnning.

The political campaign in Butler Count may be said to have opened with the meet-ing of the Republican County Committee here last Saturday. The canvass so tan has been very quiet and uneventful, but the work of organization has been going on

The Chairman and Secretaries of th County Committee have matters well in always more or less indifference among voters and even among party workers, but pleting of the organization will have were agreeably surprised at the number of staunch Republicans who gathered in But ler last Saturday, all parts of the county were represented, and the attendance spoke well for the zeal and enthusiasm of Butler County Republicans.

Next Governor.

A Republican candidate for Governor, to succeed Governor Beaver, has to be nomi nated next year and there are already a number of gentlemen named for the nomi Among them is Hon. Charles W. Stone of Warren County, Ex-Lieut. Gov ernor and Secretary of the Commonwealth. The Bradford, McKean County, Star, of 26th Sept. ult., has quite an able article in his favor; his home papers of Warren Co. also strongly endorse his candidacy and all who know Ex-Lieut. Gov. Stone personally will heartily assent to all said of him as a man. His record and his ability as a public officer are also equally good, and while it is yet a little early to discuss the merits of candidates for Governor, in the nomination of Mr. Stone the Republicans would undoubtedly have a clean, pure and strong candidate.

Four New States.

North and South Dakota, Washington and Montana held their elections to ratify their proposed constitutions, and elect State officials, last Tuesday, and the forthe only thing necessary for their complete admission to the Union, and to entitle them to full representation in Congress and in the Electoral College. The admission of these States makes a complete line of States along our Northern boundary, excepting the narrow strip of Idaho, just as Utah stands in the way farther South.

The returns from the new States are in complete, but indicate that North and South Dakota and Washington have elected their Republican tickets, and that Montana has elected its Democratic.

In South Dakota the Prohibition claus of the Constitution is supposed to have carried, while the Minority Representation clause is supposed to have been defeated. North Dakota has probably rejected Prohi bion, Washington has probably defeated the Female Suffrage article in its propose Constitution. In South Dacota most of the campaign work was devoted to discussion of the site for a new capital, the cities in the field for the honor being Sioux Falls, Huron; Pierre, Mitchell, Watertown,

Washington voters had to choose b tween Olympia and Yakima for State capital, while the questions of woman suffrag In Montana the issue was entirely polit married, and they are going to do it very soon. Every body said it was of D. A. HECK, who always sells clothin this terrestrial ball. Our illustration represents close figures, and no doubt they would like to get closer but they can't do it. We would like to make closer fig ures but we can't do it, because there is no more room for reduction to cut down the selling price; a little more would be to cut into the cost price, and that would be digging the ground from under our own feet. Already we are too close for comfort to the cost mark, and must sell large quantities at these prices or is backward we cumference and convince you that a bargain is always in season. We can't force the seasons but we can force a sale. Howling hurricanes! shrill-shricking storm spirits that ride the bellowing blasts! terrible tornadoes that terrify the traveler and frighten the farmer into frenzy! the tremendous typhoon, scourge of the salt, seething sea, that scathes the ship and sailor! Sahara's sirocco and storm of sand, deadly devastator of the desert, shroud and sepulchre of swirling sand! The world wails and wonders at these phenomena, but is comforted and compensated by the fact that HECK is in business to repair damages. Ponder over these things. Think deeply when you contemplate a purchase of anything in our line, no matter how small. Act wisely by coming to look over our large and well-assorted stock of new and sea-Sonable goods. Look ahead! Cease your reckless expenditure—have a care for the future—and save money while you have it to save. After seeing the qua and hearing the price of our goods you cannot resist.
