The State Supreme Court, sitting at Pittsburgh, Monday, handed down a decision reversing the Court of Mercer county in the Floming liquor case and discharging the defendant. The opinion of a majority of the Judges is that the sale was ade in Allegheny county, while the dis-nting opinion of three of the Judges is that it was made in Mercer county. Jus-

In New York the Democrats claim their State ticket, but the Legislature will remove alth, which was an indictment for selling liquor without license, we held that the place of sale is the point at which goods ordered or purchased are set apart and delivered to the purchaser or to a common carrier, who, for the purpose of delivery, or persents him. In that case the order for for the liquor was solicited and obtained by the defendants in the county of Mercer, but was sent to his principal, who, in the county of Erie. The order was executed by the principal, who, in the county of Erie at his place of business, separated or set apart from his general stock the liquor ordered, and delivered it to a common carrier to be forwarded to its destination in Mercer county. We decided that this was no violation of the law prohibiting sales without license, although neither the defendant, who was a traveling agent, nor his principal held any license for the sale of liquor in Mercer county. The decade now under consideration the iquor was sold upon orders sent by mail by the purchasers, living in Mercer county. The case now under consideration the iquor was sold upon orders sent by mail by the purchasers, living in Mercer county. The fact a common carrier, consigned to he purchaser at his address in Mercer county and there delivered to the purchaser at his address in Mercer county and the expense of transcration. Upon these facts alone the design of this court in the case of Gabracht supra is directly and distinctly applicable and requires us to reverse the judgment of he court below unless there are other facts at the case which distinguish it from the see of Gabracht."

As to the legal and criminal inference at the sale was made in Mercer and not

As to the legal and criminal inference that the sale was made in Mercer and not a Allegheny county the Court says:

"This reasoning ignores certain facts thich require consideration. The orders sere sent by the purchasers in Mercer ounty by mail to the seller in Allegheny county, and in the orders the purchaser renested the defendant to send the goods C. D. The purchaser, for his own conmience, requests the seller to send him its goods with authority in the carrier to serve the money for them. This method payment is the choice of the purchaser and rasen and area a

Thus far we have regarded the transions between the parties in its aspect as ivil contract only, but when viewed in aspect as a source of criminal prosecutation the transaction becomes much more arrom doubt. It is manifest that when purchaser ordered the goods to be sent aspect as a source of criminal prosecunathe transaction becomes much more ar from doubt. It is manifest that when purchaser ordered the goods to be sent him C. O. D. he constituted the carrier agent both to receive the goods from seller and to transmit the price to the carrier agent both to receive the goods from seller and to transmit the price to the carrier agent both to receive the goods from seller and to transmit the price to the carrier agent both to receive the goods from seller and to transmit the price to the carrier at Pittsburgh for purpose of transportation the duty of sceller was performed and the transion was completed between the seller d purchaser. To convert this entirely accent and purely civil transaction recting the mode of collecting the price the goods into a crime is, in our judgent, a grave perversion of the criminal with the total vote for the Prohibition ticket was not over 10,000, to a reduction of about 50 per cent. from that of last year.

The Republicans have carried the county yas bout 700, but our candidate for District Attorney has been defeated by the small majority of 63. Mr. Reiber, the Democratic candidate, has wealthy friends, and extense of the yard part of course there is an utter absence of year printing the last few days of the canvass, and election day had rigs hauling people to the polls all day. This, with some absurd 11th hour reports and the overconfidence of some Republicans and apathy of others, has resulted in Moore's defeat.

Justices Williams, Clark and McCollus filed a dissenting opinion, holding that the sending of the goods C. O. D. made the carrier his agent, and the transaction taken on principal and authority, was cale and delivery in Mercer county and not at Pittsburgh. The Justices hold that in her he was selling to a minor, a habi drunkard or a lunatic. The law reires that he should know to whom he ing.
