The anniversary of the Philadelphia Zephyr is the first for 1890 to come to our desk this year. It is always a handsomely bound and printed book, and besides the round of statistics which it usually gives, it this year contains illustrated descriptions of the Johnston and Atlantic City disasters.

James W. Hutchison Esq. whose card appears in another column is a son of James G. Hutchison deceased, formerly of Parker Twp. He read law with S. F. Flower Esq. he is a man of good mind and good character, and he has opened an office with S. Moore Esq. in the Huston block.

Early Monday morning last, a young man of Harmony, while returning from a protracted sitting with his best girl in Zelienople, was halted by the Constable of that town. The young man mistook the Constable for a policeman, and when the Constable took the young man for a robber and pursued him and fired his revolver at him. Both men had had stories to tell next morning.

The numerous nitro-glycerine explosions of late, emphasize the demand for a powerful explosive that will not "go off" with each action desired. Many persons of the staff in cases placed in danger from this stuff without their knowing it. Some years ago two "shooters" from up about Emulston got the job of shooting a well in territory south of Pittsburgh, and they set the stuff in cases placed in their articles, on the train to Pittsburg, slept at the Robinson House that night with the articles under their beds, and resumed their journey next day.

His second wife was a Dutchess, and he recognized her daughter, Mrs. Bredl, in his will. His farm was good old producing territory, and made him rich. He died possessed of considerable real estate and some $25,000 in cash, nearly $5,000 of which was in his safe at the time of his death. Mr. August Dehn is the executor of the will, a note of which we make in the legal notes.

In witness whereof I hereto set my hand and seal the 9th day of December, 1890. CASPER FEIL, (JACOB HEID) JURY M. THOMPSON.

There was some talk of the will being disputed at the 9th, but it was not. The will of Jacob Heid of Forward twp. was probated and letters granted to A. H. Heid, and to George C. Drake of Gettysburg and no letters.

A Grand Concert.

The Poca-Poca club, of Pittsburgh, gave a highly successful concert on Monday evening at the Opera House. A large and fashionable audience had gathered in full expectation of hearing such music as is rarely heard in Butler, and it was not disappointed.

The concert was for the benefit of the High School and we understand a handsome sum was realized. The Poca-Poca is a social club composed of about fifty of the best society people of Pittsburgh, and Butler has reason to be grateful to them both for the musical treat and the services they rendered the school. It is to be hoped that this is but the first of a series of concerts by this talented and cultivated organization, in this place.

While in Butler the entire club was entertained by Mrs. W. V. Hankman in an elegant manner. On the evening of the concert, and at its conclusion a reception in honor of the members of the Poca-Poca Club, was held at the Grand manor residence and was attended by a large number of the members of the club. They were all delighted with the manner they were received in Butler. One credit should be given to Messrs H. C. Phillips and Fred Gable for their able efforts in inducing the club to come, and leading the members of the club to their successful termination.

A NEW CHRISTMAS STORY.

INTRODUCTION. "Twas an evening toward the close of the year, 1859. Peace, and of the main strength of a busy thriving town in western Penn'a.

It had been a year of thrilling interest, great floods, great fires, new states and new republics have been born in a day. Misfortune and calamity had been the lot of many, but as I see that myself and the community around me have been abundantly prospered my heart fills with gratitude and I remember that Christmas is near and determine to make my friends the handsomest presents I find.

CHAPTER II. With these thoughts in mind I pause before the beautifully decorated windows of J. H. DOUGLASS. What I see tempts me to go inside and such a wealth of beautiful, rich and novel things as are presented before me, reaching from one end of the room to the other; I began at the book counter.

CHAPTER III. "Of gifts there seems now more becoming to offer a friend than a beautiful book." - A. Bronson Alcott. Here I see standard books in sets. Mark the price - Dickens, 10 vols. $5.50; Scott, 12 vols. $6.00; Irving, 5 vols. $11.75; Thackeray, 10 vols. $6.25; Elliot, 6 vols. $5.00; Goldsmith's Fables, 3 vols. $5.00; Gibbon's Rome, 5 vols. $2.50; Cooper's 5 vols. $3.75; 40 standard books of adventure, fiction, etc. cloth binding at 25c. Illustrated gift books. Their selections of art books and engravings and gravures are "simply elegant." Large line of the popular Dutton booklets and other beautiful lines. And, oh, the stacks of Children's books! Every variety from 10c to $2.00 pretty enough to tempt older folk. Bibles, hymnals, prayer books, etc.

CHAPTER IV. Abundant - did you ever see such a stock? Every thing from 50c to $10 in price, 125 different patterns exclusive of colorings. The oblong, the Longfellow and a large square album, all in 125 cabinets, screens, pocket albums.

CHAPTER V. The line of Toilet and Manicure sets, shaving sets, work boxes, jewel and other sets, clocks, bronzes, collar and cuff sets, traveling cases, snuff-boxes, mirrors, frames, inkstands, gold pens and pencils, contain all the latest novelties, and cannot be equaled in variety and price.

CHAPTER VI. In the children's department we saw the most beautiful line of dolls in the market at remarkable low prices, games, dishes, blocks, engines, horns, etc.

CHAPTER VII. The conclusion we arrived at from what we saw was, that the best place to buy your Christmas gifts is at J. H. DOUGLASS, 61 S. MAIN ST.

CHAPTER VIII. The glad to see that our stock-keepers and business men are taking good care to provide every thing needed by our people for the holidays.

CHAPTER IX. For the next fifty days, in order to reduce our stock, we will quote special low prices on all our stock. We have on hands thirty bed room sets ranging from $15 to $150 per set.

CHAPTER X. Thirteen upholstered parlor suits ranging from $35 to $150 per set. Parlor stands from $2.50 to $10. Lounges from $2.50 to $25. Hat racks from $5 to $10. Tables from $1 to $10. Washstands from $2 to $15. Bureaus from $9 to $25. Sets of chairs from $2.75 to $16 per set. Secretaries from $10 to $40.

CHAPTER XI. Heavy chairs, handsome pictures, room ornaments, etc., any of which would make both useful and appropriate presents.

CHAPTER XII. Highest class price paid for buckwheat at Geo. Walter's Mill, Butler, Pa.

CHAPTER XIII. Silverware dealers think that bright response work will soon replace the oxidized style.

CHAPTER XIV. Over a hundred styles of wool dress goods at 25c per yard at the New York Bazaar.
