The House Committees.

The committee on the subject of the House of Representatives was held last Saturday. It was not until the very last minute that Speaker Reed kept the list as long as possible in order to give himself the opportunity of making changes in it, should they become necessary.

The Pennsylvania members are all pleased with the assignments made them. No less than seven chairmanships are distributed among the delegation from this State.

Mr. Daisell, of Pittsburg, gets what he wanted, the chairmanship of the Pacific Railroad. He will introduce the same funding bill which was before the last Congress.

Mr. O'Sullivan, of Philadelphia, is in some measure compensated for the loss of the chairmanship of the Committee on Commerce, which he desired, by securing the first place on the Library Committee.

McGormick, of Erie, is assigned to the Committee on the Judiciary. Towns, of Erie, is assigned to the Committee on the Judiciary.

HERY W. GRADY, of Atlanta, Ga., the best known man far south, died of pneumonia last Monday.

REV. S. K. PADEN, of Harrisville, Butler County, who was in the hands of a committee at the recent session of the Erie Conference, on a charge of heresy, has been cleared.

LOREINE. The shades of night were falling. O'er hill and valley, grove and lawn, and through the leafy branches of trees.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, we believe that the perpetuity of our free institutions and the advancement of education depends mainly upon our common school system, therefore, we look upon the present act as a measure of wisdom and efficiency.

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the people be expressed to our esteemed Superintendents for their earnest endeavors and complete success in the management of the common schools.

Resolved, That we in this manner express our thanks for the help Prof. Leslie has given us, and that we give it as our sincere expression of our appreciation of the services of this gentleman as our State Director for our next Institute.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to Professors Schaeffer, Little and others who have assisted in the preparation of the report, and that we give them our sincere appreciation.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the County Commissioners for the use of the Court House.

Resolved, That we have an Allwise God in His Providence to remove from his field of labor, our worthy Superintendent, Dr. H. W. Hibbs, who will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
