

THE CITIZEN.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 1890.

There is a population of about 1000 in the County seat of Butler County.

Four railroads, natural gas and unequalled facilities for manufacturing.

Trains and Mails.

West Pass R. R. - Trains leave Butler for Freeport, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

Money orders can be secured at the post-office at Butler, Prospect, Soudersville, etc.

LOCAL ASSEMBLY 8898, Knights of Labor, meets every Friday night in the Carriage and Janney Hall, Third Street.

New Advertisements.

Ritter & Ralston's Wraps, Collett & Dale's Furnishing Goods.

NOTE - All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads, should notify us of this.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Napt rather choose a sobbing strain, And cry in low, sad tones.

The new name for it is Grip-Suiter.

They are cutting 10-inch ice up in Maine.

The assessors elected last year will serve for three years.

The Miller-Town Fair Association has decided to give no exhibition this year.

Mr. D. H. Sinton of Mahanag has sold his store to W. B. McGeary and Dan Kennedy.

The pensions of Wm. D. Frazier of Prospect, and Geo. W. Frazier of Freeport, have been increased.

Most of the ice housed in this vicinity last year was cut during the month of February.

It will be well to remember that there is no session of the Pennsylvania Legislature this winter.

The proper pronunciation of Grippe is as if we spelled Greepe. If you have it you might as well have it right.

A cable from Berlin says "La Grippe is weakening." So its victims have discovered.

It was only 29 degrees below zero in South Dakota last week.

A young man was fined $25 the other day for hugging a St. Louis girl.

The use of anti-grippe, the drug used for the cure of the grippe is said to be as liable to abuse as that of alcohol, morphine or cocaine.

Jack Keany has the contract for cutting the timber on the line of the new railroad, as surveyed up the Big Buffalo, and began work last Friday.

It is all right to pity the man who has met misfortune, but just now the fellow who has "lost his grip" is rather to be envied. His loss is a distinct gain.

An exchange remarks: We have had rain inside of each 24 hours for about three months, and the mud is from 24 inches to 24 feet deep.

John Bleicher, M. S. Heckert, Wm. Burtner and G. Paul were elected directors of the Hannastown Mutual Fire Ins. Co., at the late meeting of stockholders.

The following will be protested last week at Pittsburgh and accepted: "Pittsburgh, Sept. 2, 1889 - If I die I want my wife to have what I got. Good-bye."

Jonathan Leas, one of the pioneers and trustees of the Economic Society, died Wednesday, and Jacob Heister is the only original member left.

The large horse net hanging in the office of the Hotel Voagey, was brought to town by an oil producer who found it in the woods south of town, and it is full of hornets.

A Novel Contest.

The race around the world between "Sally Bly" of the New York Herald, (Miss Pink Cochran of Armstrong Co.) and Miss Elizabeth Island of the "Cosmopolitan Magazine" is attracting considerable attention.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Plate Glass Co., Tuesday, Jan. 8, Chas. W. Lueder, W. E. Schmidt, Selmer McKee, Wm. Lueder, D. D. Wood, D. E. Wheeler and J. M. Kennedy were elected directors.

The gripe has had a bad effect on one's temper. A Philadelphia physician, writing for the Medical News, mentions one case that of a very refined lady, who went at her doctor every time he entered her room.

The Miller's Keystone Bag Co. will locate their paper mill at Irwin Station, on the P. E. R., the people of that town having offered them a site of five acres free. They propose to build 25 tons of bags suitable for holding flour, every day.

This has been a bad winter for song writers. The authors of "Mary had a Little Lamb," and "There is a Happy Land" have died lately, and it is not expected that the author of "McGinty" will be allowed to rewrite the same.

Now that James G. Blaine is seriously ill the papers are noting the fact that he was a great lover of raspberries when a boy, in fact that he positively doted on them.

Dr. A. A. Kelly has opened an office in the Ketterer building, near the Hotel Voagey, on Main St. He has been here for many years, and he has the reputation of being a reliable and responsible physician.

Spelling bees are again becoming popular in the rural districts as a means of entertainment these long winter evenings.

Oil Field Notes.

The surprise of the Hundred-foot field during the past week was the producer struck at the Hunt Humphrey farm, considerably east of other producers.

It is not known yet, whether or not the well on the J. S. Hays farm will make a paying producer. They found about sixty feet of splendid sand, but it was too close to allow of the oil flowing freely.

The Hartman well, northeast of Bakerton, was topped last week at 100 lbs.

The Wilmor well near Zelienople is not yet completed, nor the well on the Jacobs Enders.

The Logue No. 3, near Copleysville is put at 25 lbs.

Otto Linberg, F. H. Morse and J. M. Mitchell expect to complete their well on the Sam'l Miller, near Jamiesonville Station next week.

Barrett & Co. are drilling a well on the Banting farm, near Jefferson Centre, and Hatry & Co. on the Loyal Well.

The Grazer well, Martin farm, stopped flowing Tuesday. It was drilled Tuesday three miles in excellent sand, and will be topped with three-inch tubing and pumped before drilling to the second pay streak.

The McNeal farm well is 42 feet in the hundred-foot field, with no oil yet.

The Alford farm well, northeast of Bakerton, will be topped in the hundred-foot sand.

A night was witnessed at Carbonate, Tuesday. Arthur Carrol buried four children, they all having died of diphtheria.

While digging in his ear with a pin, Charles Mowers, of Shipshewer did himself an injury which has resulted in lockjaw.

One of the most famous hunters of Berks county is Isaac Hoffman, Cooper town.

Alfred Hall, a farmer boy aged 17, was arrested at Youngstown, by Detective McMillan, of the Lake Shore railroad, charged with attempting to wreck a passenger train.

There's a girl down at Sharpville, Mercer county, who must have a grand mother.

Quit claim of S. M. Boyd to Harvey H. Boyd, lots in Butler for $8,000.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

A few days ago a well-dressed woman about 30 years of age, carrying a 1-year-old baby in her arms, called at the residence of Noah Robinson, of New Castle and asked permission to rest a moment.

She afterwards asked if she could leave the baby five minutes at the store for the boy, she left the baby and left the boy, and has not been seen since.

The following note, written in a lady's hand, was pinned to the child's underclothing: "May heaven deal with you as you deal with my child. Some time I will return and claim him and will amply reward you. In the meantime let him be called John Harrison."

Real estate in Pittsburgh is attaining very high prices these days, if at all favorably located. A lot at the corner of Sixth Avenue and Wood street, probably familiar to many of our readers, not however, because part of it is occupied by a saloon, was sold the other day for $1,000.

Some days ago Esq. Brown, of Harrisville, committed a man named Volney Wilson to jail for begging from door to door.

Monday, Feb. 3, will be the last day for filing accounts for presentation at March Term.

Dr. J. C. H. was adjudged a lunatic by the commission appointed to investigate his case, and he was taken to Duncannon, Monday.
