Mr. B. C. McNutt of near Parker and Miss Dade Parker, eloped to Jamestown, N. Y. last Sunday night. Carlisle, this state, is a paradise for tramps, and out of one hundred and twen-ty tramps in the jail there sixty-one of them were found to be stout, able-bodied fellows who could work if they were put to work. Why don't the Carlisle authori-ties fix up their streets with a chain gang of these burly tramps? But doesn't it look a little strange to see one hundred and twenty tramps in one jail—and men, at that? It was only a few years ago that Sipe's school) on Saturday, March 1st.
