Keep Busy.

The secret of success in life is to keep busy, to be presevering, patient, and untiring in the pursuit or calling you are following. The busy ones may now and then make mistakes, but it is better to risk these than to be idle and inactive. Keep doing, whether it be at work or seeking recreation. Motion is life, and the busiest are the happiest. Cheerful, active labor is a blessing. An old philosopher says: "The firefly only shines when on the wing; so it is with the mind; when once we rest, we darken."—Elmnina.

Deserves Credit for what He didn't do.

It may be said to the credit of the late John Jacob Astor that he wrecked no railroads, violated no public or private rights, belonged to no trusts or syndicates, and it isn't known that he ever contemplated purchasing a seat in the United States Senate.

—It is proposed to tax every bachelor in Wyoming $2.50 a year. It is fair to presume that a measure like this will have a tendency to make the young men in that territory come into the union.

—Fences cannot be adorned with business signs without the consent of the owner. A case in point was reported last week wherein a man in an adjoining county paid $25 for this ignorance of the law.

—To have good health medicine is necessary occasionally. As a family medicine we can recommend Laxador, the great regulator, and advise all to have a package constantly on hand for cases of necessity.

We request all mothers to stop using laudanum for their babies, and use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, a safe medicine. It contains nothing injurious.

—"We ought to deny ourselves something in this penitential season," remarked Mrs. Snaggs. "What sacrifice will you make, John?" "You know how I love to go to church?" replied her husband. Well, I have resolved to give it up."

—The most painful consciousness of the self conscious man, is the consciousness that others know he is self-conscious.

—Scrofula and all humors are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

—Home is never so attractive to the homesick man, by a strange inconsistency of nature, as when he's away from it.

—It is a singular fact that the artist, though he often takes his wife for a model, seldom takes his model for a wife.

—The impecunious society man finds that there is very little difference between being in the soup and in the swim.

—At the consultation: Nervous patient—"Oh, I'm so afraid I shall be buried alive." Chorus of doctors—"You shan't, madam, if we can help it."

When the summer's rose has faded
What shall make it fair again?
When the face with pain is shaded
What shall drive away the pain?
Never shall a blossom brighten
After blighted by the frost,
But the load of pain may lighten,
And we need not count as lost all the pleasure of life when the wife and mother, upon whom the happiness of home so largely depends, is afflicted with the delicate diseases peculiar to women. It is terrible to contemplate the misery existing in our midst because of the prevalence of these diseases. It is high time that all women should know that there is one sure remedy for all female complaints, and that is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Do not allow ill-health to fasten itself upon you. Ward it off by the use of this standard remedy. But if it has already crept in, put it to rout. You can do it, by the use of the "Favorite Prescription." It is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every cast, or money paid for it will be returned.

For billiousness, sick headache, indigestion, and constipation, take Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

—A celebrated scientist has discovered the cause of the prevailing influenza to be in the very common habit among careless people of sleeping on spring beds in winter time.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

—The Ventura county (Cal.) papers are urging their readers to plant camphor trees. They said to grow as rapidly as the eucalyptus.

—An act passed by the Pennsylvania legislature in 1861 requires hucksters from outside of a county to pay a licence of $20 and hucksters living in the county to pay a license of $10, imposing penalties for failure to day these licenses. Judge Endlich, in a decision just rendered at Reading, held the law unconstitutional, on the ground that it was a law regulating commerce, such as Congress alone had power to pass, and also for the reason that it discriminated between residents and non-residents.
