

THE CITIZEN.

FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1890.

BUTLER has a population of about 16,000.
It is the county seat of Butler County, with four railroads, natural gas, and unquenched desires for manufacture.

Progress everywhere; new buildings, new manufactures, a growing and prosperous town.

TRAINS AND MAIL.

WEST PENN R. R.—Trains leave Butler for Freight, Barberville, Pittsburg, at 6:45 a.m., 2:30 p.m., and 6:30 p.m.; and return at 10:30 a.m., 3:30 p.m., and 4:30 p.m.; and arrive at 7:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m., and 3:30 p.m. Mail is due at 7:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m., and 3:30 p.m.

R. & W. R.—Trains leave Butler for Allegheny at 6:45 a.m., 1:15 and 10:30 a.m., and 3:30 p.m.; and arrive at 7:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m., and 3:30 p.m. Mail
is due at 7:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m., and 3:30 p.m.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch's road exploring party visits Butler county, we advise them to attack eight horses, and ten
mules to their schooner.

Daniel Budds of Fairview tow. owns
a tract of land which is said to have lately given
birth to five calves, none of which lived
long.

The Union Veteran Legion of Butler
celebrated the 25th anniversary of the surrender at Appomattox, Wednesday evening,
at 8 p.m. For the benefit of the West and South
at 9 p.m. For Pittsburg and the North at 9:45
p.m. Total amount $1,000.

For local points South and Pittsburg at 10 p.m. For the benefit of the South at 10:45 p.m.

MAIL ARRIVED AT BUTLER.—At 11 a.m.,
Tuesday, April 9, there was a mail for Butler
worth $100.

Money orders can be sent at the postoffice at Butler, or at Butler, Sunday afternoons,
at 1 p.m.

STAR BUREAU.—Daily mail for Mr. Chestnut
arrived at 10:30 a.m., and at 11 a.m., and departed at 1 p.m.

STEEL BUREAU.—For all news, call at the
post office at Butler, or at Butler, Sunday afternoons,
at 1 p.m.

Agents Wanted.

Miss Gilley, American Dress Master.

Martindale & Co.'s Huggies, etc.

Exhibition to Washington.

NOTE.—All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads, should notify us so, not later than Monday morning.

SOCIETIES.

LOCAL ASSEMBLY $500, Knights of La-log, meets every Friday night in the Carpenters and Joiners Hall, third floor, Hotel building.

W. J. M. OLESS, Secy.

New Advertisements.

The New York Tribune.

B. & F. Spring Margins.

Koenigsmill's Millinery.

Agents Wanted.

Miss Gilley, American Dress Master.

Martindale & Co.'s Huggies, etc.

Exhibition to Washington.

For County Superintendent.

Election Tuesday, May 6th.

H. H. ELLIOTT,
of Millerton.

N. C. McCOLLOUGH,

OF Karna City.

SAMUEL J. CHRISTIE,

OF Cherry twp.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

He could write a comic article that would
make you roar.

And his after dinner speeches were with
humor and wit over.

But when it comes to mind the baby his resources fail.

And the humor he tried to be the more
the baby wailed.

—How do you like your new neighbor?

—The peach buds are said to be dead as Julius Caesar.

—The warm weather is luring lovers to
the suburbs.

—You can get umbrellas and a cold in the
head on any hill about town.

—Umbrellas have been over-worked of
late.

—How do you like the new 2-cent
stamp?

—The bottle works here are to be enlarged.

—See Rosenbaum & Co.'s new advertisement in this paper.

—Our druggists are overhauling and fur-
ishing their soda water fountains.

—Dr. Bippus is now located at No. 23,
Jefferson St.

—The pension of Le Roy Delanoette of Barthells Mills has been increased.

—Gather together and put in order your
garden tools.

—The candidates are beginning to move
around quite freely.

—After the 1st of May the banks here
intend closing at 3 p.m.

—Next to laziness the hardest thing on
earth to resist is the impulse to take sides
in a fight.

—Most men will notice a shabby pair of shoes more quickly than a "love of a bouquet."

—An explosion of an empty glycerine
can some distance east of town, last
Thursday evening, started the whole town.

—One of the shanties on the Troutman
lot was dragged over to Springfield, and
was there staved in the middle of a street.

—The Spring Term of the Slipperock
Normal started off with three hundred
and twenty-five students.

—Mr. Spruance Cooper and his son were delivering some of their excellent maple
syrup in town Wednesday.

—Henry Biehl is now occupying
both his store rooms and has an experienced man to superintend his sewing machine
department.

—The laic man goeth to and fro with
his hands in his pockets, expecting that
one day he will be one rich. "Any day
for a cent."

—There is a fine of $20 for refusing to
give your age to the census enumerator.
This item may be interesting to girls and
bachelors.

—A new postoffice has been established in Clefield township, and called Fennell, and of which Mr. P. S. Fennell is
the postmaster.

—Communion services will be held in
the United Presbyterian Church on the 10th
Sabbath. The pastor will be assisted by
Rev. S. J. Shaw of Bradlock.

—A book-keeper of this town who disappeared four weeks ago, is said to be $500
short in his accounts, and to have left his
employer in bad shape.

—April showers brought some immense
hailstones Tuesday night. That same night Nowalk, Salen, East Liverpool and other towns in Ohio were visited by heavy
storms.

—At the meeting of Council Saturday
evening, nothing was done, excepting that
the Council decided not to interfere with
the rebuilding or repairing of the frame
barn back of Pape's store, and now owned
by Will Kennedy.

—Miss Molier Gilkey has opened her
dress-making establishment in the second story of her building on Main St., where
she is prepared to do everything in the line
of fine dress-making at the lowest prices
compatible with good workmanship. She
keeps on hand all the latest fashion plates
and her facilities for doing the best of dress-making are unequalled. She would be glad to thank old customers for patronage
of the past and solicit a share of that of the future.

With two leagues at work, the knights of the bat.

Will pocket what else we might hold;

and when the hall's opened, well wager a hat.

The newsletters all will be scored.

JENNESS-MILLER.

Ride a cock horse
To Banbury Cross,
To see a lady
Straddle a course.

If the new notion
Very far goes,
What she don't want,
No body knows.

—Johnstown is again under water.

—Four men were hanged in this state,
Wednesday—Andrews at Bedford, Carter at Ebensburg, Taylor at Waynesburg and Hilliard at Easton.

—The Pittsburgh Dispatch's road exploring party visits Butler county, we advise them to attack eight horses, and ten
mules to their schooner.

—Daniel Budds of Fairview tow. owns
a tract of land which is said to have lately given
birth to five calves, none of which lived
long.

—The Union Veteran Legion of Butler
celebrated the 25th anniversary of the sur-
render at Appomattox, Wednesday evening,
at 8 p.m. For the benefit of the West and South
at 9 p.m. For Pittsburg and the North at 9:45
p.m. Total amount $1,000.

—For local points South and Pittsburg at 10 p.m. For the benefit of the South at 10:45 p.m.

MAIL ARRIVED AT BUTLER.—At 11 a.m.,
Tuesday, April 9, there was a mail for Butler
worth $100.

Money orders can be sent at the postoffice at Butler, or at Butler, Sunday afternoons,
at 1 p.m.

STAR BUREAU.—Daily mail for Mr. Chestnut
arrived at 10:30 a.m., and at 11 a.m., and departed at 1 p.m.

STEEL BUREAU.—For all news, call at the
post office at Butler, or at Butler, Sunday afternoons,
at 1 p.m.

Agents Wanted.

Miss Gilley, American Dress Master.

Martindale & Co.'s Huggies, etc.

Exhibition to Washington.

For County Superintendent.

Election Tuesday, May 6th.

H. H. ELLIOTT,
of Millerton.

N. C. McCOLLOUGH,

OF Karna City.

SAMUEL J. CHRISTIE,

OF Cherry twp.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

He could write a comic article that would
make you roar.

And his after dinner speeches were with
humor and wit over.

But when it comes to mind the baby his resources fail.

And the humor he tried to be the more
the baby wailed.

—How do you like your new neighbor?

—The peach buds are said to be dead as Julius Caesar.

—The warm weather is luring lovers to
the suburbs.

—You can get umbrellas and a cold in the
head on any hill about town.

—Umbrellas have been over-worked of
late.

—How do you like the new 2-cent
stamp?

—The bottle works here are to be enlarged.

—See Rosenbaum & Co.'s new advertisement in this paper.

—Our druggists are overhauling and fur-
ishing their soda water fountains.

—Dr. Bippus is now located at No. 23,
Jefferson St.

—The pension of Le Roy Delanoette of Barthells Mills has been increased.

—Gather together and put in order your
garden tools.

—The candidates are beginning to move
around quite freely.

—After the 1st of May the banks here
intend closing at 3 p.m.

—Next to laziness the hardest thing on
earth to resist is the impulse to take sides
in a fight.

—Most men will notice a shabby pair of
shoes more quickly than a "love of a
bouquet."

—An explosion of an empty glycerine
can some distance east of town, last
Thursday evening, started the whole town.

—One of the shanties on the Troutman
lot was dragged over to Springfield, and
was there staved in the middle of a street.

—The Spring Term of the Slipperock
Normal started off with three hundred
and twenty-five students.

—Mr. Spruance Cooper and his son were
delivering some of their excellent maple
syrup in town Wednesday.

—Henry Biehl is now occupying
both his store rooms and has an experienced man to superintend his sewing machine
department.

—The laic man goeth to and fro with
his hands in his pockets, expecting that
one day he will be one rich. "Any day
for a cent."

—There is a fine of $20 for refusing to
give your age to the census enumerator.
This item may be interesting to girls and
bachelors.

—A new postoffice has been established in Clefield township, and called Fennell, and of which Mr. P. S. Fennell is
the postmaster.

—Communion services will be held in
the United Presbyterian Church on the 10th
Sabbath. The pastor will be assisted by
Rev. S. J. Shaw of Bradlock.

—A book-keeper of this town who dis-
appeared four weeks ago, is said to be $500
short in his accounts, and to have left his
employer in bad shape.

—April showers brought some immense
hailstones Tuesday night. That same
night Nowalk, Salen, East Liverpool and
other towns in Ohio were visited by heavy
storms.

—At the meeting of Council Saturday
evening, nothing was done, excepting that
the Council decided not to interfere with
the rebuilding or repairing of the frame
barn back of Pape's store, and now owned
by Will Kennedy.

—Miss Molier Gilkey has opened her
dress-making establishment in the second
story of her building on Main St., where
she is prepared to do everything in the line
of fine dress-making at the lowest prices
compatible with good workmanship. She
keeps on hand all the latest fashion plates
and her facilities for doing the best of
dress-making are unequalled. She would be glad to thank old customers for patronage
of the past and solicit a share of that of the
future.