CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold everywhere, or sent by mail.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Puzzled the Bartender.

If there is one thing that Al Vail, the well-known barkeeper, is prouder of than his good looks, it is his knowledge of all species of mixed drinks and his ability in getting them up in good style. A few days ago a stranger wearing a title, a glass diamond and a rosy headlight glow upon his nose, stepped up to the bar and said:

"Give me some fortunates a la Francais with a dash of bourgeoise a fortiori."

"Eh! ah, yes," replied Al. "Will you—ahem—take it hot or cold?"

"Cold?" queried the stranger contemptuously.

"Who ever heard of the like? If that's all you know about the drink I'll take something else. Fix me up some cum grano salis with a bete noir on the outside."

"Y-yes, sir," said Vail very promptly but weakly; "I'll have it ready in a moment. You want a grain of what did you say."

"Aw, bosh! I said nothing about a grain of anything. Don't you know what cum grano salis is? Let it go. Give me an ego sum homo, will you, and be lively. I'm in a hurry."

"Accommodate you in a jiffy," murmured Al, getting red in the face. "Give me an egg, Billy (to the under bartender). Let's see. An egg and one home—what in thunder did you want besides the egg, stranger?"

"Egg the devil. I said ego sum homo, and said it plainly. Great Heavens! where's the bartender of this place? I can't fool around with an ignorant apprentice."

"I—um—don't seem to have heard of the drink you mention, stranger," said Al, sheepishly, while his countenance took on the aspect of the setting sun, "I though I knew—"

"Oh, no doubt you thought you were an expert," remarked the customer sarcastically. Ho, ho, ho! S'pose I'll have to take something plain if I deal with you. I reckon you know how to fix me up a honi soit in a little qui maly pence, don't you?"

"Oh, yes," and Al smiled in a sickly fashion, (Aside: "What the devil does he he mean by Molly's pants?") "Billy, where's the bottle of bourbon?"

"Bourbon? Why, man, there's no whisky goes with that drink. Well, may I be carried away on a stretcher if I'd 'a' believed this! And in a metropolitan saloon, too! Give me a plain ipse dixit, will you?"

"Friend," moaned Al, as he leaned over the bar, while the perspiration rolled off his brow, "I can't do it. We've plenty of ipsey, but there ain't a d— bit of dixit in the house."

"Say, can you fix me a rara avis?"

"I can't," tearfully confessed the embarrassed barkeeper. "I don't know how."

"And you call yourself a barkeeper?" said the man with the glowing proboscis. "Well, I've got nothing to say. Try to learn, young man. You may yet gain some knowledge of your business. Good-by—good-by."

It was not until a few days afterward that the crest fallen drink-mixer discovered that he had been the victim of a put-up job, and that he had been trying to fill orders for a lot of old French and Latin phrases. Then he repaired to the alley in the rear of the establishment and silently kicked his corns against the curbstone.

Showing His Sympathy.

A 14 year-old-boy went into his mother's presence with one eye black, his lips swollen, and a ragged scratch across his cheek, the blood from which he had wiped off on his shirt sleeve.

"Nicodemus," cried the parent, as he sneaked in, "have you been fighting again?"

"Nope," he sullenly grunted.

"Then what on the earth ails your face?"

"Jim Green's ma's dead," he replied.

"Well, suppose she is, what's that got to do with your bunged up face?"

"I seed Jim jest now," answered the boy, "and he looked awful sad and solemnsome."

"Well?"

"I didn't know what ter do to make him bright and chipper like, an' feelin' so sorry for him, I jest went up and let him hit me a few licks."

"Did it help him?" asked the mother.

"Help him?" echoed the boy, in a surprised tone, "course it did. Don't you think it'd make you feel good to bust a fellow that way, what had licked you every week for a year?"

—In the schools of Minersville, Schuylkill county, the newspapers have been adopted as a text-book. All the better for the schools. The use of newspapers in the schools instead of some of the stupid text-books now foisted on the scholars would tend to a broader intelligence and enable the scholars to grasp more quickly ideas that are really useful to them in every-day life. There are some pretty rocky text-books in use in our public schools.

— Compare Hood's Sarsaparilla with other blood purifiers and you will see that it is by far the best.

— A few days since there was shipped from the Tool Works, Hamilton, Ohio, a great armor plate bending machine for the United States Navy Yard at Mare Island, near near San Francisco, Cal. The machine required eleven specially built and extra heavy flat cars, the two largest castings weighing respectively 66,400 and 66,200 pounds, and the gross weight of the train carrying the whole machine was 675,350 pounds. The entire distance to San Francisco, 3,400 miles, was to be run through without change, the machine to be taken thence forty miles by steamer to the yard. The freight was a little over $10,000.

Never Say Die!

Scourged with ulcers, boils and tetter,
Weak of limb and sore of eye,
Hopeless now of growing better,
Surely one must die.

Not at all, poor, discouraged sufferer from disordered blood and scrofulous trouble. Take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great blood-purifier and life-saver of modern days. All these unwholesome sores and blood disorders may be cured, and the victim will look and feel like a new man. It is warranted to benefit or cure or money paid for it promptly returned.

Perfection is attained in Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It cures the worst cases.

A pale-faced, low-voiced woman
In the dying afternoon
Sat at the old piano
And played the same weird tune.
Over and over she played it
Till the stars came out in the blue,
And I wondered on till at last I learned
'Twas the only one she knew.

The Weight of Earth Worms.

Darwin estimated that worms, by swallowing earth for the sake of the vegetable matter it contains and forming castings, bring to the surface as much as ten tons of earth per annum on an acre. Worms are great promoters of vegetation by boring, perforating and loosening the soil, and rendering it pervious to rains and the fibers of plants, by drawing straws and stalks of leaves and twigs into it, and, most of all, by throwing up such infinite numbers of lumps of earth called worm casts, which form a fine manure for grain and grass. The earth without worms would soon become cold, hardbound, void of fermentation, and consequently sterile; this has occurred in many cases where the worms have been either accidentally or intentionally destroyed, and the fertility of the soil thus lossed has only been restored when the worms had again collected and resumed their fertilizing work.

— Cannot some one produce a better wagon wheel than at present exists? While American wheels are the best in the world, American roads are in the same or a greater proportion the worst, and there is in needed a wheel which will have a strong yet elastic tire, something that is more enduring than the rubber tire, which is in use to some extent, but not with every degree of satisfaction.

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. — At the Dublin City Sessions recently a man called as a juror presented what he said was a doctor's certificate of his inability to serve. The Court read the certificate aloud as follows. "This man has been asking for a certificate that he is unable to serve as a juror. I don't know whether he is a knave or a fool, but he has very little brains and reeks of porter." The juror upon declaring that he had no idea what was in the certificate when he handed it in, was relieved from a charge of contempt of court.

BUT

I. WE	are not the oldest shoe house in Butler. We are probably the youngest.	BUT	We know our business.
II. WE	are not the richest shoe house in Butler,	BUT	We've got enough to avoid the necessity of doing business on the "hand to-mouth" basis.
III. WE	haven't got the largest stock; it may be the smallest,	BUT	We have a brand new one that is right up to date.
IV. WE	haven't got the largest store room of any shoe house in Butler; ours is rather short,	BUT	We admit that the length of the room bears no relation to the quality of the shoes sold in it.
V. WE	haven't got the biggest shoe trade in the world, and we never expect to have.	BUT	We mean to sell our share o the fine shoes han dled by us
VI. WE	don't sell cheaper than anybody else; on the contrary our prices are the highest ruling.	BUT	We claim that the goods are fully worth the price.
VII. WE	don't give credit. We must have the money or the goods.	BUT	We try to deal with our customers so as to make them our friends.
VIII. WE	want to see you all come and give us a trial, and if goods are not just as represented we will cheerfully refund you your money,	BUT	We wish you to remember where we are located. Do not forget the number,
