This was a hotty contested case, with Col Thompson, McCandless, Bowser, McQuistion and Forquer on one side, and Thomas Marshall, Brandon and Campbell on the other. McClelland gave a lease to C. L. Jones and others in March of 1883, Jones et al sold their lease to Ripper, Griesbach, Shoup and others, and they sold to the Christie Bros proceeded to operate and have one well down, which is doing about 10 barrels a day, but as the lease adjoins another on which there are some better wells; it is considered valuable property. In May of 1889, some months before the Christie Bros purchased the Jones lease, McClelland who considered the old lease as null and void by reason of the violation of a parole agreement connected with it, gave Col Thompson a lease of it. The Col took the lease in the name of his son W C Thompson, and after the Christie's had developed it brought suit in ejectment. The greater part of the evidence offered by the defendants in this case waruled out by the Court. The verdict is for the plaintiff and the case will probably go to the Supreme Court.

With Spring comes new wants, new work and new duties, all centering in the place where the family abides, be it cabin or castle—"Home, Sweet Home"—"One small spot where my tired mind may rest and call it hom So we suggest, begin carly. Come and get some of our nice Wall Paper and Window shades, and fit up that "spot" bright and new. Hang the walls with a few of our Beautiful Pictures, and add the necessary for art furniture, which we are offering very chesp. Then place on your table and in your shelves a selection of choice books which we now sell at bargain prices, and assuredly in that "spot" you will find a home indeed.

Why should your walls be bare and dingy when a little taste and triffic expense will transform the room into a place of cheer and beauty.

The New Policy Examine

New York Life Insurance Company BEFORE INSURING.

A larger guaranteed cash return to the policy-holder than is offered by any other com-pany on a low rate policy, is contained in the new Distribution Policy of the New York Life Insurance Company. Insurance Commissioner Merrill, of Massachusetts, claims: "If the issue of these policies continue, all other companies will be compelled to struggle losingly." Can any reader of this paper afford to be without a policy which offers such advantages as compel all other companies "to struggle losingly?"

Copy of this policy will be furnished to any one sending
