THE CITIZEN.

MISCELLANEOUS.

—Pennsylvania Justice made four ghosts last week out of as many real men. He made them disappear, leaving no doubt, the worst of them, to which a man may be put; but it will be a long time before any other punishment shall come to be regarded by the public as adequate for capital offenses.

—"Shall our girls whistle?" Of course if they strengthen their lungs by taking Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

—When headache joins neuralgia, then comes the ting of war. A wise general marshals his forces, charges with a bottle of Salivation Oil, and the doughy foe lies cringing in the dust.

—Half-fare a unalloyed.

—Ever and anon turning over a new leaf—the dynamo.

For purity, strength, economy, and curative power, Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. Try it.

—There is a deaf and dumb man in Kansas seven feet tall. This is what we might call a long silence.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their names and addresses. Respectfully, J. A. SLOCUM, M. D., 121 Pearl St., N. Y. City.

—If the world is a stage we suppose it is the sea that takes the heavy toll.

—Lather—My dear, I think I will go out and get a pair and not get out after the next.

FITS.—All fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after three bottles free to fit cases. Send Dr. Kline, 361 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

—He—They say it takes three generations to make a gentleman. She—Indeed! What a pleasant prospect for your grandson.

—Guilty conscience: Water (at the club)—There is a lady outside who says that her husband promised to be home early to-night. All (rising)—Excuse me a moment.

To Consumptives.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which costs nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.
