Vote for Governor.

Express your choice for chief executive of the State at the primary to-morrow. The interests of the Republic are at stake.

The opposition to him in this county has centered on the name of HON. C. W. STONE.

Tax candidates for Governor are: Chas. W. Stone, of Warren Co.; E. A. Montooth, of Allegheny Co.; D. H. Hastings, of Centre Co.; E. W. Osborne, of Luzerne Co.; G. W. Delamater, of Crawford Co.

Gen. Hastings has written to his friends in this county, advising them to centre on Hon. Chas. W. Stone for Governor.

Hans in Butler the supporters of Delamater are going from door to door to efforts to elect Delamater to the Return Judges or County Committee.

Many oil producers of this county, who have always voted the Republican ticket, say they will not vote for Delamater if he is nominated.

It will be well for all candidates for county offices to keep clear of the gubernatorial contest. Politicians sometimes make promises that they cannot fulfill.

Tax Month meeting in Pittsburg last Saturday evening was addressed by Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., A. M. Brown, Esq., Col. D. A. Day, Esq., and other gentlemen, well known in Butler county.

In that alleged interview with Senator Quay, the words put in his mouth read more like the vapors of a drunken fool, than those of a man of ordinary common sense, and it is no wonder that it is reported to recall it.

Senators Quay and Cameron were both heard from last Friday. Quay issued a remarkable manifesto in which he named both the Republican and Democratic nominees for Governor, and Cameron was reported to have a three hundred dollar "spot" in a poker game, on a diamond suit.

In kicking a gainst the nomination of Mr. Delamater for Governor we kick against the whole rotten system of nominating state officers by the use of Federal patronage. It is a system that strikes at the root of republicanism, and that degrades everybody who submits to it without protest.

Notwithstanding Senator Quay's extraordinary manifesto last Friday, York county, his native county, elected four delegates for Hastings, on Saturday.

The anti-Delamater men there united on Hastings against a lot of Quay's followers, defeated him in 112 of the 148 districts of the county.

There is no Stone "ring" in Butler county, but there is a decided ring to the tone of the opposition to Federal patronage. It is a system that strikes at the root of republicanism, and that degrades everybody who submits to it without protest.

Delamater's Nomination Would Be Political Suicide.

Washington, May 16.—Senator Quay left for Beaver this morning, and he no longer makes his support of Delamater, but has given the word along the line that Delamater must be nominated as a personal liability of himself and of the charges that have been brought against him.

Question to All Candidates for the Legislature.

Do you travel on any railroad with a free pass? If so, we cannot, and will not vote for you, because you are unfit for the position.

Against Delamater.

Washington, May 15.—Congressman Reynolds, of Philadelphia, the successor of the Republican State Convention in this city, has written to Wm. R. Leeds, who is directing the Hastings campaign in this city, explaining his position in this way: "My position is this: I am unopposed, but if General Delamater is nominated, I will not vote for him."

"STILL HERE."

Why certainly we are here. Don't you remember we told you a year ago we were going to stay and don't you remember we told you how we had been working for ten years to reach the top of the business, and you were nearly there. We told you we were the largest dealers in our line in this great State of Pennsylvania. But now we are the largest dealers in our line in the entire United States.
