> THE Supreme Court of Maine has re ersed one of the lower courts of the state n the famous Burns case. Burns severa years ago opened in Augusta an "original package" business, selling only liquors, lowever, that were imported from the ovinces or other countries, claiming that inder the United States Constitution, the State had no right to interfere with his business. The case carried up step by step until it is now decided in Burn's favor. The Court says in part: "The Iowa ease just decided by the Supreme Court of the United States clearly settles the quesion. We are bound by that decision to reverse the ruling below and to sus tain the law as contended for by the respondent. The minority opinion in the Iowa case is elaborate and commends itself to many as containing the better conclusion. Our obediance is due to the judgment which prevails. Our statutes prohibit only unlawfulness. Its interpretation must be

THE General Assembly of the Presby erian Church has decided to submit a re rision of the Confession of faith to the Assembly of next year and has provided for a committee to formulate the changes to be proposed. The committee is instruc ted, however, to propose nothing that wil impair the integrity of the "Calvinistic system of doctrine." This seems still to leave considerable room for disputation. Presbyterians evidently are by no means nnanimous as to just what is and what i not an essential part of the Calvinistic ystem. If there were agreement on that point the question of revision probably would not have been so difficult. But the committee will have a year to talk it over and anything on which fifteen min-isters and ten laymen can agree should be Peterson each picked up a squib, and, after sufficiently conservative to satisfy every-
