PRIVATE DISEASES.

On account of having been Attendant Physician at Hot Springs, Dr. McClellan has never failed to cure a case of Private disease peculiar to either sex, no matter of what nature or of how long standing.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS.

Major J. M. Davidson, ex-President of the Lawrence County Wool Growers' Association, and a citizen well known in the county, freely gives the following testimonial to the ability of Drs. Salm & McClellan. The Major says: "I was suffering greatly from a Polypus and with Inward Piles. I had tried local treatment and much medicine with no avail. I read the advertisement of Drs. Salm & McClellan and I concluded to give them a trial. At their last visit to this city they declared me cured and they discharged me. I feel now like a new man. They did everything they agreed to and treated me courteously. They did me a world of good and relieved me of all suffering."

NEW CASTLE, Pa., July 7, 1890.

I have been suffering from Insomnia (Sleeplessness) and general nervous prostration, dependent upon the former disease for more than three years. I became so weak that I would not be on my feet for an hour at a time; appetite was miserable. I went to Mt. Sinai Hospital at New York City, but without the least benefit. I put myself under care of Drs. McClellan & Salm, who visit New Castle every four weeks, and am now as well as ever, hale and hearty, minus all defects of health.

DEATHS

BICKEL—Wednesday, July 16, 1890, Flora G., daughter of Philip Bickel, of Butler, which expired at the residence.

KECK—At the home of his uncle, Christian Troutman, in Pittsburg, Sunday, July 13, 1890, Edward, son of Jacob Keck, aged 12 years.

He was visiting his uncle's family and was taken ill with inflammation of the bowels the Friday previous to his decease. He was an unusually bright boy, of good disposition, and his death is regretted by a large circle of young friends. He was buried in the Allegheny cemetery.

BURKE—At the home of his son-in-law, Mr. R. B. Bickel, in Butler, Monday, July 14, 1890, Rev. Edmund Burke, aged 70 years.

He was taken ill at the sea-shore some weeks ago and was brought to Butler. His disease was a continuation of the one which affected his stomach and made it powerless. He was formerly pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church of Butler, a man of high appearance, good education, and had many friends in Butler.

CALDWELL—Butler, Pa., Friday morning, July 12, 1890, Mrs. Mary J. Caldwell, wife of Wm. Caldwell, departed this life, aged 57 years, 6 months and 17 days.

Mrs. Caldwell was a woman of Christian character, a loving wife and mother, and for many years a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She died in the full hope of a glorious immortality. With worldly goods she was not particularly wealthy, but she was a true and devoted wife and mother, and she left behind her a life that is a blessing to all who know her.

On mother, thy gentle voice is hushed,
Thy warm, kind heart is cold,
And on thy pale and peaceful face
Is resting death's cold shroud.
But thy memory will be cherished here,
We have kissed thy lovely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no more to cheer thee here.

Thy hand to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
Thy hand, so hard to speak the words
We never more will hear thee say,
Dearest mother, we must lay thee down,
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished here,
Till we see thy heavenly face.

What is home without a mother?
You will never, never know,
Till that angelic light is low,
Low beneath the budding daisies,
Free from earthly care and pain,
Free from all that grieves the heart,
Nearer to return again.

GIBSON—At his home in Washington tp., July 13, 1890, David Gibson, aged 70 years.

Mr. Gibson was born and raised near Prospect, moved to Washington tp., in 1854, and resided there since. His wife and eight children; John, who lives in the old homestead; A. S., of Mahanog, Pa.; Thomas W., of Butler; Mrs. E. Burkhalter of Joplin, Mo.; Mrs. Mary J. Armstrong of Diamond, Pa.; and Mrs. Sarah Everett, of North Hope, survive him.

Call for Meeting of the County Committee.

To the members of the Republican County Committee:

Reports appearing in the daily papers to the effect that the recent nomination for Governor in this, the Twenty-fifth district was obtained by bribery of delegates, and their affidavits in substantiation of the said allegations being given, it has been deemed best to call the County Committee together to consider the matter officially. The members of the Republican County Committee are hereby notified to meet at Butler, Pa., on Wednesday, July 23, 1890, at 1 p. m., to take such action as may be deemed best for the good of the party. A full attendance is desired.

S. H. HEBELTON, Chairman.

T. M. BAKER, Secretary.

Must be Remedied.

The Republicans at this Congressional district did themselves, at present, in an unpleasant predicament as one could well imagine.

They are confronted with the fact that the delegation convention at New Castle was held on the 12th of July, and the delegates were elected on that day. The delegates received nearly all the money. Two Lawrence County men did the business, and it is taken for granted that the money came from Mercer Co.

Some of McDowell's good or bad apples in Lawrence or Mercer Co., in their determination to defeat the re-nomination of Mr. Townsend, may have "put up" the money, but whether the money came from Mercer Co. or Mercer Co. is not the question. It is a disgrace to the party.

The Beaver Co. Committee at its meeting to-morrow will probably nominate a delegate to represent the district. It is practically worthless to him and it is a disgrace to the party.

The Beaver Co. Committee at its meeting to-morrow will probably nominate a delegate to represent the district. It is practically worthless to him and it is a disgrace to the party.

Gen. Fremont Dead.

General John Charles Fremont died at his residence, No. 42 West Twenty-fifth street, last Sunday afternoon. His death was sudden and unexpected, and resulted from an attack of peritonitis. Dr. Martin attended the patient, but was unable to afford relief. The General was out on Friday apparently good and hearty, and was in the city on Saturday. He was notified of his father's illness, but was unable to reach New York before death occurred.

Since the close of the war General Fremont has taken little part in public affairs. From 1878 to 1881 he was Governor of Arizona. At the present session of Congress his rank of Major General was restored to him and he retired as such.

General Fremont was a man of wonderful achievement, indomitable courage, great perseverance, a bitter hater of slavery and a true friend of the South, and a great lover of the Union. His services won for him much renown both at home and abroad.

Rheumatism

We doubt if there is, or can be, a specific remedy for rheumatism, but thousands in New York City, on June 29th ult., in the 78th year of his age.

Frederic H. Gilmore was a farmer and rather prominent citizen of Butler a notice of his life here, although there may be few who can remember him. His father, the late Hon. John Gilmore, was one of the earliest settlers in Butler and was a very good and prominent man, occupying many positions of honor and trust, among them State Treasurer, member of Congress and member of the Senate. He was a native of the State of New York, and resided in Butler for many years. He was a member of the first Legislature of the State of New York, and was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was a man of great energy and ability, and his services to his country were many and noble.

made information against W. D. Wallace, charging him with paying money unlawfully to these men.

Dr. McKinney was very indignant and said that he had been subjected to great deal of abuse, and now wants the guilty parties dealt with according to law. He is represented by J. J. McClellan, Esq., the leading attorney of this place.

The interest in the bribery charges was beginning to flag out, but has been reinvigorated by these informations. Mr. Wallace, who expected to leave the city today on his annual vacation is still here. He is apparently not worried over this sudden turn of affairs.

The Louisiana House of Representatives passed the Lottery bill over the Governor's veto, but the Senate could not do so on account of the death of a member on Thursday last, which made those senators favoring the bill lack one of a two-thirds majority. The bill provides for an amendment to the constitution of the state, and the question will go to its Supreme Court, and that body and the people of the state should take heed of the interference of Providence in the matter.

The House at Washington last week named the President for the official correspondence relating to the Behring sea matter. An English war squadron has been ordered to that sea.

CENTRAL Ohio has an unusual divorce sensation on hand. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are both ministers of the Universalist Church. One presides over the church at Cuba and the other over that at Blanche. Some time ago Rev. Mrs. Andrews for a divorce and the case came up last Monday. The testimony was most sensational. It charged that the husband had first been a Methodist Episcopal minister, but was dismissed for financial irregularities. He then joined the Universalist Church, and went to Anna Hill, where he was again rector for crookedness. Then he went to Washington, Pa., and was ejected from church. Next he appeared at Blanche as a Universalist preacher, and within a week applied for admission to the Episcopal Church. The wife also charges terrible brutality and scandalous conduct and shocking affairs. The husband charges that his wife is a kleptomaniac and a habitual liar, of devilish temper and of the most atrocious character. The judge joining the best-known people of the State are mixed up in the affair, and sympathy is with the wife.

The compromise Silver bill passed the House last Saturday and was signed by the President Monday.
