That Explains It.

The bargain and sale agreement between the politicians of Mercer county on one side and and Quay on the other, now made public property, explains one thing that has puzzled many people who believed Mr. McDowell when he said he had nothevents he agreed to do more than he found himself able to perform, for he had oppoing to do with the bribery, and who wondered why he did not promptly repudiate a nomination brought about by such means and trust to the generosity and sympathy and trust to the generosity and sympathy are trust to the district to unany whether or no he would have carried out whether or no he would have carried out and part of Lawrence county went ahead and part of Lawrence county went ahead and part of Lawrence county went ahead and part of Lawrence county went ahead. ing to do with the bribery, and who won-

The Mercer county men not only broke tire control of the Mercer county delega-Dowell, conspired against the Beaver county candidate and purchased three of his delegates.

This was such a dastardly violation of mous endorsement of their respective proverbial "honor among thieves" that counties, and Mr. McDowell securing eleven the proverbial "honor among thieves" that counties, and Mr. McDowell securing elever it would not have been forgiven, and had and Mr. Brown four, of the delegates of Mr. McDowell, after the expose, repudiated that nomination and brought about the re-convening of the convention, he could not have been renominated, and he knew it.

Some days previous to the meeting of the convention at New Castle, Mr. Black, of this county, went to Sharon. He had notified Mr. McDowell of his intended visit

In that case the Beaver county men would probably have supported Mr. Black, and that support, with the one anti-Jackson man of the Lawrence county delegation would have nominated him. Had Mr. McDowell thrown up the nomination he had secured he could not possibly have supported Mr. Black to enter into a written agreement with them to throw the secured another, makes the Mercer and the county men tried to induce Mr. Black to enter into a written agreement with them to throw the secured another, makes the Beaver county men tried to induce Mr. Black to enter into a written agreement with them to throw the secured another, makes the Mercer and two other man would retain a bribed nomination, and his course naturally creates suspicion.

The following article of agreement enered into by men of Beaver and Mercer counties, the day after Christmas of 1889, five months before the time the county primaries are usually held, explains itself. "It is mutually agreed that A. McDow-ell and his friends in Mercer county are to support the candidacy of C. C. Town send for Congress in the congressional con ference of 1890 by giving him the votes of the Mercer county conferrees in said con-ference; and on the part of C. C. Townsend and his friends in Beaver county, he and they will give the support of the Beaver county conferrees to A. McDowell in the conference for the congressional nominaon in 1892. And if necessary to carry out the spirit of this agreement, McDowell is to be a candidate for Congress in Merer county in 1890, and Townsend in Beaer county in 1892. state and County have one great object and that is the purification and salvation of the great Republican party in the State and in the Nation.

The only way to do this is by crushing out Bossism, Boodleism and False Leadership.

We have, therefore, opened this campaign in the interest of Robert E. Pattison, an honest man and a good Governor; which facts were conceded by every Republican paper of the State, at the close of his administration.

The success of Boss Quay's appointed candidate would continue the corrupt boss at the head of the National Committee.

The Republican papers all over the United States, outside of Pennsylvania, have come out so plainly against Quay and Quayism that they could not give a hearty support to the Republican candidate in 1892, with Quay as Chairman.

We are Republicans and will support the Republican ticket so far as nominated, but are fighting the appointee of a corrupt boss, and will work and ask every Republican brother who loves his party and desires its success in 1892 to join with us in working for the election of Robt. E. Pattison by such an overwhelming majority as will forever crush out bossism and boodleism in this grand old Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

J. E. Forsythe, Chairman Independent Republican Committee.

The Quay-McDowell article of agreement was an insult to every citizen of this Congressional district.

It should be stated that Dr. Young was Estate of Dawson Wadsworth, at author of much ability. Catarrh is generally understood to mean inflammation of the macous membrane of the head. It originates in a cold, or succession of colds, combined with impure blood. Flow from the nose, tickling in the throat, offensive breath, pain over and between the eyes, ringing and bursting noises in the cars, are the more common symptoms. Catarrh is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strikes directly at its cause by removing all impurities from the blood, building up the diseased tissues and giving healthy tone to the whole system.

Graham's address was eloquent and tender, his closing farewell apostrophe, looking down upon the remains, being exceedingly touching. Rev. W. O. Campbell, of Sewickley, Pa., followed and also paid a tender and beautiful tribute to his old friend and early instructor. The pure character and pious life of Dr. Young were well told by Rev. Campbell. Rev. Barnett, of Washington College, Pa., closed the tributes with a few but very appropriate remarks. In all these addresses one feature of Dr. Young's character was emphasized—that it had not a single fault or blemish; that he was never known to utter a harsh word of or to be in anger towards anyone; that his mind was so evenly balanced and well tempered as to offend none.

always safest to trade with Heck. We are after that man. About one man in ten does not know that his neighbors are saving money, because they trade with Heck. We are after that man with a big stock, big bargains, with low prices, with fair dealing, and we expect to get his trade. Are you the tenth man? We are after you We have got the strongest line of first-class goods ever offered for sale in this market. It is this fact and our extra low prices that makes our present bargain offer the great event of the season. We want smart buyers, sensible people to drop in on us and see us, and see the stock we are handling, look at the goods and get our prices. See what we offer and you will be convinced that our truth is stranger than fiction. We depend on facts, not fakes, to win us custom and increase our ever growing business. As we said before we have no bait for suckers. bright penny will plesse a child, but you would not think of giving a man a penny; the idea then of offering a man or woman a penny bribe to draw their custom. Yet that is just what is offered where a reputed dollar article is marked at 99 cents or a $10.00 article is marked $9.99, or still worse, a reputable 15-cent article marked out only 19 cents or a 25-cent article marked only 29 cents, a 35 cent article marked only 49 cents. These are called baits and so they are, but only sucker baits, and you will see suckers jump for miles and swallow them whole: We consider such bait too small to go fishing for custom with, too small for a large firm and quite too small for us. Our principle is $1.00 worth for $1.00, and we live up to it. We give a premium in the quality of our goods. That is worth more than a cent's worth of chewing gum. It is now 18 years since we shied our castor into the clothing arens, and in that time we have captured the field of clothing buyers far and near. Of course, once in a while a concern started up that was going to exterminate and obliterate us from the face of clothing-dom. Where are they now! They have gone to join pterodectyl, icthyo-saurus, megasauraus and the rest of the family, and we are here now rooting, not like a hog, but like a tree that gives back in the air what it takes from the soil. Yes, here we are with a stock that can't be surpassed, and

Does Advertising Pay?

VERY REAL LIVE BUSINESS MAN WILL tell you that it does if you do it properly and judiciously. The question is not when to advertise, for that should be always, but how. Those who have discovered the best method of course get the largest returns.

Nearly every business has its "dull season," during which a good advertisement will do faitful work day and night, rain or shine, in familiariting consumers with the name, location and specialties or advantages of the advertiser, so that when the time to buy comes he reaps the benefit of his seed-sowing.

His account of this meeting is as follows:

Rearry, and who, judging from his well known character and past record, never will have.

He is now before the people as a candidate for Congress and his name is Thomas W. Phillips.

According to the article of agreement entered into between Quay and McDowell, Quay owns Beaver county, Sam Miller and his gaug own Mercer county, sam deverybody owns the Legislature of Pennsylvania excepting the people thereof.

In his speech at New Castle, a few days ago, Maj. McDowell is quoted as follows:

"I charge that this charge of bribury originated in Beaver county; that it was part of a plan or plot. The object was not to purify politics, for the fountain head of all impurity is not far from that place."

And in his speech at Beaver Falls, Sam Miller, McDowell's right hand man, is quoted as follows:

"I do not know whether M. S. Quay is in favor of Alex. McDowell or not; but I do know that Mercer county has given M. S. Quay her support in every State context he has ever been in, and I do know that Mercer county has given M. S. Quay her support in every State context he has ever been in, and I do know that Mercer county has given M. S. Quay her support in every State context he bas ever been in, and I do know that Mercer county has given M. S. Q. Did you, Mr. Brown, in any way indorse the nomination of McDowell at the close of the conference?

A. I did heartily indorse the nomination at the close of the conference, supposing at the time that it had been accomplished fairly and without fraud and had not thought of anything else than to support the nomination heartily until the evidence of fraud and bribery was made upublic.
