Action of the P. P. A.

At the meeting of the Producers' Protective Association in Butler last Friday evening the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has been alleged that Thomas W. Phillips, President of the Producers' Protective Association, and of our local assembly, having sold a portion of his producing interests in Butler county to the Standard Oil Company, he would be unwilling, as well as unable, to act in connection with our association, either as President or for the welfare of the producers; and

Whereas, We have heard the reply of Mr. Phillips to the unjust conclusion which is attempted to be drawn from his action aforesaid, and.

Whereas, Mr. Phillips has expressed a willingness to call a special meeting of the General Association of the Producers Protective Association, as provided by the constitution, and that he is ready and willing to act in harmony with and support any measure for the benefit of the producers that may be adopted by said Association,

Resolved, That we hereby express on ontinued confidence in him as one of the eading producers, and his entire loyalty to s, believing him now to be, as he alway has been, a free and untrammelled friend of the producers of oil, one of whom he is, as well as a friend of the laboring classes connected with the industry.

*Resolved, That being in a position to know, we further answer said charge and firmly believe the allegation to be false. We further believe that no other man in the oil region of Pennsylvania has done or is now doing more to obtain a fair price for erude oil and good wages for labor than Mr. Phillips.

*Resolved, That in justice to Mr. Phillips and as a notice to whom it may concern, the foregoing preamble and resolutions be given to the press of the oil country.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Phillips, who addressed the producers at length.

In the Supreme Court last Thursday an argument was heard in the case of George S. Veon against Patrick Creaton, appealed by the defendant from the Common Pleas of Venango county. The suit was to recover money paid out in earing for the plaintiff's injured son. The son, Myron H. Veon, was a musician. One night he and a companion named Shannon, while in toxicated, were struck by a train. Shannon was fatally injured and Veon had one legent off. Creaton was the proprietor of a saloon and restaurant, and it was claimed that the injured men got drunk in his place and were then put out by him, and that he was liable for the money paid out by Veon's father. Creaton denied that the men got drunk in his place and appealed the case.

The firm of Mitchell Lewis & Co. is one of the oldest wagor firms on record, established in 1834. Their works are in Racine, Wis. Wisconsin is noted for good timber. This wagon material is cut in the proper season for cutting lumber and placed in open sheds and air dried for three years before using making it perfectly dry, before put in wagons. One reason why they are so particular in thoroughly drying their lumber is their trade is principally Southern trade, and we all know it requires better seasoned material for the hot southern states than it does for this country. List of Traverse Jurors drawn this 29th day of eptember, A. D., 1886, to serve as Traverse urors at a special term of Court, commencing a the 3d Monday of November, being the 17th naterial for the Bot southern states than does for this country.

The Mitchell wagon has the best material and the best seasoned material conary wagon ever introduced in this country. Come and see them. You will find under the old law as late as midnight. The request was granted.

New York, Oct. 4.—The most intense excitement prevalled in and about the Custom House all day. Whole irroys of importers and brokers kept coming and going. As 3 o'clock approached the numbers increased until firally the rotunda of the Custom House was filled with a solid mass of humanity, which perspired, jostied, pushed and yelled.

All carried large sums of money. They were on hands to enter goods that were expected to arrive late this afternoon. They wished to get their entries in under the old law, and stood ready to make their entries the moment the vessel arrived at Fire Island. By the decision of yesterday the Custom House was to have closed on the stroke of 3 o'clock this afternoon. All goods arriving after that hour were to come in under the new law and duty was to be charged accoralighy. GREAT EXCITEMENT.
