A Soldier Speaks. A New Castle soldier writes as follows: I am a soldier, and believe that all things being equal a soldier should be preferred in the disposition of political gifts.

A LAW-MAKER SHOULD NOT BE CHOSEN BY THE VIOLATION OF LAW. T. W. Phillips' Letter of Acceptance.

Different Opinions. The friends of Major McDowell in this county means every Republican voter need not feel discouraged.

They are not free to vote in this city that Mr. Phillips will receive a single county seat in the Democratic primary.

It is said that Mr. Gillespie, the Democratic nominee for Congress, voted and worked for Samuel Miller for Judge of Mercer Co., as against Judge Meador, who was elected.

Lee's Sketch of Phillips.

Some time last winter, Senator Lee, of Franklin, Pa., wrote a sketch of the life of his friend, Thomas W. Phillips, after giving an account of his early days, and his start in business, etc., as follows:

"When General Garfield received the nomination for the Presidency at Chicago, being an intimate and warm personal friend of the General for many years, he and more recent acquaintances, and the public, Mr. Phillips laid aside his business and contributed his entire time and energy to the political campaign.

"It is mutually agreed that A. McDowell and his friends in Mercer county are to support the candidacy of C. C. Townsend for Congress in the congressional election of 1908 by giving him the votes of Mercer county, and in return, Mr. Townsend will give the support of the Beaver River and Mercer counties to Mr. Phillips.

"It is also agreed that in case a new congressional apportionment is made prior to the November election, Mr. Townsend will support Mr. Phillips for Congress in the same district.

"We endorse this agreement. M. S. PEABY, T. W. PHILLIPS, T. S. QUAY, B. J. HATWOOD."

"Some week or ten days before the convention in New Castle, I went to the house of Major McDowell. Some time afterwards, Hon. E. M. Greer, Esq., called on me and passed the time there pleasantly for a while, and the coming convention was brought up for discussion.
