Playing a Racket.

Among the personal effects of a young man arrested for drunkenness the other day was a bank check for $3,000. It wa plain enough to the officer that the paper was N. G., and when the young man sobered up he was accused of being in a con fidence racket.

"Oh, come now," he replied, "I am SALICYLICA. straight and all right. That was a little racket on my own account."
"How?"

"Why, I'm going with a girl who love ne for myself alone, but her mother." "And you filled out this check to de ceive her!"

"That's what I did. I chowed her tha I had $3,000 in the bank, but what did she do but post right down there to find out that I didn't have a hairpin on deposit." "And what."

"Why, that's how I came to get drunk. She showed me the door and I found the gate myself. I knew from the way she whistled for the log that the syndicate was busted, and so I went to ruin at the
