Miss Addie Johns, who has been living at the Working Girls' Home in Allegheny for the past three weeks, and who until recently thought she had no relative living has been made glad by the discovery of two brothers. When only 4 years of age her mother died, leaving three children, two boys and one girl, all of whom were placed in an orphan asylum by their father who went West to seek his fortune. After she became old enough to work Addie was employed as a domestic in a family near Butler. About three weeks ago she received a call from William Johns, of Bellevue, who proved to be her brother. He secured a place for her in the Working Girls' Home where she at once went to live. She was soon made acquainted with an older brother and a joyful family reunion was held. Last week she received a latter from a Mrs. Johns who lives in Minneapolis, who proved to be the second wife of the young lady's father. The newlyfound relative has offered the young lady a home with her, but as she is pleasantly situated where she is it is not likely that she will accept the invitation.—Pittsburg Gazette
