Council met Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. with J. B. Black, Pres., and Councilmen Perrine, Forquer, Ziegler, Schenck, Haffner, McJunkin, Stamm, Vogel, Harper, Alexander, Campbell and Byers, and also Secretary Wise, Solicitor Campbell and Engineer McQuistion, present.

The session continued till near midnight and the most animated discussion was the one regarding the curbing of that part of Main street from the Diamond down to the vogeley House alley. The grades for the entire street were fixed a year or so ago, and a complete plan made of the street. Shortly after a committee of the Council went over it again and at the suggestion of property owners along the street made a few changes, one of which was the raising of the curb on the east side of the part of street mentioned, while the curb of the west side was allowed to remain. The curb was set last week and the fact that the east side was higher than the west was noticed by everybody. The west side noticed by everybody. The west side folks did not like this and petitioned Counfolks did not like this and petitioned Council to have it changed. Some other changes were also asked for—Mr. Berg was in during the evening and asked that the curbing at corner of Main and Jefferson streets, west side, be lowered, while the people on the other side would like to have it raised, and so on—and some of the have it raised, and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and has not since been and so on—and some of the leave and l have it raised, and so on-and some of the property owners along the street say they will refuse to pay their assessments if the The matter was discussed for an hour more and though Mr. Schenck made strong fight against it, a motion to make the curbing of the east side correspond with that of the west carried.
