Death of Wendell Kirk. Wendell Kirk of Oakland twp., near Car bon Centre Station, was killed by his big Durham bull, last Saturday. About 5 o'clock that afternoon Mr. Kirk ed the bull from the barn to the watering ough below and when he thought th bull had drank enough he tried to pull him away, but the rope broke and Mr. Kirk fell across the trough. The bull instantly charged upon him and crushed his ches[‡] against the trough and kept at it until every rib was broken. None of the family were near excepting girl of about twelve years, and she ran in and caught the bull by the nose and held on till the dogs came, when the bull shook her loose and turned his attention to the dogs; a circumstance that probably saved and Mr. Kirk was carried to his home, where he died at 8:30 p. m. He was about 44 years of age, and leaves a wife and eleven children. The bull is the one he had at the Fair and had never before been vicious, and Mr. Kirk said before his death that the animal seemed to be in more of a playful than vi-cious humor; and after the dogs were call ed off, it did not object to being led to the barn and tied.

On Saturday last Greenlee & Fcrst's big well at McDonald was again agitated, after which, by a correct gauge, it did a little over 650 bbls an hour, or 15,600 bbls a day making it by far the largest well ever struck in the state. It flowed through a 5% casing, with a heavy pressure of gas, and seemed to be doing all that that size of casing would allow of.

SENTENCE OF ADAM MININGER. On Monday afternoon of this week Judge Hazen sentenced Adam Mininger on his conviction for shooting with intent to kill, as follows—A fine of $50 to the Commonwealth, costs of prosecution and be imprisoned in the penitentiary for the term of three years. Adam was immediately taken to jail and on Tuesday was taken to Riverside.

THE BRIBERY CASES.

The Supreme Court has at last made a decision in the bribery cases, and it handed down its decision in same, immediately after the opening of the Court in Pittsburg last Monday.

The cases taken up were the appeals of Tate, Downing and Shaffer from an order of Court made by Judge Hazen, committing them to the county jail of Lawrence Co. tor refusing to testify against Wm. D. Wallace Esq. of the Lawrence Co. bar, when he was on trial for bribing them.
The opinion in Tate's case reads as follows:

"In December, 1890, William D. Wallace

"Mr. Osborne was paid $6000, on work done, and Long & Doyle $2000. Warrants for wirg-walls, plumbing, police, engineering, teaming, repairing, etc., aggregating about $2000, were also ordered drawn.

Mr. Shaffner's bill for the Centre Avenue

"In December, 1890, William D. Wallace was on trial in the quarter sessions court of Lawrence county on an indictment charging him in the second court with offering John R. Tate, Edwin Shaeffer and Thomas J. Downing, electors and delegates to a nominating convention, money as a bribe and in the third court with soliciting, encouraging and requesting the same men to receive money as a bribe to influence them to make and join in nominating a candidate for congress.

Mr. Shaffner's bill for the Centre Avenue wing-wall was $1572.50.

Propositions from the West Penn and Shenango R. R. Cos. regarding repairing a the streets in the vicinities of their depots were referred to the Street Committee; the Gas Committee was instructed to report the number of new lamps needed; some petitions for new sidewalks were referred candidate for congress.

them to make and join in nominating a candidate for congress.

The relator was sworn as a witness on behalf of the commonwealth; was asked certain questions, refused to answer on the ground that it would tend to criminate himself. The court told him to answer and that his replies would not be used in any criminal proceeding against him. He still refused to answer and was committed to jail for contempt of court. The following day he was brought into court again and still refused to answer saying. "I still claim my privilege." He was sentenced to pay $200 and undergo an imprisonment until the tenth day of March. He was committed.

The relator was sidewalks were referred to to the Sidewalk Com; the petitions of the Hose Cos, for more hose were referred to the Fire Com; some small bridges and elements were ordered to be repaired; the sidewalk on Fulton St.; the minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted and the Council adjourned till ext Tuesday evening.

The opinion recites further: It is not for us to state now whether the acts in the indictment of Wallace are indictable ones, but if not criminal no time should be lost in making them highly penal. The related rappears to have thought such acts as criminal because of his fears of criminating himself by testifying. His refusal to testify was wrong. If it was right the courts would be at the mercy of contumacious witnesses.

SPOONS ARE OLDER THAN SOUP.

Our talk of Domestic Ware must begin with Spoons by right of seniority, for the most ancient piece of English Hall marked plate in existence is a simple Spoon. It would be difficult any time for the last six hundred years to find a man, of however humble station, who had not a Spoon or two to bequeath to his Widow or Son. The wills and inventories of the rich mention them in great numbers. It was an old English Custom for sponsors, at christenings to present spoons to the children for whom they answered. This most sensible fashion still holds good in our day, along with that other equally rational custom of giving Spoons as wedding presents, for of Spoons there can never be too many in the household.

We have received this day, and will offer NTIL FURTHER NOTICE, TWENTY-FIVE GROSS of plated ware, at the great BARGAIN PRICE of 25 cents, for choice.
